Item 2.01. Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets

On October 2, 2012, Cazador Acquisition Corporation Ltd., a Cayman Islands exempted company (“Cazador”), completed its merger (the “Merger”) with Net Element, Inc. (“Net Element”), and the various transactions contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of June 12, 2012 (the “Merger Agreement”), between Cazador and Net Element were consummated. Immediately prior to the effectiveness of the Merger, Cazador changed its jurisdiction of incorporation by discontinuing as an exempted company in the Cayman Islands and continuing and domesticating as a corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware. Effective upon consummation of the Merger (the “Closing”), (i) Net Element was merged with and into Cazador, resulting in Net Element’s ceasing to exist and Cazador’s continuing as the surviving company, and (ii) Cazador changed its name to “Net Element International, Inc.” (the “Company”). The Merger, the Merger Agreement and the transactions effected in connection therewith are more fully disclosed under the headings “Summary – The Proposed Business Combination,” “The Business Combination” and “The Merger Agreement” in the Definitive Joint Proxy Statement and Prospectus, dated September 4, 2012 (the “Final Prospectus”), filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), which disclosures are incorporated herein by reference. Capitalized terms used herein but not defined have the meanings ascribed to them in the Final Prospectus.

Upon consummation of the Merger, the common stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of the Company (the “Company’s Common Stock”) was listed on The NASDAQ Capital Market under the symbol “NETE.” Additionally, upon consummation of the Merger, the warrants of Cazador are now quoted on the OTCBB under the symbol “NETEW.” Further, in connection with Cazador’s changing its jurisdiction of incorporation from the Cayman Islands to Delaware, the outstanding units of Cazador automatically separated into the underlying ordinary shares and warrants of Cazador. As a result, the Cazador units are no longer listed on The NASDAQ Capital Market.

The description of the terms of the Merger Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Form 8-K which is incorporated herein by reference.

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, upon completion of the Merger, each share of then-issued and outstanding common stock of Net Element were automatically cancelled and converted into the right to receive one-fortieth (1/40) of a share of the Company’s Common Stock.

On October 2, 2012, the Company issued a press release announcing that it had completed the Merger and that the Company’s Common Stock began trading under new ticker symbol “NETE.” A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.

Prior to the Merger, the Company was a blank check company with no operations, formed as a vehicle for an acquisition of an operating business. The following information, which is required by Item 2.01(f) of Form 8-K, reflects the post-merger Company on a consolidated basis.

Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management

The following table sets forth certain information regarding the beneficial ownership of the Company’s Common Stock as of the Closing by (i) each director and each executive officer of the Company; (ii) all directors and executive officers of the Company as a group; and (iii) each person (including any “group” as that term is used in Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act) who is known by the Company to beneficially own more than five percent of the Company’s Common Stock. Shares of the Company’s Common Stock subject to options or warrants exercisable within 60 days from October 2, 2012 are deemed to be outstanding and beneficially owned for purposes of computing the percentage ownership of the holder of such options or warrants but are not treated as outstanding for purposes of computing the percentage ownership of other persons. Executive Compensation

The information in the sections of the Final Prospectus entitled “Post-Merger NEI Executive Officers and Directors —Compensation of the NEI Board and Executive Officers,” “Information about Cazador – Executive Compensation,” “Information about Net Element – Executive Compensation,” “Information about Net Element – Director Compensation” and “Post-Merger NEI Executive Officers and Directors – Committees of NEI Board – Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation,” are incorporated herein by reference.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions, and Director Independence

The information in the section of the Final Prospectus entitled “Post-Merger NEI Executive Officers and Directors - Director Independence” is incorporated herein by reference.

Certain of Net Element’s and Cazador’s executive officers and directors had financial interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Cazador’s shareholders and Net Element’s shareholders, other than the insider shareholders. In the case of Net Element, immediately prior to the effectiveness of the Merger, the principal amounts of all outstanding convertible debt of Net Element owned by Enerfund, LLC, a Florida limited liability company (“Enerfund, LLC”) (which is owned and controlled by Mike Zoi and totals $3.6 million) was converted into 32,727,274 shares of Net Element common stock, and subsequently converted into 818,182 shares of the Company’s Common Stock in the Merger and, immediately following the Closing, the Company paid to Enerfund an amount, in cash, representing payment in full of all non-convertible notes and payables of Net Element owed to Mike Zoi or any of his affiliates which were then outstanding (which totaled approximately $7.9 million). In the case of Cazador, Mike Zoi, through Enerfund, previously paid, on behalf of Cazador, $150,000 of Cazador's legal fees in connection with the Merger Agreement.

