CAVEAT PERTAINING TO FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS: The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 provides a "safe harbor" for forward-looking statements. Certain of the statements contained herein, which are not historical facts, are forward-looking statements with respect to events, the occurrence of which involve risks and uncertainties. These forward-looking statements may be impacted, either positively or negatively, by various factors. Information concerning potential factors that could affect the Registrant is detailed from time to time in the Registrant's reports filed with the Commission. This report contains "forward looking statements" relating to the Registrant's current expectations and beliefs. These include statements concerning operations, performance, financial condition and anticipated growth. For this purpose, any statements contained in this Form 8-K that are not statements of historical fact are forward-looking statements. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, words such as "may", "will", "expect", "believe", "anticipate", "intend", "could", "estimate", or "continue", or the negative or other variation thereof comparable terminology are intended to identify forward- looking statements. These statements by their nature involve substantial risks and uncertainties which are beyond the Registrant's control. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize or should the Registrant's underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual outcomes and results could differ materially from those indicated in the forward looking statements.

Section 4 – Matters Related to Accountants and Financial Statements

Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant’s Certifying Accountant

(a) Dismissal of Previously engaged public accounting firm

On October 24, 2011 James Stafford, Inc. (“Stafford”) submitted his resignation as the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm effective immediately.

During the Company’s two most recent fiscal years ended September 30, 2010, and September 30, 2009, and any subsequent interim period prior to the resignation of James Stafford, Inc. there were no disagreements with the former accountant on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreement(s), if not resolved to the satisfaction of the former accountant, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement(s) in connection with its report.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned hereunto duly authorized. Dated this 15th day of November 2011.
