1. ORGANIZATION

The Company was incorporated under the laws of the State of Nevada on December 19, 2006 with the name Kerrisdale Mining Corporation with authorized common stock of 75,000,000 shares at $0.001 par value. On July 10, 2008, all of the members of the Registrant's board of directors and stockholders owning a majority of the Registrant's voting stock jointly adopted and approved an amendment to the Registrant's Articles of Incorporation to change the Corporation's authorized capital stock (the Authorized Shares Amendment) from 75,000,000 shares of authorized capital stock, all of which were common stock, par value $0.001 per share, to 510,000,000 shares of authorized capital stock, consisting of 500,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.001 per share, and 10,000,000 shares of blank check preferred stock, par value $0.001 per share, with the right conferred upon the Board of Directors to set the designations, preferences, limitations, privileges, qualifications, as well as dividend, conversion, voting, and other special or relative rights, with respect to the preferred stock as the Board of Directors shall determine from time to time. The Authorized Shares Amendment became effective on July 14, 2008, the date of filing of the Certificate of Amendment with the State of Nevada's Secretary of State.

The Company was organized for the purpose of acquiring and developing mineral properties. At the report date mineral claims, with unknown reserves, had been acquired. The Company has not established the existence of a commercially minable ore deposit and therefore is considered to be in the pre-exploration stage.

SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Accounting Methods

The Company recognizes income and expenses based on the accrual method of accounting.

Dividend Policy

The Company has not adopted a policy regarding payment of dividends to its shareholders.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid instruments purchased with a maturity, at the time of purchase, of less than three months, to be cash equivalents.

Basic and Diluted Net Income (Loss) Per Share

Basic net incomes (loss) per share amounts are computed based on the weighted average number of shares actually outstanding. Diluted net income (loss) per share amounts are computed using the weighted average number of common shares and common equivalent shares outstanding as if shares had been issued on the exercise of any common share rights unless the exercise becomes anti-dilutive and then only the basic per share amounts are shown in the report.

Environmental Requirements

KERRISDALE MINING CORPORATION

(Pre-Exploration Stage Company)

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

April 30, 2009

At the report date environmental requirements related to the mineral claim interests acquired are unknown and therefore an estimate of any future cost cannot be made.

Foreign Currency Translation

Part of the transactions of the Company were completed in Canadian dollars and have been translated to US dollars as incurred, at the exchange rate in effect at the time, and therefore, no gain or loss from the translations is recognized. US dollars are considered to be the functional currency.

(Pre-Exploration Stage Company)

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

April 30, 2009

Financial Instruments

The carrying amounts of financial instruments are considered by management to be their estimated fair values due to their short term maturities.

Income Taxes

The Company utilizes the liability method of accounting for income taxes. Under the liability method deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on the differences between financial reporting and the tax basis of the assets and liabilities and are measured using the enacted tax rates and laws that will be in effect, when the differences are expected to reverse. An allowance against deferred tax assets is recorded when it is more likely than not that such tax benefits will not be realized.

At April 30, 2009 the Company had net operating losses available for carry forward of $41,710. The tax benefit of approximately $12,513 from the loss carry forward has been fully offset by a valuation reserve because the use of the future tax benefit is doubtful as the Company is unable to establish a predictable projection of operating profits for future years.

The net operating loss carryover will expire in 2029.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

The Company does not expect that the adoption of other recent accounting pronouncements will have a material impact on its financial statements.

Financial and Concentration Risks

The Company does not have any concentration or related financial credit risk.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue will be recognized on the sale and delivery of a product or the completion of a service provided.

Estimates and Assumptions

Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of the assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported revenues and expenses. Actual results could vary from the estimates that were assumed in preparing these financial statements.

Overview

Kerrisdale Mining Corporation was incorporated December 19, 2006 under the laws of the State of Nevada. We are a start-up, exploration stage corporation and have not yet generated or realized any revenues from our business activities. We do not own any interest in any property, but merely have the right to conduct exploration activities on the Kerrisdale Property. The Kerrisdale Property is a mineral claim consisting of approximately 369.5 hectares (approximately 910 acres) located in the south-center region of British Columbia, Canada. We have completed limited initial exploration work on the Kerrisdale Property and subject to our ability to raise sufficient capital, we intend to initiate further exploration activities in 2009.

