WHAT CONSTITUTES A QUORUM FOR THE ANNUAL MEETING?

One-third of the outstanding shares of the Company common stock entitled to vote at the annual meeting, present or represented by proxy, constitutes a quorum. A quorum is necessary to conduct business at the annual meeting. You will be considered part of the quorum if you have voted by proxy. Abstentions, broker non-votes and votes withheld from director nominees count as shares present at the annual meeting for purposes of determining a quorum. However, abstentions and broker non-votes do not count in the voting results. A broker non-vote occurs when a broker or other nominee who holds shares for another does not vote on a particular item because the broker or nominee does not have discretionary authority for that item and has not received instructions from the owner of the shares.

HOW MANY VOTES ARE REQUIRED?

Directors nominees are elected by a plurality of the votes cast in person or by proxy, provided that a quorum is present at the Meeting.

The ratification of the director's selection of Robison Hill & Co. as the Company's independent auditors and authorization of the Board of Directors to terminate the Company's status as a reporting company will require an affirmative vote of the majority of the votes cast in person or by proxy, provided that a quorum is present at the annual meeting.

The Company will pay the cost of preparing, printing and mailing material in connection with this solicitation of proxies. 7

PROPOSAL 3: AUTHORIZATION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS FOR A PERIOD OF ONE YEAR TO TERMINATE THE COMPANY'S STATUS AS A REPORTING COMPANY (ITEM 4 ON THE PROXY CARD)

Stockholders are being asked to authorize the Board of Directors to terminate the Company's status as a reporting company and allow the Company to terminate its duty to file reports (SEC Reporting Obligations) with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission) under Sections 13(a) and 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and continue future operations as a non-reporting company, and thus relieving the Company of the costs and administrative burdens associated with operating as a public company subject to the SEC Reporting Obligations.

Following approval of this proposal by the stockholders, the Board of Directors will have the option for a period of one year to implement the deregistration. The Board of Directors may elect to abandon the deregistration at any time.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE AUTHORIZATION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS FOR A PERIOD OF ONE YEAR TO TERMINATE THE COMPANY'S STATUS AS A REPORTING COMPANY.

SPECIAL FACTORS

Purpose

The purpose of terminating the Company's SEC Reporting Obligations and continue future operations as a non-reporting company, is to relieve the Company of the costs and administrative burdens associated with operating as a company subject to the SEC Reporting Obligations.

Background; Alternatives Considered by the Board

Initial Actions

The question of whether the Company should be taken private was first briefly discussed at a meeting of the Board of Directors on September 17, 2007. The subject was initially raised by our Chairman, in the context of leading a discussion of strategic alternatives. The alternative of going private arose in the context of the Board's consideration of strategic alternatives for the Company and its capital structure. The Board concluded at its meeting on September 17, 2007 that the Company should continue to consider strategic alternatives carefully, bearing in mind the possible risk associated with the implementation by the Company of possible strategic alternatives.

The additional consideration of going private, with the shift in the Company's focus from Eastern Europe to real estate, the Board of Directors paid increasing attention to administrative costs. In the course of these efforts, the question of whether the Company should remain subject to the SEC Reporting Obligations was discussed by the Board of Directors of the Company. The costs that would be associated with Sarbanes-Oxley Section 404 compliance effort and the possibility of filing with the Commission a Form 15 to relieve the Company from its SEC Reporting Obligations were the initial discussions. After reviewing the benefits of reducing costs from ceasing SEC Reporting Obligations the Board of Directors thought it best to have the shareholders initially authorize the Board prior to taking any action.

Reasons for Deregistration

Cost-Savings

The Company incurs direct and indirect costs associated with its status as a public-reporting company. Among the most significant are the costs associated with compliance with the SEC Reporting Obligations. Direct costs associated with compliance with the SEC Reporting Obligations include, but are not limited to:

auditing fees;
legal fees;
financial printer fees; and

miscellaneous clerical and other administrative expenses, such as word processing, conversion to EDGAR, telephone and fax charges associated with the filing of periodic reports with the Commission.

Based on the Company's experience in prior years, the Company's direct costs of complying with the SEC Reporting Obligations are estimated to be approximately $1,145,500 annually, based on estimated annual audit and accounting fees of $120,000, estimated annual legal fees of $314,000, estimated financial printer fees of $70,000, estimated transfer agent fees of $35,500, estimated costs associated with filing reports with the Commission (including internal administrative staff and Board cost) of $315,000 and estimated miscellaneous costs of $291,000.

