Stock Incentive Plan and Stock Option Awards

The Workflow Management, Inc. 1998 Stock Incentive Plan (the "Incentive Plan") was adopted on June 8, 1998 by U.S. Office Products Company ("USOP"), the Company's sole stockholder at the time, prior to USOP's distribution to its stockholders of all of USOP's shares of the Company's Common Stock on June 9, 1998 (the "Distribution"). The Incentive Plan provides for the issuance of stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock and other stock-based awards to non-employee directors, consultants and key employees of the Company and its subsidiaries. The purpose of the Incentive Plan is to promote the long-term growth and profitability of the Company by providing employees and non-employee directors with incentives to improve stockholder value and contribute to the growth and financial success of the Company, and by enabling the Company to attract, retain and reward highly motivated and qualified employees. The maximum number of shares of Company Common Stock that may be issued with respect to awards granted under the Incentive Plan is 4,392,894, which equaled 30% of the outstanding Common Stock following the Distribution. The maximum number of shares that may be issued with respect to awards granted under the Incentive Plan to an individual in a calendar year may not exceed 1,500,000 shares.

The Incentive Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. The Incentive Plan authorizes the Compensation Committee to make all awards. The Compensation Committee determines the prices, vesting schedules, expiration dates and other material conditions under which such awards may be exercised.

No restricted stock, stock appreciation rights or stock-based awards other than stock option grants were awarded to any of the Named Executive Officers during Fiscal 2003 pursuant to the Incentive Plan.

The following table sets forth information about stock option grants made to the Named Officers during Fiscal 2003.

Retirement Savings Plan

All of the Named Executive Officers and other eligible employees of the Company are eligible while employed by the Company to participate in the Company's 401(k) Plan ("401(k) Plan"). The 401(k) Plan permits employees to contribute to the 401(k) Plan through voluntary payroll deductions on a pretax basis. These contributions are matched by the Company in an amount equal to 25% of payroll deductions made by employees, up to 6% of an employee's total compensation. The Company's matching contributions vest over a period of five years after a participant's date of hire, at the rate of 25% after two years, 50% after three years, 75% after four years, and 100% after five years.

Executive Stock Loan Program

During Fiscal 2001 and Fiscal 1999, the Company extended unsecured loans to certain members of management and the Board of Directors (the "Director and Officer Notes") for the purchase, in the open market, of Company Common Stock by those individuals. The Director and Officer Notes were full recourse promissory notes bearing interest at 6.75% and 8.0% per annum, respectively, with principal and interest payable at maturity on January 2, 2003 and February 3, 2003. As of August 26, 2003, $245,596 in principal and interest remained outstanding under the Director and Officer Notes which consisted entirely of amounts owed by former executive officers and/or former Board members. The Company is actively pursuing all legal remedies available to facilitate collection of outstanding amounts.

Compensation of Directors

Directors who are also employees of the Company do not receive any extra compensation for attendance at Board or Committee meetings. During Fiscal 2001, the Board of Directors approved the Company's provision of life-time health insurance coverage for all Board members and their dependents who elect to accept such coverage (the "Director Health Benefit Program"). In Fiscal 2003, the Company made payments on behalf of certain Directors in connection with the Director Health Benefit Program, as follows: Mr. Brown, $9,635, Mr. Pearson, $15,125 and Mr. Redding, $4,190. As compensation for their services on the Board of Directors, the Company's non-employee Directors receive $30,000 (payable in stock, cash or a combination thereof) for each year of service. The Company's directors also receive cash compensation for attending Board meetings and service on committees of the Board of Directors. During Fiscal 2003, cash compensation for the Company's outside directors for committee service ranged from $2,500 to $33,000.

Executive Officer Employment, Severance and Change-in-Control Agreements

The terms and conditions of Mr. Ampulski's employment were set forth in the offer letter ("Offer Letter") pursuant to which Mr. Ampulski agreed to be employed by the Company. Currently, Mr. Ampulski receives a base annual salary of $400,000 and is eligible to receive up to one hundred percent of his base salary in bonus compensation as determined by the Compensation Committee based on performance criteria selected by the Compensation Committee. Pursuant to the Offer Letter, and upon his accepting employment with the Company, Mr. Ampulski received $100,000 of Company Common Stock and was granted 90,000 options to purchase Company Common Stock at an exercise price of $2.95 per share, 30,000 of which vest each anniversary of the date he accepted employment with the Company. The Offer Letter also entitles Mr. Ampulski to receive his base salary for a period of one year following any change of control of the Company or any termination of his employment by the Company other than as a result of his (i) willful disregard and failure to perform his duties (excluding the failure to perform as a result of disability) or (ii) his conviction for a crime constituting a felony or involving moral turpitude and resulting in material harm to the Company.

