Proxy Statement

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS ON VOTING PROCEDURES

Who is entitled to vote at the annual meeting, and how many votes do they have?

Common shareholders who own shares as of the close of business on March 19, 2004 may vote at the meeting. Each share has one vote. There were 168,224,120 shares of common stock outstanding on that date.

When were the enclosed solicitation materials first given to shareholders?

The enclosed Annual Report and proxy card, together with this Notice of Annual Meeting and Proxy Statement, were first sent, or given, to shareholders on or about April 12, 2004.

What is a quorum of shareholders?

A quorum is the presence at the annual meeting in person or by proxy of shareholders entitled to cast a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast. Since there were 168,224,120 shares of common stock outstanding on March 19, 2004, the presence of holders of 84,112,061 shares is a quorum. We must have a quorum to conduct the meeting.

How many votes does it take to pass each matter?

If a quorum of shareholders is present at the meeting, we need:

a plurality of all the votes cast to elect each director, and a majority of all the votes cast to ratify the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as our independent auditors.

How are abstentions and broker non-votes treated?

Abstentions and broker non-votes count for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. For all matters, abstentions and broker non-votes will not have any effect on the result of the vote.

How do I vote?

You must be present, or represented by proxy, at the annual meeting in order to vote your shares. Since many of our shareholders are unable to attend the meeting in person, we send proxy cards or voting instruction forms to all of our shareholders.

If my shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

If your shares are held in a brokerage account, you will receive a full meeting package including a voting instruction form to vote your shares. Your brokerage firm may permit you to vote by telephone or by the Internet. Brokerage firms have the authority under New York Stock Exchange rules to vote their clients' unvoted shares on certain routine matters. If you do not vote, your brokerage firm may choose to vote for you or leave your shares unvoted. We urge you to respond to your brokerage firm so that your vote will be cast.

What is a proxy?

A proxy is another person you authorize to vote on your behalf. We solicit proxy cards that are used to instruct the proxy how to vote so that all common shares may be voted at the annual meeting even if the holders do not attend the meeting.

Table of Contents

How will my proxy vote my shares?

If you properly sign and return your proxy card or voting instruction form, your shares will be voted as you direct. If you sign and return your proxy card or voting instruction form but do not specify how you want your shares voted, they will be voted FOR the election of all nominees for Director as set forth under Election of Constellation Energy Directors and FOR the ratification of the appointment of our independent auditors. Also, you will give your proxies authority to vote, using their discretion, on any other business that properly comes before the meeting.

How do I vote using my proxy card?

There are three steps.

1. Vote on each of the matters as follows:

Item 1. The names of the nominees for Class II directors to serve three-year terms are listed on your proxy card. You have three options:

Option 1. To vote for all of the nominees, you check the box marked FOR.

Option 2. To vote for some of the nominees and against the rest, you check the box marked FOR ALL EXCEPT and then fill in the circle next to each nominee that you want to vote against or otherwise follow the instructions on the card.

Option 3. To abstain from voting for all of the nominees (that is, not vote for or against any of the nominees), you check the box marked WITHHOLD AUTHORITY FOR ALL NOMINEES, or otherwise follow the instructions on the card.

Item 2. Check the box FOR, or AGAINST, or ABSTAIN (to cast no vote).

2. Sign and date your proxy card. If you do not sign and date your proxy card, your votes cannot be counted.
3. Mail your proxy card in the pre-addressed, postage-paid envelope.
4. Check the box on your proxy card if you plan to attend the annual meeting.

Can I vote by proxy even if I plan to attend the annual meeting?

Yes. If you vote by proxy and decide to attend the annual meeting, you do not need to fill out a ballot at the meeting, unless you want to change your vote.

Why might I receive more than one proxy card? Should I vote on each proxy card I receive?

First, you may have various accounts with us that are registered differently, perhaps in different names or with different social security or federal tax identification numbers. Second, you may also own shares indirectly through your broker or through our employee savings plans. Your broker or the plan trustee will send you a proxy or voting instruction card for these shares. You should vote on each proxy card or voting instruction form you receive and mail it to the address shown on the proxy card or form. If employee savings plan participants do not vote their shares, the plan trustee will vote the shares in the same proportion as the trustee was instructed to vote shares for which it received voting instruction cards.

Table of Contents

How can I get only one copy of the Annual Report sent to my home if I currently receive multiple copies?