Indirect costs associated with compliance with the SEC Reporting Obligations include, among other things, the time the Company's executive officers expend to prepare and review the Company's periodic reports, which the Company estimates requires 20% of the total time the executive officers expend in the management of the Company. Because the Company has only 2 executive personnel and only a total of 5 full-time employees, these indirect costs are substantial. For the calendar year ending December 31, 2007, the Company will be subject to additional regulations and compliance procedures required of public companies under Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. The Company estimates that the direct and indirect costs in the categories identified above necessary to comply with Section 404 would range between $750,000 and $1.0 million in the initial year of compliance and would range between $250,000 and $500,000 in each subsequent year. These costs would include the hiring of additional personnel dedicated to regulatory compliance, consultants to assist in the implementation of new procedures and additional audit fees. Because the Company would anticipate hiring additional dedicated compliance personnel as well as a significant increase in audit fees, the Company estimates that ongoing costs of compliance could amount to as much as $500,000, annually. These costs are substantial when compared to the Company's total general and administrative expenses for 2006 of $4,374,609 (which include a one time expense of $750,000).

The Company anticipates that it will continue to incur some costs associated with soliciting proxies for purposes of its annual meeting as required under Delaware law, as well as meeting other state corporate law requirements. However, these costs should be significantly less than the direct and indirect costs of complying with the SEC Reporting Obligations as described above.

The Board of Directors considered the cost to the Company of continuing to file periodic reports with the Commission and complying with the proxy and annual report requirements under the Exchange Act compared to the benefits to the Company and its stockholders of continuing to operate as a public company. Under the circumstances, for the reasons discussed below under Lack of Capital from Public Sector, the Board determined that the benefits that the Company and its stockholders would typically expect to derive from the Company's status as a public company are not being realized and are not likely to be realized in the foreseeable future. As discussed below under Lack of Capital from Public Sector, the benefits of being a public company not likely to inure to the benefit of the Company include raising capital in the public markets and using Common Stock for acquisition purposes. As a result, the Board of Directors concluded that the elimination of the costs of complying with the Company's SEC Reporting Obligations outweighed the benefits of continuing to incur such costs.

Lack of Capital from Public Sector

The Company's circumstances are such that management believes that it is not likely to be able to take advantage of the capital available through the public markets. The Company's Board of Directors does not have any present intention to raise capital through sales of the Company's securities in a public offering or to acquire other business entities using the Company's Common Stock as the consideration for such acquisition. Accordingly, the Company has not and is not likely to make use of, or benefit from, the advantages generally associated with operating as a public company.

For each of the reasons set forth above, the Company's Board of Directors does not believe the costs associated with maintaining the Company's SEC Reporting Obligations are justified. The Company's Board of Directors believes that it is in the Company's best interests and the best interests of the Company's stockholders as a whole to eliminate the administrative burden and costs associated with maintaining the Company's SEC Reporting Obligations.

Factors Disfavoring the Deregistration

Limitation of Public Sale Opportunities. If the Board of Directors elects to apply for the termination of its SEC Reporting Obligations, it is expected that Nasdaq will move to delist the Company's shares of common stock. The Company may then pursue to list on an alternative market such as the Pinksheets or remain unlisted. It is possible that the public market for shares of the Company's Common Stock could be substantially less active, particularly due to the lack of publicly-available information that will be available and the lack of a trading market.

Cessation of Publicly Available Information. Upon terminating the Company's SEC Reporting Obligations, the Company will no longer file, among other things, annual or quarterly reports with the Commission. Information regarding the Company's business, results of operations and financial condition that is currently available to the general public and the Company's investors will not be available once the Company terminates the registration of the Company's securities and the Company's SEC Reporting Obligations. As a result of termination of the Company's SEC Reporting Obligations, the stockholders will not receive the benefit of the protections provided to stockholders of a company subject to SEC Reporting Obligations, including, but not limited to, certain corporate governance, reporting, and management certifications required under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and disclosure and liability applicable to reports and statements made pursuant to the requirements of the Exchange Act. The Company intends to continue to report to its stockholders in accordance with Delaware law. The Company will continue to hold annual meetings of stockholders as required under Delaware law and in conjunction with such meetings plans to distribute proxy materials and an annual report that are similar to, but likely not as extensive as, those that would be required if the Company remained subject to the SEC Reporting Obligations. As a matter of Delaware law, the Company will not be required to mail or otherwise distribute quarterly or annual reports to stockholders.

