Converium Holding Ltd, Zug

Zug, Switzerland - February 19, 2007 - Converium rejects unsolicited proposal by SCOR

The Board of Directors of Converium, who is being advised by Credit Suisse and JPMorgan, has carefully considered an unsolicited proposal by SCOR, over the weekend, to acquire Converium at CHF 21.- per share. The Directors are unanimous in their rejection of this proposal, which they believe fundamentally fails to recognise the value of Converium's franchise and growth prospects, and is, therefore, not in the interest of Converium, its shareholders, and its customers.

Edgar Filing: CONVERIUM HOLDING AG - Form 6-K

Converium is a profitable and strong reinsurer with a well recognised position in the market place. Converium's Board of Directors believes that the Company has the potential to achieve a sustainable return on equity of 14% by 2009. Reinsurance clients value diversification and multi-line reinsurance solutions as well as the services provided by Converium.

Converium has repeatedly emphasised and demonstrated its commitment to restoring its market position to pre-downgrade levels; and many clients have shown their support in achieving this goal. The renewals of January 1 2007 are the most recent proof of this: Converium succeeded in growing its reinsurance book while improving technical profitability.
