NEWS

Koger Equity Announces 82,000 Square Feet of Leases with TRW and The Georgia Medical Foundation

BOCA RATON, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--January 2, 2003--Koger Equity (NYSE:KE) today announced that it signed a 46,000 square foot lease and a 36,000 square foot lease with TRW, Inc. and the Georgia Medical Foundation, respectively, for all of Koger's Harvard building at its Atlanta Chamblee center and a portion of Koger's Lincoln Parkway building in Atlanta, Georgia. Both leases are expected to commence no later than April 2003.

Christopher Becker, senior vice president of Koger, said, "These leases fill significant vacancies for us and these highly respected companies are welcome additions to the tenant base at both properties. We are excited that the TRW transaction fills a single-building vacancy within six months of the renovation of the building." Additionally, the Georgia Medical Foundation transaction represents the immediate releasing of space that was vacated by the current tenant on December 31, 2002. TRW was represented by CB Commercial and Georgia Medical was represented by Trammel Crow Company in these transactions.

TRW, Inc., is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Northrop Grumman, the nation's second largest defense contractor. TRW is a leading provider of space technology and defense mission systems to the federal government. Further information about TRW can be found at Northrop Grumman's web site at www.northropgrumman.com.

The Georgia Medical Foundation provides medical review and other health-care related services to health-care professionals throughout Georgia. Further information about the Georgia Medical Foundation can be found at the Foundation's website at www.gmcf.org.