Edgar Filing: WORKFLOW MANAGEMENT INC - Form 10-K/A

The Company entered into an Employment Agreement with Michael L. Schmickle, dated May 1, 2001, pursuant to which Mr. Schmickle serves as the Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer and Secretary of the Company. Mr. Schmickle and the Company entered into an amendments to his employment agreement on December 23, 2002 and August 28, 2003 (as amended, the Schmickle Employment Agreement). The general terms of the Schmickle Employment Agreement are as follows: (i) an initial term of two years automatically renewed for one year terms in the absence of notice of non-renewal; (ii) a current base salary of $215,200; (iii) eligibility to receive up to 100% of his base salary in bonus compensation, payable in cash, stock options or non-cash awards, as determined by the Compensation Committee based on specified performance criteria; and (iv) eligibility to receive bonus compensation in excess of 100% of his base salary for extraordinary performance and exceptional Company results, as determined by the Compensation Committee, which is payable in cash, stock options or other non-cash awards. Additionally, Mr. Schmickle is entitled to receive a retention bonus of $200,000, $100,000 of which was paid on January 1, 2003, $50,000 of which is payable on January 31, 2004 and $50,000 of which is payable on June 1, 2004. Mr. Schmickle will forfeit the right to receive the remaining portion of the retention bonus in the event his employment with the Company is terminated for cause (as defined in agreement) or as a result of Mr. Schmickle s death or resignation. In the event that his employment is terminated without cause (as defined in the agreement), Mr. Schmickle is entitled to receive any remaining retention bonus and his base salary and benefits for the longer of (i) five months from the date of termination or (ii) the remaining time under the term of the employment agreement. If Mr. Schmickle terminates his employment following (a) a material breach by the Company under the Schmickle Employment Agreement, or (b) his refusal to be relocated to another geographic location other than his current residence (Termination for Good Reason), he will be entitled to receive his base salary and benefits for the lesser of (i) six months from the date of termination or (ii) the remaining time under the term of the employment agreement. The Schmickle Employment Agreement contains a non-competition covenant which prohibits Mr. Schmickle from engaging in certain activities during the term of the employment agreement and for the longer of (i) a period of one year thereafter or (ii) as long as Mr. Schmickle continues to receive severance payments from the Company.

Effective July 21, 2003, Thomas B. D. Agostino, Sr., the Chairman of the Board of Directors, resigned from the Board and as Chairman, and released the Company from any obligation to pay severance or other amounts under his employment agreement with the Company. Based on the results of an investigation conducted by the Audit Committee of the Board with the assistance of forensic auditors and special counsel, the Company's Audit Committee determined that Mr. D. Agostino failed to comply with Company policies and procedures, including those relating to expenses and personal business activities, that Mr. D. Agostino failed to furnish complete information to the Board regarding certain transactions, and that Mr. D. Agostino should reimburse the Company for certain expenses paid by the Company. On July 21, 2003, while not admitting to any wrongdoing, Mr. D. Agostino paid $400,000 to the Company in settlement of these matters. The results of the Audit Committee investigation did not reveal any matters that would have a material impact on the financial statements of the Company for any prior historical period. Following Mr. D. Agostino's resignation, the Board elected Gerald F. Mahoney as the Chairman of the Board.

On January 10, 2003, in connection with his resigning from his employment with the Company effective January 3, 2003, the Company entered into a Severance and Release Agreement with Steven R. Gibson, formerly the Executive Vice President and President of the former Printing Division of the Company, (the Gibson Severance Agreement). Under this agreement, the Company agreed to pay Mr. Gibson a severance payment of $457,125, of which $312,038 was retained by the Company in payment of his outstanding officer note issued under the executive stock loan program (Gibson Note), and Mr. Gibson also agreed to make certain scheduled payments toward, granted certain security interests to secure repayment of, and agreed to certain covenants concerning, the Gibson Note. Additionally, the Gibson Severance Agreement provided for the following: (i) the resignation of Mr. Gibson from the Board of Directors of the Company; (ii) a mutual waiver and release by the Company and Mr. Gibson any and all claims against one another; (iii) a negative covenant prohibiting Mr. Gibson from making statements concerning the Company which could harm the Company's business interests; (iv) the survival of key provisions from the terminated employment agreement of Mr. Gibson relating to confidentiality and indemnification; and (v) continuation of health and dental benefits until April 30, 2004 after termination pursuant to COBRA with reimbursement from the Company for Ms. Gibson's share of the premiums. In addition to the Gibson Severance Agreement, on January 10, 2003 the Company entered into a Consulting Agreement with Mr. Gibson relating to his possible assistance in the Company's sale of certain of its non-core subsidiaries (the Gibson Consulting Agreement). Under this agreement, Mr. Gibson could have been entitled to certain payments in the event that the sale of such subsidiaries occurred within certain proscribed periods of time and provided that Mr. Gibson otherwise complied with the terms and conditions of the agreement. As disclosed in the Form 10-K, these subsidiaries were sold on July 31, 2003, however, under the terms of the Gibson Consulting Agreement, the Company is not obligated to make any payments to Mr. Gibson.

As described in the Form 10-K, the Company's Board of Directors and the financial advisors to the Board and Special Committee of the Board are exploring a number of potential strategic alternatives to improve the Company's capital structure, including a potential recapitalization or sale of the Company. The Special Committee has directed the Company's financial advisors to vigorously explore available alternatives and to actively engage in discussions with interested third parties. In order to secure the continued service of its executive management team during this process, the Company has proposed change of control agreements to certain members of its management which generally offer each such individual a one time payment equal to his or her annual salary in the event he or she is terminated by the Company within 180 days following a change of control of the Company.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

Mr. Thomas A. Brown, Sr., Mr. Roger J. Pearson, Mr. Peter S. Redding, and Mr. James J. Maiwurm served as members of the Compensation Committee of the Company's Board of Directors during Fiscal 2003. None of such persons is an officer or employee, or former officer or employee, of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

During Fiscal 2003, an interlocking relationship existed between a member of the Company's Board of Directors and the compensation committee of Cortez III Service Corporation, an ESOP-owned government services provider (Cortez III). F. Craig Wilson, formerly a Director of the Company, is President, Chief Executive Officer and a member of the Board of Directors of Cortez III. The interlocking relationship commenced on July 20, 2000, when Steve R. Gibson, formerly a Director and executive officer of the Company, was appointed to the Cortez III Board of Directors and elected Chairman of its Compensation Committee. James J. Maiwurm, a Director of the Company, has also served on the Cortez III Board of Directors since July 20, 2000.
