8.01 Other Events

On January 14, 2008, Grupo Mexico S. A. B. de C. V., the indirect majority stockholder of Southern Copper Corporation (the Company), announced that the Mexican Conciliation and Arbitration Council had declared without effect the illegal strike commenced at Mexicana de Cananea, S. A. de C. V., a subsidiary of the Company. As a result hundreds of workers returned to work. The Cananea union obtained from a federal judge an injunction preventing the Company from firing any worker until the procedure before the courts is finalized. The rights of any worker that wishes to return to work at the mine are also protected by the court order.

The Company is preparing to resume operations at the mine as soon as practicable. It has retained the services of Dupont and Safety Solutions International, renowned experts in workplace safety and risk management. Dupont and Safety Solutions International will undertake a review of the current conditions at the mine installations to ensure that Mexicana de Cananea complies with the highest safety standards.