You may be receiving multiple copies of the Annual Report because you have more than one account, each registered differently with the same mailing address. To receive only one Annual Report you may:

write to:	-or-	call:
American Stock Transfer & Trust Company		1-800-258-0499
Attn: Shareholder Services
59 Maiden Lane
New York, NY 10038

How do I change previous instructions to send only one Annual Report to my home?

Simply call the number noted above or notify our transfer agent at the address indicated in the previous question that you want to receive an Annual Report for each of your accounts (your stock account numbers must be included in the notification).

How do I change my vote?

You may change your vote at any time before the annual meeting by:

notifying Kathleen A. Chagnon, Corporate Secretary, in writing at 750 E. Pratt Street, 18th Floor, Baltimore, MD 21202, that you are changing your vote; or completing and sending in another proxy card or voting instruction form with a later date; or attending the annual meeting and voting in person.

Who is soliciting my proxy, how is it being solicited, and who pays the cost?

Constellation Energy, on behalf of the Board of Directors, through its directors, officers and employees, is soliciting proxies primarily by mail. However, proxies may also be solicited in person, by telephone or facsimile. Constellation Energy pays the cost of soliciting proxies.

Other Business Matters

The Board of Directors is not aware of any other business for the Annual Meeting. However:

if any of the persons named to serve as directors are unable to serve or for good cause will not serve,

if any shareholder proposal which is not in this proxy statement or on the proxy card or voting instruction form pursuant to Rule 14a-8 or 14a-9 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is presented for action at the meeting, or if any matters concerning the conduct of the meeting are presented for action,

The committee provides input on setting goals and developing strategies to achieve employee diversity and oversees the implementation of these strategies and evaluates their results. The committee also oversees succession planning for the Chief Executive Officer and senior management. All committee

We will post any amendments to, or waivers of, the Principles of Business Integrity applicable to our chief executive officer, chief financial officer or chief accounting officer on our website.

In addition, the Board of Directors has designated the Chairperson of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee to act as its Lead Director. In that capacity, the current Chairperson, Mr. Sullivan, has the following duties and authority:

Serving as a liaison between the Chairman of the Board and the independent directors

Approving information sent to the Board, and agendas and meeting schedules for Board meetings

Each Board member is expected to devote sufficient time to carrying out Board duties and responsibilities effectively and should be committed to serve on the Board for an extended period of time.

Each director should be a shareholder and have a financial stake in Constellation Energy. While no specific share ownership by an individual director is required, it is expected that each director will develop a meaningful ownership position in Constellation Energy over time, consistent with individual circumstances.

Qualified candidates for membership on the Board will be considered without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, ancestry, national origin or disability.

Each of the nominees for director proposed by the Board of Directors is a current director of Constellation Energy.

DIRECTORS COMPENSATION

The Board met eight times for regularly scheduled meetings in 2003. Each of the directors attended 75% or more of the total number of meetings of the Board and of any committees on which the director served.

We do not pay directors who are also employees of Constellation Energy or its subsidiaries for their service as directors. In 2003, non-employee directors received the following compensation:

$30,000 annual retainer, a $10,000 annual retainer for the audit committee chairperson and a $5,000 annual retainer for each other committee chairperson, common stock award with a value of approximately $35,000, which stock (i) is subject to pro rata forfeiture if Board service ceases during the year and (ii) may not be sold or otherwise transferred by the director until the end of their Board service,

$1,250 fee for each regular or special Board or Board committee meeting attended, and reasonable travel expenses to attend meetings.

Directors had the opportunity to elect to defer some or all of their retainers in deferred stock units, or in a cash account, and to defer some or all of their fees in a cash account. Deferred stock units are bookkeeping entries that track the performance of Constellation Energy common stock and are not actual shares of stock. The bookkeeping entries reflect Constellation Energy common stock price changes, dividends, stock splits and other capital changes. At the end of their Board service, directors receive cash based on the value of their deferred stock units.

