Item 1.01

Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On January 6, 2006, Gregory J. Witherspoon executed a letter agreement (the “Witherspoon Letter”) with Schnitzer Steel Industries, Inc. (the “Company”) regarding his position as Chief Financial Officer of the Company. The Witherspoon Letter is effective as of January 9, 2006. Mr. Witherspoon will receive compensation of $450,000 per annum and will be eligible to participate in the Company’s Economic Value Added bonus program and the Company’s Long-Term Incentive Program. Beginning in June 2006, Mr. Witherspoon will be eligible for consideration in the Company’s annual salary review program pursuant to which his salary may increase. Mr. Witherspoon will be granted an auto allowance of $700 per month, a Company gas card and will be eligible for certain other benefits. The Company will also assist Mr. Witherspoon with his relocation expenses. Mr. Witherspoon is an “at-will” employee of the Company and his employment and compensation can be terminated, with or without cause and with or without notice, at any time, at the option of the Company or Mr. Witherspoon. A copy of the Witherspoon Letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated by reference herein.

In connection with execution of the Witherspoon letter, the letter agreement, dated August 31, 2005, between the Company and Mr. Witherspoon, regarding Mr. Witherspoon’s position as Interim Chief Financial Officer, was terminated as of January 9, 2006.

On January 6, 2006, Richard C. Josephson executed a letter agreement (the “Josephson Letter”) with the Company regarding his position as Vice President and General Counsel of the Company. The Josephson Letter is effective as of January 9, 2006. Before joining the Company, Mr. Josephson was a partner in the Portland, Oregon office of the law firm Stoel Rives LLP which has served as outside legal counsel to the Company. Mr. Josephson will receive compensation of $450,000 per annum and will be eligible to participate in the Company’s Economic Value Added bonus program and the Company’s Long-Term Incentive Program. Beginning in June 2006, Mr. Josephson will be eligible for consideration in the Company’s annual salary review program pursuant to which his salary may increase. Mr. Josephson will be granted an auto allowance of $700 per month, a Company gas card and will be eligible for certain other benefits. The Company will also pay, or reimburse, Mr. Josephson’s normal and reasonable business expenses, including Oregon State Bar fees.

The Company will be presenting a severance program for certain key executive positions to the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors that will provide a compensation package in the event of a loss of employment related to change in control and/or termination without cause. Mr. Josephson’s position will be included in this evaluation and recommendation, and actual participation will be subject to approval by the Compensation Committee. In the event such a program is not approved, or Mr. Josephson is not included within such program at substantially the same level as other similarly situated senior executives of the Company, then the Company will provide Mr. Josephson with a severance program during the period between January 9, 2006 and January 2, 2009, pursuant to which if Mr. Josephson’s employment is terminated by the Company (unless for cause) he will be eligible for the following severance payments so long as he executes a general release of claims in a form reasonably satisfactory to the Company: (i) one year of salary at his then-current base salary, (ii) one year equivalent of his Economic Value Added Bonus based on the most recently completed Economic Value Added Bonus Plan year multiplied by his then current Economic Value Added Bonus target percentage, (iii) one year of medical, dental and vision coverage at his then-current enrollment, paid by the Company (or an equivalent value in money to the extent the Company cannot continue his coverage past the end of the calendar year in which his employment terminates pursuant to the terms of the coverage plans) and (iv) pension plan matching contributions to the same level that would have been made had he remained employed continuously through the twelfth month following the month of his termination. He would also be entitled to his Economic Value Added Bonus Bank balance as provided in the Economic Value Added Bonus Plan.

Mr. Josephson is an “at-will” employee of the Company and his employment and compensation can be terminated, with or without cause and with or without notice, at any time, at the option of the Company or Mr. Josephson, subject to the obligations of the Company to pay certain severance benefits.
