Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) On December 12, 2018, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Halozyme Therapeutics, Inc. (the “Company”) approved certain changes to the Company’s Severance Policy to more closely align the Company’s severance practices with those of its peer companies. Under the terms of the amended Severance Policy, in the event of a termination by the Company without cause: (i) the cash severance for the Company’s Chief Executive Officer (the “CEO”) will be equal to 18 months of the CEO’s then-current annual base salary and a bonus paid at target and pro-rated based upon the length of employment during the year of separation; and (ii) the cash severance for certain other senior officers of the Company as designated by the Compensation Committee (which includes all of the Company’s other executive officers) will be equal to the senior officer’s then-current annual base salary and a bonus paid at target and pro-rated based upon the length of employment during the year of separation. In addition to cash severance the Company will also (i) extend the period during which the CEO and certain other senior officers as designated by the Compensation Committee are permitted to exercise all options that are vested as of the date of termination to the shorter of (a) one year following the date of termination and (b) the remaining term of the option prior to such termination, and (ii) pay certain health coverage costs during the term of the applicable severance period.

The foregoing descriptions of the Company’s Severance Policy does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete Severance Policy which is attached to this report as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated by reference herein.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