Limitation on Capital Raising. There are certain sources of capital that will only invest in companies that file reports with the Securities Exchange Commission in accordance with the Exchange Act. As the Company may de-register and, in turn, cease filing under the Exchange Act, certain capital raising sources will no longer be available.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT STOCKHOLDERS VOTE FOR AUTHORIZING THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS FOR A PERIOD OF ONE YEAR TO TERMINATE THE COMPANY'S STATUS AS A REPORTING COMPANY.

Administration

The 2004 Incentive Plan is administered by the Company's Board, as the Board may be composed from time to time. All questions of interpretation of the 2004 Incentive Plan are determined by the Board, and its decisions are final and binding upon all participants. Any determination by a majority of the members of the Board at any meeting, or by written consent in lieu of a meeting, shall be deemed to have been made by the whole Board.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board may at any time, or from time to time, appoint a committee (the Committee) of at least two members of the Board, and delegate to the Committee the authority of the Board to administer the Plan. (a) PURCHASE PRICE. The purchase price of the common shares subject to each ISO shall not be less than the fair market value (as set forth in the 2004 Incentive Plan), or in the case of the grant of an ISO to a principal stockholder, not less than 110% of fair market value of such common shares at the time such option is granted. The purchase price of the common shares subject to each Non-ISO shall be determined at the time such option is granted, but in no case less than 85% of the fair market value of such common shares at the time such option is granted.

(b) VESTING. The dates on which each option (or portion thereof) shall be exercisable and the conditions precedent to such exercise, if any, shall be fixed by the Board, in its discretion, at the time such option is granted.

(c) EXPIRATION. The expiration of each option shall be fixed by the Board, in its discretion, at the time such option is granted; however, unless otherwise determined by the Board at the time such option is granted, an option shall be exercisable for ten (10) years after the date on which it was granted (the Grant Date). Each option shall be subject to earlier termination as expressly provided in the 2004 Incentive Plan or as determined by the Board, in its discretion, at the time such option is granted.

(d) TRANSFERABILITY. No option shall be transferable, except by will or the laws of descent and distribution, and any option may be exercised during the lifetime of the optionee only by him. No option granted under the Plan shall be subject to execution, attachment or other process.

(e) OPTION ADJUSTMENTS. The aggregate number and class of shares as to which options may be granted under the Plan, the number and class shares covered by each outstanding option and the exercise price per share thereof (but not the total price), and all such options, shall each be proportionately adjusted for any increase decrease in the number of issued common shares resulting from split-up spin-off or consolidation of shares or any like capital adjustment or the payment of any stock dividend.

Except as otherwise provided in the 2004 Incentive Plan, any option granted hereunder shall terminate in the event of a merger, consolidation, acquisition of property or stock, separation, reorganization or liquidation of the Company. However, the optionee shall have the right immediately prior to any such transaction to exercise his option in whole or in part notwithstanding any otherwise applicable vesting requirements.

(f) TERMINATION, MODIFICATION AND AMENDMENT. The 2004 Incentive Plan (but not options previously granted under the Plan) shall terminate ten (10) years from the earlier of the date of its adoption by the Board or the date on which the Plan is approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company entitled to vote thereon, and no option shall be granted after termination of the Plan. Subject to certain restrictions, the Plan may at any time be terminated and from time to time be modified or amended by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the capital stock of the Company present, or represented, and entitled to vote at a meeting duly held in accordance with the applicable laws of the State of Delaware.

FEDERAL INCOME TAX ASPECTS OF THE 2004 INCENTIVE PLAN

THE FOLLOWING IS A BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE EFFECT OF FEDERAL INCOME TAXATION UPON THE PARTICIPANTS AND THE COMPANY WITH RESPECT TO THE PURCHASE OF SHARES UNDER THE 2004 INCENTIVE PLAN. THIS SUMMARY DOES NOT PURPORT TO BE COMPLETE AND DOES NOT ADDRESS THE FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES TO TAXPAYERS WITH SPECIAL TAX STATUS. IN ADDITION, THIS SUMMARY DOES NOT DISCUSS THE PROVISIONS OF THE INCOME TAX LAWS OF ANY MUNICIPALITY, STATE OR FOREIGN COUNTRY IN WHICH THE PARTICIPANT MAY RESIDE, AND DOES NOT DISCUSS ESTATE, GIFT OR OTHER TAX CONSEQUENCES OTHER THAN INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES. THE COMPANY ADVISES EACH PARTICIPANT TO CONSULT HIS OR HER OWN TAX ADVISOR REGARDING THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF PARTICIPATION IN THE 2004 Incentive Plan AND FOR REFERENCE TO APPLICABLE PROVISIONS OF THE CODE.

