PART III
NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Company is unable, without unreasonable effort and expense, to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended April 29, 2006, on a timely basis. The Form 10-Q, which was due to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on June 8, 2006, will be filed by June 13, 2006.

As discussed in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 28, 2006, subsequent to the issuance of its fiscal 2004 financial statements and during the completion of its fiscal 2005 year-end control procedures relating to the accounting for and disclosure of cash and cash equivalents, management discovered an error related to the prior presentation of investments in auction rate securities on the balance sheet and in the statement of cash flows. Auction rate securities are highly liquid investments that are reset through a "dutch auction" process that occurs every 7 to 49 days, depending on the terms of the individual security. The correction of the error represented a decrease in cash and cash equivalents and an increase in short term investments on the balance sheet and an adjustment to cash flow from investing activities in the statement of cash flows. The correction had no impact on the statements of income or statements of stockholders' equity. In conjunction with filing the Form 10-K, the Company restated its balance sheet as of January 29, 2005 and statements of cash flows for the fiscal years ended January 29, 2005 and January 31, 2004. The company plans to restate its statements of cash flows for each of the quarterly periods in the fiscal year ended January 28, 2005 prospectively as it files its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q during fiscal 2006.

In conjunction with the preparation of its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, for the fiscal quarter ended April 29, 2006, management discovered that additional adjustments might be necessary to the classification on the balance sheet and in the statement of cash flows to reflect additional errors in the classification of certain investments as auction rate securities. The Company is in the process of assessing the impact of these errors and fully expects that the Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended April 29, 2006 will be filed by June 13, 2006 without unreasonable effort and expense to the Company.