Salary and bonus used to compute pension benefits are calculated in the same manner as shown in the Summary Compensation Table on page 15. There is no offset of pension benefits for social security or other amounts. Compensation used to compute pension benefits for the individuals named in the Summary Compensation Table as of December 31, 2003 was as follows:

M. A. Shattuck III	$ 2,650,000
T. V. Brooks	450,008
M. J. Wallace	1,562,500
E. F. Smith	1,310,417
F. O. Heintz	745,417

Constellation Energy has a program to secure the supplemental pension benefits for executive officers, and a program to secure deferred compensation of executive officers, including most of those listed in the Summary Compensation Table on page 15. These programs do not increase the amount of supplemental pension benefits or deferred compensation. To provide security, accrued supplemental pension benefits and deferred compensation are funded through a trust at the time they are earned. An executive officer's accrued benefits in the supplemental pension trust become vested when any of these events occur: retirement eligibility; termination, demotion or loss of benefit eligibility without cause; a change of control of Constellation Energy followed within two years by the executive's demotion, termination or loss of benefit eligibility; or reduction of previously accrued benefits. As a result of becoming vested, the executive would be entitled to a payout of the vested amount from the supplemental pension trust at employment termination. An executive's benefits under the deferred compensation plan always are fully vested and are payable at employment termination.

Severance and Other Agreements

Constellation Energy has severance agreements with Messrs. Shattuck, Wallace and Heintz and Ms. Smith. The severance agreements provide benefits if (1) there is a change in control of Constellation Energy, and (2) within two years of the change in control, the executive's employment is terminated without cause, or the executive resigns for good reason. The executives are required to release Constellation Energy and its subsidiaries from legal claims as a condition to receiving the benefits.

The severance agreements provide benefits equal to three times the sum of (1) the executive's annual base salary and (2) the average of the executive's two highest annual incentive awards paid (or deemed paid at target for recently hired executives) in the last five years. Payment is made in a cash lump sum after employment ceases.

The agreements also provide enhanced retirement benefits, computed assuming the executive: (1) has service equal to actual service plus 3 years of deemed service (Mr. Wallace's agreement provides a minimum 40% service percentage); and (2) has satisfied the minimum age and service eligibility requirements for benefits under the supplemental retirement plan. If Mr. Wallace is otherwise eligible to retire under the terms of the supplemental retirement plan, his agreement also provides retirement benefits computed without any penalty for early retirement.

Edgar Filing: CONSTELLATION ENERGY GROUP INC - Form DEF 14A

For each executive, the agreement further provides for the payment of the present value of the employer subsidy for medical and dental benefits for active employee medical and dental benefits for 3 years. Also, for an executive who is at least age 55 with seven or more years of service, the agreement provides for the payment of the present value of the employer subsidy for medical and dental benefits for retired employees (based on the deemed age and service used above to compute retirement benefits). Each executive is also entitled to 60 days of outplacement services at a cost not to exceed $50,000.

Constellation Energy also has a severance agreement with Mr. Brooks. The agreement provides a severance payment if (1) there is a change in control of Constellation Energy, and (2) within two years of the change in control, Mr. Brooks' employment is terminated without cause, or Mr. Brooks resigns for good reason. Mr. Brooks is required to release Constellation Energy and its subsidiaries from legal claims as a condition to receiving a severance payment. The agreement provides a payment equal to the lesser of (1) two times the sum of (a) Mr. Brooks' annual base salary and (b) the average of his two highest annual incentive awards paid in the last five years or (2) $5,000,000. Payment is made in a cash lump sum after employment ceases.

Upon a change of control of Constellation Energy, each executive is also entitled to an accelerated payout of restricted stock or acceleration of the option exercise period in accordance with the terms of the Long-Term Incentive Plan. Also, the executive is entitled to an accelerated annual incentive payment, computed assuming maximum performance achievement and pro-rated for service during the performance period in the event of a change of control of Constellation Energy and termination of the executive's employment within two years thereafter.

When Mr. Brooks was hired in 2001, Constellation Energy agreed to reimburse him for up to $3,000,000 of loss in equity awards from his former employer to the extent the loss is caused by certain future events. If at any time Mr. Brooks' employment is terminated by Constellation Energy without cause, Constellation Energy will reimburse him for any such loss. If before April 2003 a change in control of Constellation Energy had occurred and Mr. Brooks resigned because his duties were diminished, or if any time after March 2003 he voluntarily resigns, Constellation Energy will reimburse him for any such loss. Constellation Energy is not obligated to reimburse Mr. Brooks for any such loss if (i) he takes any action which relieves the former employer from its obligation to deliver the equity awards or the equity awards vest (except in the event the former employer fails to deliver such awards due to actions taken by Mr. Brooks in his capacity as an employee of Constellation Energy that are within the scope of his duties), (ii) he retains his right to receive the equity awards after any termination of employment with Constellation Energy, or (iii) the value of the vested equity awards at any time exceeds $3,000,000.

