This Report includes forward-looking statements related to theglobe.com, inc. ("theglobe" or the "Company") that involve risks and uncertainties, including statements relating to our ability to raise additional capital by authorizing the sale of the search.travel domain name and certain other intellectual property relating to the domain name which is owned by Tralliance Corporation, a subsidiary of theglobe.com, to Search.Travel, LLC, a Florida limited liability company. These forward-looking statements are made in reliance on the "safe harbor" provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. For further information about these and other factors that could affect theglobe.com's future results and business plans, including theglobe's ability to continue operations as a going concern, please see the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including in particular our Annual Report of Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006 and our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2007. Copies of these filings are available online at <http://www.sec.gov>. Prospective investors are cautioned that forward-looking statements are not guarantees of performance. Actual results may differ materially and adversely from management expectations.

ENTRY INTO MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT; DISPOSITION OF ASSETS OF THE COMPANY

On December 13, 2007, the Company and its subsidiary, Tralliance Corporation ("Tralliance") entered into an Assignment, Conveyance and Bill of Sale Agreement with Search.Travel, LLC ("Search.Travel"). Pursuant to the Agreement, Tralliance sold all of its rights relating to the "www.search.travel" domain name and website and related assets to Search.Travel for a purchase price of $380,000 payable in cash. Search.Travel is controlled by the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Michael Egan. The purchase price was determined by the Board of Directors taking into account the valuation given to the assets by an independent investment banking firm.

This sale of the domain name, website and related assets is expected to provide the Company with short-term working capital to remain in business until approximately the end of February, 2008. The Company continues to have an immediate and critical need for additional capital to continue its operations beyond such time-period.
