Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 18, 2006, the Compensation and Human Resources Committee (Committee) of the Board of Directors of Best Buy Co., Inc., approved performance-based short-term incentive awards and award targets for the registrant's executive officers, including the Vice Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, President and Chief Operating Officer, Chief Executive Officer Best Buy International, Executive Vice President Finance and Chief Financial Officer, Executive Vice President Human Resources and Legal, and Executive Vice President Global Merchandising (collectively, senior executive officers). The short-term incentive award targets for the registrant's Vice Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and its President and Chief Operating Officer are 200% and 150% of base salary, respectively. For all other executive officers, the short-term incentive award targets range from 65% to 125% of base salary. The short-term incentive awards were made pursuant to the registrant's Executive Officer Short-Term Incentive Program under its 2004 Omnibus Stock and Incentive Plan (2004 Omnibus Plan).

The short-term incentive awards will be earned upon the achievement of specified performance goals for the registrant's fiscal year ending March 3, 2007. Specifically, the short-term incentive awards are conditioned on the following performance factors: i) the registrant's actual Economic Value Added (EV \AA) performance for fiscal 2007 as compared with a goal approved by the Committee; ii) the registrant's actual performance as compared with goals approved by the Committee regarding the registrant's fiscal 2007 operating income rate, revenue growth, and selling, general and administrative expenses rate; and iii) for executive officers other than the senior executive officers, the achievement by each such executive officer of specific fiscal 2007 goals related to his operational or functional responsibilities. The actual incentive amount for each executive officer, payable in cash, will be an amount ranging from 0% to 200% of the executive officer's short-term incentive award target, based on actual performance compared with the specific goals established by the Committee.

Also on May 18, 2006, the Committee approved special performance-based long-term incentive awards for the senior executive officers which will be earned upon the achievement of specified company performance goals. The awards, listed in the table below, were made in the form of restricted stock pursuant to the registrant's 2004 Omnibus Plan. These awards will be earned if, at the end of the incentive period starting February 26, 2006, and ending on February 28, 2009, certain company performance goals approved by the Committee have been achieved and the executive officer has been continuously employed with the registrant through such date. The specified performance goals relate to the registrant's EV \AA performance, revenue growth, stock price growth and talent management, with the achievement of each of the four goals representing 25% of the total available long-term incentive award. If earned, the executive officer will be entitled to receive dividend payments for such shares from February 26, 2006.

(1) The value of restricted stock awards was calculated by multiplying the closing price of Best Buy Common Stock, as quoted on the New York Stock Exchange, on the date of grant (May 18, 2006) by the number of shares of restricted stock awarded. Values are reported at maximum payout levels assuming the achievement of each of four goals.