During 2001, as part of its efforts to retain Mr. Brooks so that Constellation Energy may continue to benefit from his significant expertise in the wholesale marketing and risk management business, Constellation Energy agreed to pay him a total cash amount of $1,150,000 40% vested on July 1, 2002 and the remaining 60% vested on July 1, 2003. The 60% that vested in 2003 totaled $690,000 and is shown in the column of the Summary Compensation Table on page 15 titled Bonus.

When he was hired in January 2002, Mr. Wallace entered into an employment agreement with Constellation Energy that is effective until December 31, 2004. Under the terms of the agreement, Mr. Wallace serves as President of Constellation Energy's Constellation Generation Group, LLC, at a minimum annual base salary of $500,000. For 2003 and 2004, Mr. Wallace's annual incentive award percentage of base pay target opportunity will be no less than the target opportunity percentage for Constellation Energy's Chief Executive Officer. The agreement also provided for grants of restricted stock and stock options, which were previously disclosed. The agreement further provides seven years of vesting service under the supplemental pension plan. In the event of termination of Mr. Wallace's employment by Constellation Energy without cause or Mr. Wallace's resignation from employment with Constellation Energy for good reason, subject to his execution of a waiver releasing Constellation Energy and its affiliates from any claims, base salary will be paid through December 31, 2004, annual incentive awards through December 31, 2004 will be paid at target, the restricted stock and stock options will be subject to accelerated vesting, and supplemental pension plan benefits will fully and immediately vest.

When Ms. Smith was hired in 2001, Constellation Energy agreed to grant her options to purchase Constellation Energy common stock, with an aggregate value of $1,500,000, a ten year exercise period, and vesting in three equal annual installments beginning no later than November 22, 2001. To satisfy this commitment, in 2001 Constellation Energy granted Ms. Smith an option to purchase 150,000 shares of stock, and on February 5, 2002 granted Ms. Smith an option to purchase 206,000 shares of stock. Both grants were previously disclosed. Constellation Energy also agreed that if any event occurs (such as termination of Ms. Smith's employment) that would cause any such stock options to expire prior to the end of the ten year exercise period, Constellation Energy will make an immediate cash payment to compensate her for any lost value due to such early expiration, up to $1,500,000. However, Ms. Smith is not entitled to any such payment if she becomes employed by a direct competitor of Constellation Energy prior to the expiration date.

Constellation Energy also entered into a severance agreement with Ms. Smith, and in the event her employment is terminated by Constellation Energy without cause or if she resigns from her employment with Constellation Energy for good reason between certain dates, Constellation Energy will pay her the following aggregate cash amounts in 24 equal monthly installments: (i) May 22, 2001 and December 31, 2003 $1,400,000; (ii) January 1, 2004 and December 31, 2004 $1,000,000; and (iii) January 1, 2005 and December 31, 2005 $700,000. The agreement also provides that outstanding equity awards will continue to vest on schedule in the event Ms. Smith's employment is terminated by Constellation Energy without cause or if she resigns from her employment with Constellation Energy for good reason before 2006.

REPORT OF COMPENSATION COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee is responsible for executive compensation policies. We also approve all compensation plans, specific salary amounts, and other compensation awards for individual executives. All of our Committee members are independent directors.

Philosophy

We design compensation policies to encourage executives to manage Constellation Energy and its subsidiaries (collectively, the company) in the best long-term interests of shareholders and to enable the company to attract and retain executives best suited to drive its success over the long term. The Committee has retained an outside executive compensation consultant as our advisor in the areas of executive compensation and benefits.

Our Committee recognizes that the relevant labor market for the company's executive talent is evolving as the company evolves. Historically, we have set executive compensation policy by comparing the company to a group of energy services companies similar in size to Constellation Energy that have significant nonregulated businesses. For some executives, we also used labor market data from various industries that utilize the same type of expertise required for our executive positions. Based on the company's recent executive hiring experience, during 2004 the Committee will review and if necessary, redefine the company's comparative labor market for purposes of establishing executive compensation and benefits.

The elements of executive compensation are:

- base salary,
- short-term incentive awards, and
- long-term incentive awards.

