SECTION 5 - CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers

On January 6, 2011, the Board of Directors of American Axle & Manufacturing Holdings, Inc. (“AAM” or the “Company”) elected James A. McCaslin as an independent director of the Board effective February 8, 2011. Mr. McCaslin will serve as a Class III director for a term expiring on the date of the Company's 2011 annual meeting of stockholders. The Board expanded the size of the Board from 10 to 11 directors. Mr. McCaslin is expected to stand for re-election as a Class III director at the Company's annual meeting of stockholders on April 28, 2011.

Mr. McCaslin recently retired from Harley-Davidson, Inc., where he held various senior executive-level positions during his 18 years of service, including president and chief operating officer of Harley-Davidson Motor Company. From 1989 to 1992, he held manufacturing and engineering leadership roles with J.I. Case, a manufacturer of agricultural equipment. Previously, Mr. McCaslin held manufacturing, engineering, and quality positions with Chrysler Corporation, Volkswagen USA, and the Chevrolet Division of General Motors Corporation, where he began his 40-year career in manufacturing.

The Board elected Mr. McCaslin to this new Board position based on, among other things, his extensive operational and manufacturing experience in the automotive, agricultural, and motorcycle industries in the original equipment and aftermarket product markets. His skills and experience are aligned with AAM's key strategic objectives and will serve the Company well as AAM continues to expand globally and diversify its product portfolio.
