Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 3, 2011, Neoprobe Corporation (the “Company”) entered into an agreement with Eric K. Rowinsky, M.D., a member of the Company's board of directors, pursuant to which Dr. Rowinsky will provide the Company with consulting services during the period from August 3, 2011, through July 31, 2012 (the “Consulting Agreement”). The Company believes that Dr. Rowinsky’s assistance, especially in evaluating new product opportunities, will be instrumental in the expansion of the Company’s product pipeline over the coming months. Either of the Company or Dr. Rowinsky may terminate the Consulting Agreement with thirty (30) business days’ prior written notice to the other. Early termination of the Consulting Agreement by the Company will not relieve the Company of any liability for payment of fees that accrued prior to the date of termination. Dr. Rowinsky will perform the following duties pursuant to the terms of the Consulting Agreement: (1) providing assistance with medical and clinical development initiatives, and providing strategic support to business development objectives focusing on new product assessments for in-licensing, merger and acquisition prospects, and territory deals pertaining to existing products; (2) providing clinical development support with a particular focus on the development of the Company's Lymphoseek and RIGS products and new products; (3) providing assistance with the formation of the Company's Scientific/Medical Advisory Board and ad hoc medical advisory groups; and (4) providing assistance with investor relations, road shows, presentations and financing activities.

The Consulting Agreement provides for Dr. Rowinsky to receive $15,000 per month for providing the consulting services. Pursuant to the terms of the Consulting Agreement, Dr. Rowinsky will also receive: (1) 60,000 restricted shares of the Company's common stock, 30,000 of which will vest on the Company's completion of a transaction for a new pipeline technology, and the remaining 30,000 of which will vest upon the start of a new clinical trial or the filing of a new regulatory document (i.e., an investigational new drug application or clinical protocol) by the Company; and (2) 60,000 options to purchase common stock of the Company which will vest at the rate of one fourth on each of October 31, 2011, January 31, 2012, April 30, 2012 and July 31, 2012.

The foregoing description of the Consulting Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Consulting Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and which is incorporated herein by reference.