If we are unable to complete the intended further exploration activities because we don't have enough money, we will cease activities until we raise more money. If we cannot raise more money to complete the planned exploration program, it is anticipated that we will cease activities. Even if we complete our further exploration program and it is successful in identifying a mineral deposit, there is no assurance that we will continue operations because we would be required to raise substantial additional funds for purposes of further drilling and engineering studies before we would know if we have a commercially viable mineral deposit.

Plan of Operations

In June, 2007, the initial geological work on the Kerrisdale Property was completed and a preliminary geological report was produced. We may start to do some initial exploration work on the Kerrisdale Property in 2009; we anticipate that the initial phase of exploration of the property will cost approximately $15,000. We do not currently have plans to commence the phase one program because we do not have the funds available to do so. As of April 30, 2009, we have approximately $181 of cash on hand. These funds are not expected to be sufficient even to cover basic operating expenses and costs associated with preparation and filing of required periodic reports for the next year. Therefore, we will need to obtain additional capital to pay basic operating expenses and also to pay the estimated costs of the first phase of exploration before proceeding with completion of the proposed phase one exploration program.

We currently do not have a specific plan of how we will obtain such funding; however, we anticipate that additional funding will be in the form of equity financing from the sale of our common stock. We may also seek to obtain short-term loans from our directors, although no such arrangement has been made. At this time, we cannot provide investors with any assurance that we will be able to raise sufficient funding from the sale of our common stock or through a loan from our directors to meet our obligations over the next twelve months. We do not have any arrangements in place for any future equity financing.

Another factor which may affect our ability to proceed with the proposed phase one exploration program is a current shortage of qualified geologists as a result of recent increases in mining activity in Canada. Even if we are able to obtain the funds necessary to proceed with the phase one exploration program, it may be necessary to delay the program because of difficulties in finding a qualified geologist with the time available to work on our project.

As indicated above, the Company is currently considering sources and availability of the funds needed to allow it to proceed with the planned exploration of its mining claim. However, because of uncertainties related to our ability to obtain necessary financing and proceed with the planned exploration and potential future development of our mining claim, we are also currently seeking other business opportunities.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of April 30, 2009, the Company's balance sheet reflects total current assets of $181 in the form of cash and total current liabilities of $9,468. The Company has cash on hand of $181 and a deficit accumulated in the development stage of $43,378. The Company does not have sufficient assets or capital resources to pay its on-going expenses while it is pursuing its business plan, and it has no current plans to raise additional capital through the sale of securities. As a result, although the Company has no agreement in place with its shareholders or other persons to pay expenses on its behalf, it is anticipated that the Company will continue to rely on its majority shareholders to pay expenses on its behalf at least until it is able to consummate a business transaction. The majority shareholders are under no obligation to pay such expenses.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

The Company does not have any off-balance sheet arrangements.

ITEM 4T.

CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES.

Disclosure Controls and Procedures

The Securities and Exchange Commission defines the term "disclosure controls and procedures" to mean a company's controls and other procedures of an issuer that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in the reports that it files or submits under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and forms. Disclosure controls and procedures include, without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by an issuer in the reports that it files or submits under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is accumulated and communicated to the issuer's management, including its principal executive and principal financial officers, or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. The Company maintains such a system of controls and procedures in an effort to ensure that all information which it is required to disclose in the reports it files under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified under the SEC's rules and forms and that information required to be disclosed is accumulated and communicated to principal executive and principal financial officers to allow timely decisions regarding disclosure.

As of the end of the period covered by this report, we carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of our chief executive officer and chief financial officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures. Based on this evaluation, our chief executive officer and chief financial officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures are designed to provide reasonable assurance of achieving the objectives of timely alerting them to material information required to be included in our periodic SEC reports and of ensuring that such information is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified. Our chief executive officer and chief financial officer also concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of the end of the period covered by this report to provide reasonable assurance of the achievement of these objectives.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

There was no change in the Company's internal control over financial reporting during the period ended April 30, 2009, that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.