The Committee's philosophy is that base salary should be linked to the median level of the relevant labor market. Base salary and short-term incentive awards should approximate the median level of the relevant labor market for average performance, and the 75th percentile for superior performance. Long-term incentive awards for superior performance should bring total compensation to approximately the 75th percentile of the relevant labor market. Under this approach, a high proportion of executive compensation is at risk in the form of short- and long-term incentive opportunities. As described below, corporate and/or subsidiary business and individual performance are among the criteria we use in determining base salary, and are key components in determining both short-term and long-term incentive awards. Also, stock-based compensation such as stock options and restricted stock, link a significant portion of long-term compensation to stock price appreciation realized by all Constellation Energy stockholders.

Table of Contents

The Committee has also established stock ownership guidelines for the company's executives who are members of the executive management committee. The guidelines seek to align the interests of these executives with the interests of shareholders. The guidelines are designed to encourage long-term value creation, and require each executive to acquire holdings of company stock with a value equal to the following multiples of base salary:

chief executive officer	7 times base salary
executive vice presidents	5 times base salary
senior vice presidents	3 times base salary

Annual Cash Compensation

Base Salary. We used compensation data developed by well recognized compensation consulting firms and the Committee's compensation philosophy to determine base salary range increases for executives in 2003.

We determined that the base salaries we established in 2002 or before were appropriate for 2003 for Mr. Shattuck and the other named executives. Therefore, no base salary increase was approved during 2003 for these executives.

Short-Term Incentives. Bonus payments for Mr. Shattuck and other executives represent the short-term incentive component of executive compensation. The Committee considered bonuses for Mr. Shattuck and the other executives based on achievement of corporate financial and business plan objectives, and individual performance.

At the beginning of 2003, the Committee determined the appropriate short-term incentive amount at target performance for each executive. The Committee then established annual incentive performance metrics for threshold, target and superior performance based on the company's 2003 adjusted earnings per share and for each level of performance, the Committee also established the maximum annual incentive award opportunity available to each executive. Further, at the beginning of the year, individual and business unit performance goals were established which included qualitative measures such as safety, customer satisfaction, and reliability.

Based on the company's adjusted earnings per share performance, the total dollars available for short-term incentives were computed. The company's 2003 adjusted earnings per share was in excess of the target performance level established by the Committee at the beginning of the year (and well in excess of the company's 2002 adjusted earnings per share). In determining the actual bonus payments to be made to each executive, the Committee assessed individual and business unit performance against the pre-established quantitative and qualitative measures, and also took into account the following accomplishments: the response and restoration efforts of Baltimore Gas and Electric Company and other company business units related to Hurricane Isabel, including recognition with the Edison Electric Institute's Emergency Response of the Year award; the increase in market share of the competitive supply businesses, including Constellation NewEnergy, Inc. serving more than 8,000 peak megawatts and 53 of the Fortune 100 companies and the on-going successful integration of Constellation NewEnergy, Inc., Alliance Energy, LLC and Fellon-McCord Associates, Inc.; the commencement in advance of the scheduled start date of operations of the High Desert Power Project, and its designation as Platts 2003 power plant of the year; the acquisition of Blackhawk Energy Services, LLC and Kaztex Energy Management, Inc.; successfully negotiating the acquisition agreement for the R.E. Ginna Nuclear Power Plant; the completion of the replacement of the steam generator at Calvert Cliffs in world record time; the increase in capacity factors at both Calvert Cliffs and Nine Mile Point; implementing significant cost savings initiatives; and the continued improvement in Constellation Energy's balance sheet through the sale of non-core assets, refinancing of debt and cash flow from operations. Based on this review, the Committee made bonus payments for 2003 performance to Mr. Shattuck and the other named executives, in either cash or cash and stock units that are fully vested but subject to transfer restrictions for a five year period, as shown in the column in the Summary Compensation Table on page 15 titled Annual Compensation - Bonus.

Long-Term Incentives

The Constellation Energy Long-Term Incentive Plan will be in effect until 2012. The Plan allows various types of awards that are linked to corporate performance, including stock options as well as restricted stock, restricted stock units and performance units subject to performance-based contingencies. Outstanding grants under the Plan include performance-based restricted stock, restricted stock units, performance units and stock options. The value of these long-term incentive grants correlates to future performance: the performance-based restricted stock and performance unit grants are generally subject to forfeiture if performance criteria are not satisfied and the stock options provide value to the executive only to the extent the market price of Constellation Energy common stock appreciates over the option term. Most grants are subject to forfeiture if the executive's employment terminates for certain reasons during the applicable performance period.