Following consummation of the Merger, Francesco Piovanetti and David P. Kelley II own 3,609,631 and 14,000 warrants, respectively, to purchase an aggregate of 3,623,631 shares of the Company’s Common Stock (the “Director’s Warrants”). The Director’s Warrants are identical to the other outstanding warrants to purchase the Company’s Common Stock, except that the Director’s Warrants (i) are non-redeemable, so long as they are held by either Messrs. Piovanetti or Kelley or their permitted transferees; (ii) are exercisable on a cashless basis at the election of the holder, so long as they are held by either Messrs. Piovanetti or Kelley, or their permitted transferees, rather than at the Company’s sole discretion; and (iii) are not transferable or saleable by the either Messrs. Piovanetti or Kelley (except to permitted transferees) until six months after the Closing. The Director’s Warrants are not exercisable and are held in an escrow account maintained by Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company, acting as escrow agent, while they are subject to the foregoing transfer restrictions.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers

The Net Element International, Inc. Amended and Rested Certificate of Incorporation (the "Company Charter") provides that each person (and the heirs, executors or administrators of such person) who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to, or is involved in any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of the Company or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Company to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation (the "DGCL"). The right to indemnification conferred shall also include the right to be paid by the Company the expenses incurred in connection with any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition to the fullest extent authorized by the DGCL.

Section 145 of the DGCL concerning indemnification of officers, directors, employees and agents is set forth below.

Section 145. Indemnification of officers, directors, employees and agents; insurance.

(a) A corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the person's conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful.

(b) A corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

(c) To the extent that a present or former director or officer of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsections (a) and (b) of this section, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith.

(d) Any indemnification under subsections (a) and (b) of this section (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the present or former director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because the person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in subsections (a) and (b) of this section. Such determination shall be made, with respect to a person who is a director or officer of the corporation at the time of such determination:

- (1) By a majority vote of the directors who are not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, even though less than a quorum; or
- (2) By a committee of such directors designated by majority vote of such directors, even though less than a quorum; or
- (3) If there are no such directors, or if such directors so direct, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion; or
- (4) By the stockholders.

(e) Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by an officer or director of the corporation in defending any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this section. Such expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by former directors and officers or other employees and agents of the corporation or by persons serving at the request of the corporation as directors, officers, employees or agents of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise may be so paid upon such terms and conditions, if any, as the corporation deems appropriate.

(f) The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, the other subsections of this section shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in such person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. A right to indemnification or to advancement of expenses arising under a provision of the certificate of incorporation or a bylaw shall not be eliminated or impaired by an amendment to the certificate of incorporation or the bylaws after the occurrence of the act or omission that is the subject of the civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding for which indemnification or advancement of expenses is sought, unless the provision in effect at the time of such act or omission explicitly authorizes such elimination or impairment after such action or omission has occurred.

(g) A corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under this section.

(h) For purposes of this section, references to "the corporation" shall include, in addition to the resulting corporation, any constituent corporation (including any constituent of a constituent) absorbed in a consolidation or merger which, if its separate existence had continued, would have had power and authority to indemnify its directors, officers, and employees or agents, so that any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of such constituent corporation, or is or was serving at the request of such constituent corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, shall stand in the same position under this section with respect to the resulting or surviving corporation as such person would have with respect to such constituent corporation if its separate existence had continued.

(i) For purposes of this section, references to "other enterprises" shall include employee benefit plans; references to "fines" shall include any excise taxes assessed on a person with respect to any employee benefit plan; and references to "serving at the request of the corporation" shall include any service as a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation which imposes duties on, or involves services by, such director, officer, employee or agent with respect to an employee benefit plan, its participants or beneficiaries; and a person who acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan shall be deemed to have acted in a manner "not opposed to the best interests of the corporation" as referred to in this section.

(j) The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this section shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

(k) The Court of Chancery is hereby vested with exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all actions for advancement of expenses or indemnification brought under this section or under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise. The Court of Chancery may summarily determine a corporation's obligation to advance expenses (including attorneys' fees).