The 2004 Incentive Plan and the right of participants to make purchases thereunder are intended to qualify under the provisions of Sections 421, 422 and 423 of the Code. Under these provisions, no income will be recognized by a participant prior to disposition of shares acquired under the 2004 Incentive Plan.

If the shares are sold or otherwise disposed of (including by way of gift) more than two years after the first day of the offering period during which shares were purchased (the Offering Date), a participant will recognize as ordinary income at the time of such disposition the lesser of (a) the excess of the fair market value of the shares at the time of such disposition over the purchase price of the shares or (b) 15% of the fair market value of the shares on the first day of the offering period. Any further gain or loss upon such disposition will be treated as long-term capital gain or loss. If the shares are sold for a sale price less than the purchase price, there is no ordinary income and the participant has a capital loss for the difference.

If the shares are sold or otherwise disposed of (including by way of gift) before the expiration of the two-year holding period described above, the excess of the fair market value of the shares on the purchase date over the purchase price will be treated as ordinary income to the participant. This excess will constitute ordinary income in the year of sale or other disposition even if no gain is realized on the sale or a gift of the shares is made. The balance of any gain or loss will be treated as capital gain or loss and will be treated as long-term capital gain or loss if the shares have been held more than one year.

In the case of a participant who is subject to Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act, the purchase date for purposes of calculating such participant's compensation income and beginning of the capital gain holding period may be deferred for up to six months under certain circumstances. Such individuals should consult with their personal tax advisors prior to buying or selling shares under the 2004 Incentive Plan.

The ordinary income reported under the rules described above, added to the actual purchase price of the shares, determines the tax basis of the shares for the purpose of determining capital gain or loss on a sale or exchange of the shares.

The Company is entitled to a deduction for amounts taxed as ordinary income to a participant only to the extent that ordinary income must be reported upon disposition of shares by the participant before the expiration of the two-year holding period described above.

Restrictions on Resale

Certain officers and directors of our company may be deemed to be affiliates of our company as that term is defined under the Securities Act. The Common Stock acquired under the 2004 Incentive Plan by an affiliate may be reoffered or resold only pursuant to an effective registration statement or pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act or another exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

OTHER BUSINESS

The Board of Directors is not aware of any matter other than the matters described above to be presented for action at the Meeting. However, if any other proper items of business should come before the Meeting, it is the intention of the individuals named on your proxy card as the proxy holders to vote in accordance with their best judgment on such matters.

reviews of the financial statements included in the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-QSB during the fiscal years were $160,000 and $192,000, respectively.

Audit Related Fees: In 2006 for replacement of auditors due to Deloitte resignation. In 2005, fees for the audit of (2) the 2004 US GAAP financials statements of Navigator (for 8-K filing purposes) were $127,000. In 2006, no such fees were paid.

(3) Tax Fees: There were no tax services provided in fiscal year 2006 and 2005.

All Other Fees: The aggregate fees billed by auditors for services rendered to the Company, other than the services (4) covered in Audit Fees and Audit related fees and for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 were $21,500 and $67,200. The 2006 and 2005 fees relate to the SB-2 registration statement costs.

(5) During April 2007, the Company was invoiced by the former auditors for $124,661 as a result of over run fees, which exceed the written agreement.

The Company's Audit Committee's policy is to pre-approve all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by the independent auditors. These services may include audit services, audit-related services, tax services and other services. All services rendered have been approved by the Audit Committee.

Upon resignation of former auditors, the Company was presented with overrun fees by its former auditors, as well as open balances aggregate to $175,281 for audit works NOT performed in the US. The Company investigates such charges, and demand breakdown of fees from its former auditors which was provided and open balances with Deloitte were brought current.

The Board of Directors has considered whether the provision of non-audit services is compatible with maintaining the principal accountant's independence.

Auditor Independence

The Audit Committee has considered whether, and has determined that, the provision of services described under All Other Fees was compatible with maintaining the independence of Robison as the Company's principal accountants.
