PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

TravelCenters of America LLC (the Company) is unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013 (the 2013 Annual Report), within the time period prescribed due to unanticipated delays encountered in connection with the Company's accounting for income taxes as well as general delays encountered in connection with the completion of the Company's accounting processes and procedures. The Company has tentatively concluded, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, that it is more likely than not that it will realize a portion of its deferred tax assets in future periods and, accordingly, has tentatively concluded that a portion of the previously recognized valuation allowance with respect to these deferred tax assets should be reversed in the fourth quarter of 2013. In connection with its assessment of the realizability of its deferred tax assets, the Company is reviewing whether certain of its deferred tax assets historically classified as unrestricted federal net operating loss carry forwards, and for which the Company historically provided a full valuation allowance, are subject to limitation as a result of restrictions imposed under Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code. The Company is also continuing to complete its standard quarterly and year end accounting processes and procedures with respect to certain asset and liability accounts, as well as other general financial statement analysis, in compliance with its internal control procedures. The time, effort and staffing to complete the required calculations, accounting and reviews have been greater than expected or available. Also, the growth in the Company's business has contributed to the delay in completing the Company's financial statements.

The Company currently expects to file its 2013 annual Report within the 15 calendar day extension provided by Rule 12b-25.

PART IV OTHER INFORMATION

(Telephone Number)

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Because the completion of the Company's 2013 results remains in progress, the Company is unable to state with specificity the amount of net income or loss it expects to report for the fourth quarter of 2013. For the fourth quarter of 2012 and the full year 2012, the Company reported a net loss of $2.5 million and net income of $32.2 million, respectively. For the nine month periods ended September 30, 2013 and 2012, the Company reported net income of $19.6 million and $34.6 million, respectively, a decline of $15 million. The Company expects that, excluding the benefit that would be recognized as a result of the reversal of a portion of its deferred tax asset valuation allowance described in Part III above that is still to be determined, the net loss for the fourth quarter of 2013 would exceed the net loss for the 2012 fourth quarter, principally as a result of the recognition in the 2013 fourth quarter of a previously announced $10 million charge in connection with a recent litigation settlement. The amount of tax benefit that may be recognized as a result of reversing a portion of the deferred tax asset valuation allowance could result in the Company reporting net income for the fourth quarter of 2013.
