Item 8.01 Other Events

On October 19, 2007, The Federal Court of Australia New South Wales District

Edgar Filing: IMERGENT INC - Form 8-K

Registry (the "Court") ruled on a request for an injunction by the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC). The Court refused to enter an injunction which barred iMergent, Inc. (the "Company") from conducting business in Australia.

The ACCC sought a temporary injunction barring the Company from conducting business in Australia until such time as a permanent injunction is entered which would require certain actions on the part of the Company.

The Court, on a temporary basis, did not limit the Company's ability to conduct business in Australia but did require the Company to provide information to the ACCC and provide certain disclosures to purchasers. The Court has directed the parties to agree on the form of the orders giving effect to reasons by the Court, by October 26, 2007. The Court has not yet scheduled a hearing on the request for a permanent injunction.

Consequently, the Company is proceeding with the scheduled workshops in Australia during the week of October 22, 2007. The Company expects to fully comply with the orders of the Court.

On October 16, 2007, the Company received an order from the California Court of Appeals dated October 12, 2007 which denied the writ of supersedeas (Writ) filed with the California Court of Appeals. The Writ was filed in an attempt to stay enforcement of the preliminary injunction entered by the Ventura County Superior Court on the grounds that the preliminary injunction constitutes a mandatory injunction, mandating such a stay. The denial was without explanation and does not affect the Company's right to appeal the underlying ruling or the entry of the injunction.

Except for the historical information contained in this report, the statements made by the Company are forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. All such statements are subject to the safe harbor created by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The Company's future performance could differ significantly from the expectations of management and from results expressed or implied including but not limited to (i) the Company's expectation that it should be able to comply with the orders of the Court, and (ii) that the Company will conduct its scheduled workshops in Australia during the week of October 22, 2007. For further information on other risk factors, please refer to the "Risk Factors" contained in iMergent, Inc.'s Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2007. The information in Item 8.01 of this report is being furnished, not filed, pursuant to Form 8-K. Accordingly, the information contained herein will not be incorporated by reference into any registration statement filed by iMergent, Inc. under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, unless specifically identified therein as being incorporated therein by reference.