2003 Grants. During 2003, the Committee made various grants to provide appropriate levels of long-term incentive compensation to Mr. Shattuck and certain other executives.

In February 2003, the Committee recognized that certain of the executive officers have clearly demonstrated their collective ability to effectively execute the strategies necessary to advance Constellation Energy's future success. In an effort to retain these executives and provide an incentive for their continued focus on the execution of Constellation Energy's strategies, the Committee made the following grants of service-based restricted stock with a one year restriction period: to Mr. Shattuck 52,285 shares, to Mr. Brooks 24,206 shares, and to Ms. Smith 13,555 shares. Dividends on these shares are paid directly to each executive. The values of these shares on the date of grant are shown in the column of the Summary Compensation Table on page 15 titled Restricted Stock Awards and are also shown in footnote 2 in the Summary Compensation Table on page 15.

In May 2003, the Committee also granted to certain executives awards under the 2003 Long-Term Incentive Program (LTIP). These grants were awarded as follows:

50% of the grant value was delivered in non-qualified stock options with ratable vesting over three years. Awards become exercisable in three equal annual installments on May 2, 2004, May 2, 2005 and May 2, 2006. These options provide a reward for stock price appreciation over a long term period, aligning the interests of program participants with those of shareholders. The options granted are shown in the column of the Summary Compensation Table on page 15 titled Long-Term Compensation - Securities Underlying Options and in the Option Tables on pages 18 and 19.

Table of Contents

The remaining 50% of the grant value was delivered in the form of performance-based restricted stock (PBRS). Shares of PBRS were granted at target and are paid out only if the company meets its performance objectives under the program. Dividends on the shares granted are accumulated and used to purchase additional shares during the restriction period. The primary performance criteria was Constellation Energy's 2003 total shareholder return (TSR) relative to investment grade large and mid cap companies in the Dow Jones Electric Utilities Index. In 2003 the company's TSR was 45%, placing it at the top quartile of companies in the comparator group and earning the maximum payout available under the PBRS element of this program. As a result, on February 26, 2004, the Committee granted additional shares of restricted stock for performance over target. Shares awarded vest ratably over three years beginning on May 2, 2004, thereby aligning management's compensation with the long term growth of the company. The values of the PBRS grants are shown in the column of the Summary Compensation Table on page 15 titled Restricted Stock Awards and are also shown in footnote 2 in the Summary Compensation Table on page 15.

Special Service Award

The Committee recognized the significant achievements of Mr. Shattuck and the company since he became President and Chief Executive Officer of the company when he was hired on November 1, 2001. Mr. Shattuck has built and successfully motivated a highly talented management team that has closed four acquisitions and redefined the company's strategic direction as a leader in competitive supply. The Committee noted that under Mr. Shattuck's leadership the company's common stock price has increased by more than 70% since November 1, 2001 and the company has consistently outperformed the Dow Jones Electric Utilities Index. The Committee determined that it would be appropriate to compensate Mr. Shattuck for this outstanding performance and on February 26, 2004 the Committee granted Mr. Shattuck 50,441 stock units that are fully vested but that are subject to transfer restriction until February 26, 2009, as shown in the column in the Summary Compensation Table on page 15 titled Restricted Stock Awards. Dividend equivalents on these units are accumulated and used to purchase additional units.

Policy Concerning $1 Million Deduction Limitation

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code limits to $1 million the tax deduction of public companies for compensation paid to their chief executive officers and the four other most highly compensated executive officers. There are several exemptions to Section 162(m), including one for qualified performance-based compensation. To be qualified, performance-based compensation must meet various requirements, including shareholder approval. Our Committee's general intent is to design and administer the executive compensation programs in a manner that will preserve the deductibility of compensation payments to executive officers. However, this goal is secondary in importance to achievement of the company's compensation philosophy discussed earlier in this report, including managing Constellation Energy and its subsidiaries in the best long-term interests of shareholders. We previously adopted, and our shareholders approved, the Executive Annual Incentive Plan and the Executive Long-Term Incentive Plan in order to meet the performance-based qualification under the Internal Revenue Code. While we adopted the above-mentioned plans, we feel it is appropriate to maintain the flexibility of our Committee to exercise judgment in assessing an executive's performance in order to achieve the desired compensation objectives, which may result in certain nondeductible compensation payments from time to time.