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to our directors, officers, and controlling persons pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, we have been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person in a successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the Company's securities, we will, unless in the opinion of counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to the court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

Paragraph I of Article VIII of the Company Charter provides:

A director of the Company shall not be liable to the Company or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Company or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involved intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 174 of the DGCL, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On October 2, 2012, in connection with the consummation of the Merger, the Company notified the NASDAQ Stock Market LLC that the Merger had become effective and requested that the NASDAQ Stock Market LLC file a Notification of Removal From Listing and/or Registration under Section 12(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), on Form 25 to notify the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") that the Cazador units and warrants were to be delisted and deregistered under Section 12(b) of the Exchange Act. As a result of the Merger having become effective, the NASDAQ Stock Market LLC determined to permanently suspend trading of the Cazador units and warrants prior to the open of trading on October 3, 2012. The deregistration will become effective 10 days from the filing of the Form 25.

In accordance with Rule 12g-3(a) under the Exchange Act, the shares of the Company's Common Stock, as the successor to Cazador, are deemed to be registered under Section 12(b) of the Exchange Act. The Company's Common Stock is currently listed for trading on The NASDAQ Capital Market under the symbol "NETE." The warrants to purchase shares of Common Stock of the Company are quoted on the OTCBB under the symbol "NETEW" and deemed to be registered under Section 12(g) of the Exchange Act. Following the Closing, the CUSIP numbers relating to the Company's Common Stock and warrants changed to 64111R 102 and 64111R 110, respectively.

On the effective date of the Domestication, the outstanding units of Cazador automatically separated into the underlying Cazador Ordinary Shares and Cazador warrants. As a result, the Cazador units are no longer listed on The NASDAQ Capital Market.

Item 3.03. Material Modification to Rights of Security Holders.

Effective October 2, 2012, the Company changed its jurisdiction of incorporation from the Cayman Islands to the State of Delaware (the "Domestication"). The Company discontinued its existence as a Cayman Island exempted company as provided under Article 206 of the Companies Law (2011 Revision) of the Cayman Islands and, pursuant to Section 388 of the DGCL, continued its existence under the DGCL as a corporation incorporated in the State of Delaware.

In connection with the Domestication, each currently issued and outstanding ordinary share of Cazador ("Cazador Ordinary Shares") automatically converted by operation of law, on a one-for-one basis, into shares of the Company's Common Stock. Consequently, each holder of an outstanding Cazador Ordinary Shares immediately prior to the Domestication now holds a share of the Company's Common Stock.

Similarly, upon effectiveness of the Domestication, outstanding options, warrants and other rights to acquire Cazador Ordinary Shares automatically converted to become options, warrants or rights to acquire the corresponding shares of the Company's Common Stock. No other changes were made to the terms of any outstanding options, warrants and other rights to acquire Cazador Ordinary Shares as a result of the domestication.

It is not necessary for stockholders to exchange their existing Cazador Ordinary Share certificates for new stock certificates of the Company's Common Stock. Until surrendered and exchanged, each certificate evidencing Cazador Ordinary Shares will be deemed for all purposes of the Company to evidence the identical number of shares of the Company's Common Stock. Holders of uncertificated Cazador Ordinary Shares immediately prior to the Domestication continued as holders of uncertificated shares of the Company's Common Stock upon effectiveness of the Domestication.

The rights of holders of the Company's Common Stock are now governed by the Company Charter, its Amended and Restated Bylaws (the "Company Bylaws") and the DGCL. If you are a U.S. holder of the Company's Common Stock or warrants, you may be subject to U.S. federal income tax as a result of the Domestication unless you make a timely election on your filing with the Internal Revenue Service. In addition, if you are a non-U.S. holder of the Company's Common Stock or warrants, you may become subject to withholding tax on any dividends paid on such Common Stock subsequent to the effectiveness of the Domestication.

The sections of the Final Prospectus entitled "Description of NEI Securities," "The Business Combination - The Cazador Domestication," "Comparison of Shareholder Rights," and "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences – Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Cazador Domestication" are incorporated herein by reference. The Company Charter and the Company Bylaws are filed as Exhibits 3.2 and 3.3 to this Current Report on 8-K, respectively, and are hereby incorporated by reference into this Item 3.03. The description of the Company Charter and the Company Bylaws referenced above is a summary and does not purport to be a complete description of those documents and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the copies of those documents filed as exhibits hereto.

Item 5.01. Changes in Control of Registrant.
