(Attach extra Sheets if Needed)

On May 5, 2009 KEMET Corporation (KEMET or the Company) commenced a tender offer (the Tender Offer) for its 2.25% convertible senior notes due 2026 (the Notes) upon the terms and conditions described in the Schedule TO (as amended, the Schedule TO), Offer to Purchase (as amended, the Offer to Purchase) and related Letter of Transmittal, in each case filed by KEMET pursuant to Section 13(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended and as amended by Amendment No. 1 to the Schedule TO filed by KEMET with the Securities Exchange Commission (SEC) on May 19, 2009, Amendment No. 2 to the Schedule TO filed by KEMET with the SEC on June 3, 2009 and Amendment No. 3 to the Schedule TO filed by KEMET with the SEC on June 8, 2009.

As set forth in the Offer to Purchase, certain covenant provisions of the Company s credit agreements with UniCredit Corporate Banking S.p.A. (UniCredit) have been modified, subject to the successful completion of the Tender Offer. If the Tender Offer is successful, the Company believes that it will be in compliance with these modified covenants at June 30, 2009 and September 30, 2009. If the Tender Offer is not successful, these modifications will become ineffective and the original financial covenants will be reinstated. In such event, the Company believes there is a possibility that it will not be in compliance with the original covenants at June 30, 2009, and expects that it will not be in compliance with the original covenants at September 30, 2009. If the Company is not able to successfully renegotiate these covenants, the Company would not be able to pay the balances due and would therefore be in default on the UniCredit EUR 60 million credit facility with a maturity date of April 1, 2013 and the UniCredit EUR 35 million credit facility with a maturity date of July 1, 2011. Further, a failure by the Company to either repay the UniCredit facilities when due, or the absence of a modification of such repayment terms or covenants by UniCredit, within 30 days of default, would allow the holders of the Notes to declare the Notes due and payable immediately. The Company does not currently have the ability to repay the UniCredit facilities or the Notes. In such event, the failure to successfully renegotiate the UniCredit covenants would have a material adverse effect on the Company s business, results of operations, financial position, and liquidity and cast doubt on the Company s ability to continue as a going concern. Aside from the matter of covenant compliance, the Company currently forecasts that its operating plans will enable it to generate sufficient cash flow from operations to satisfy its cash flow requirements for operations and debt service throughout at least the remainder of fiscal year 2010. However, there are risks and uncertainties associated with the Company s forecasts and there can be no assurance that it will be successful in generating the required levels of liquidity.

Because of management s time devoted to the tender offer, as well as the uncertainty and range of potential outcomes relating to the Tender Offer and the disclosure requirements related thereto, KEMET is unable to complete the financial statements and other disclosures required to be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2009 within the prescribed filing deadline without unreasonable effort or expense.

- (2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).

x Yes o No

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

x Yes o No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company expects to report net sales for fiscal year 2009 of $804.4 million, which represents a 5.4% decrease from fiscal year 2008 net sales of $850.1 million. Cost of sales for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2009 are expected to have been $736.3 million as compared to $695.4 million for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2008, a 5.9% increase. The Company expects to include in its fiscal year 2009 operating loss goodwill impairment charges of $174.3 million, write down of long-lived assets of $67.6 million, restructuring charges of $30.9 million offset by curtailment gains on benefit plans of $30.8 million and a net gain of $25.5 million on the sale and disposal of assets. Fiscal year 2008 operating loss included restructuring charges of $25.3 million, write down of long-lived assets of $4.2 million, and no goodwill impairment charges. Due primarily to an approximate 10% reduction of gross margin in fiscal year 2009 as compared to fiscal year 2008 and approximately $241.9 million of impairment charges, the Company expects to report an operating loss for fiscal year 2009 of $271.1 million compared to an operating loss of $8.9 million in the prior fiscal year. Interest income is expected to decrease from $6.1 million in fiscal year 2008 to $0.6 million in fiscal year 2009. Interest expense is expected to have increased in fiscal year 2009 by $7.4 million, to $21.5 million, compared to $14.1 million in interest expense in fiscal year 2008. Other (income) expense, net for fiscal year 2009 is expected to be net income of $14.1 million as compared to net income of $4.4 million in fiscal year 2008. The increase in Other (income) expense, net is primarily attributable to foreign exchange transaction gains. As a result of the above, as well as additional factors to be included in the Company's Form 10-K, the Company expects to report a net loss for fiscal year 2009 of $276.9 million, or ($3.44) per share, compared to a net loss of $17.6 million, or ($0.21) per share in fiscal year 2008.
