PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

TO BE HELD ON WEDNESDAY, MAY 12, 2004

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Southeastern Banking Corporation (the Company) for use at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Company (the Meeting) to be held at Southeastern Bank, 1010 Northway Street, Darien, Georgia, on Wednesday, May 12, 2004 at 3:00 p.m. or any adjournment or postponement thereof. This Proxy Statement and enclosed form of proxy are first being mailed to shareholders on or about April 23, 2004.

All shares of the Company's Common Stock, par value $1.25 per share (the Common Stock), represented at the Meeting by properly authorized proxies received prior to or at the Meeting, and not revoked, will be voted at the Meeting in accordance with the shareholder's instructions. If no instructions are indicated, properly executed proxies will be voted FOR the proposals set forth in this Proxy Statement.

The Company does not know of any matters, other than described in the Notice of Meeting, that are to come before the Meeting. If any other matters are properly presented at the Meeting for action, the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy and acting thereunder will vote on such matters as the Board of Directors recommends.

A shareholder may revoke his or her proxy and change his or her vote at any time prior to the voting thereof on any matter (without, however, affecting any vote taken prior to such revocation) by: (i) signing and returning another proxy with a later date; (ii) giving written notice of revocation of the shareholder's proxy to the Secretary of the Company prior to the Meeting at the address below; or (iii) voting in person at the Meeting. Any written notice revoking a proxy should be delivered to Wanda D. Pitts, Secretary, Southeastern Banking Corporation, at P.O. Box 455, Darien, Georgia 31305, if by mail, and at 1010 Northway Street, Darien, Georgia 31305, if by courier. The presence of a shareholder at the Meeting will not automatically revoke such shareholder's proxy.

VOTING SECURITIES AND PRINCIPAL HOLDERS

Edgar Filing: SOUTHEASTERN BANKING CORP - Form DEF 14A

Shareholders of record at the close of business on March 17, 2004 will be entitled to one vote for each share then held. As of March 17, 2004, the Company had 3,312,539 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding. The Common Stock constitutes the only voting securities issued by the Company.

A majority of the shares entitled to vote constitutes a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. If a quorum is present, the vote of a plurality of the votes cast by the shares entitled to vote is necessary for the election of directors. The presence of a quorum, either in person or by proxy, and the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares represented and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting are required to take most other actions.

The following table sets forth certain information regarding beneficial ownership of the Common Stock as of March 17, 2004 by: (i) each person known by the Company to be the beneficial owner of more than 5% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock; (ii) each director, nominee, and executive officer (as

A Board of Directors (the Board) consisting initially of seven directors will be elected at the Meeting for a one-year term or until their successors are elected and qualified. The Board has unanimously approved the nominees named below, all of whom are members of the current Board.

Unless otherwise instructed, it is the intention of the persons named in the accompanying form of proxy to vote for the election of the seven nominees named. Although the Board anticipates that all nominees will be available to serve as directors of the Company, should any one or more of them not accept the nomination, or otherwise be unwilling or unable to serve, the proxies will be voted for the election of a substitute nominee, or nominees, as the Board recommends. Except as disclosed in this proxy statement, there are no arrangements or understandings between any nominee and any other person pursuant to which such nominee was selected.

Edgar Filing: SOUTHEASTERN BANKING CORP - Form DEF 14A

None of the nominees has been involved in legal proceedings related to bankruptcies, criminal proceedings, or securities law violations. All nominees have been engaged in their respective principal occupation and have been associated with their respective employers for the last five years.

All directors have served continuously since their respective election. There are no family relationships among the Director nominees or executive officers of the Company or its subsidiaries.

Approval is sought to increase the number of directors to nine by allowing the seven elected directors to approve two additional directors to be elected at any time the Board deems it to be in the Company's best interest to fill same. The Board unanimously recommends a vote FOR this proposal.

Meetings and Committees of the Board. The Board conducts its business through meetings of the Board and through the activities of its committees, including subsidiary Boards and committees. The Company's Board regularly meets quarterly and other times as needed. During the year ended December 31, 2003, the Board of Directors held 5 meetings. Except for Mr. Hopkins, all the Company's directors attended at least 75% of the Board and committee meetings, including subsidiary Board of Directors and committee meetings, on which they served. Mr. Hopkins attended 75% of Company Board meetings but only 67% of subsidiary Board meetings in 2003.

The Executive Committee of the Board of Directors consists of Messrs. Brannen, Holland, Hopkins, and Mrs. Beasley. This committee evaluates potential acquisitions and handles other Company matters on an as-needed basis. The Executive Committee held no meetings during 2003.

The Board of Directors of Southeastern Bank, the Company's bank subsidiary, meets monthly, and its Executive Committee, normally twice a month. All members of the Company's Board also serve on the Southeastern Bank Board of Directors. The Southeastern Bank Board held 12 meetings during 2003. Messrs. Blair, Bluestein, Brannen, and Holland also serve on the Southeastern Bank Executive Committee.

Table of Contents

This committee primarily reviews and approves loans but is also empowered to act on other bank matters in the absence of the bank Board. The Southeastern Bank Executive Committee held 25 meetings in 2003.

Messrs. Brannen, Hopkins, and Johnson serve on the joint Audit Committee of the Company and Southeastern Bank. The primary functions of this committee are to appoint the independent auditors for the Company and its subsidiaries; review external audit scope, findings, and recommendations; approve the annual financial statements, preparation of which is the responsibility of management; evaluate internal accounting policies and procedures; and review and approve the annual plan for the internal audit department, as well as summary reports of such department's findings and recommendations. The Audit Committee's responsibilities are set forth in its Charter, a copy of which is attached to this Proxy Statement as Exhibit A. The Audit Committee Report on the Company's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003 is located on page 6. The current members of the Audit Committee are independent, as defined by Rules of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (NASD). The Audit Committee held 4 meetings in 2003.

The Compensation Committee of Southeastern Bank is responsible for approving the compensation arrangements for the Company's executive officers. The current members of the Compensation Committee are Messrs. Holland and Hopkins and bank-only directors Archie C. Davis, Jr., Lawrence F. Jacobs, and A. Wade Strickland. Mr. Holland is a non-voting member of the Committee. The Compensation Committee held 2 meetings during 2003.

Messrs. Bluestein, Holland, and Mrs. Beasley serve on the Board of Directors of SBC Financial Services, Inc., the Company's subsidiary which formerly offered insurance agent and investment brokerage services but is now inactive. Three meetings were held by the SBC Financial Services, Inc. Board in 2003.

In December 2003, the Company formed a Nominating Committee to advise the Board with respect to matters of Board composition and procedures. The committee does not have a charter formally governing the nomination process. To date, all director nominees have been identified by current directors or management. The Company has never engaged a third party to identify director candidates, and the Company has never received a proposed director candidate from a source outside the Company. However, the Board would consider any director candidate proposed in good faith by a shareholder of the Company. To do so, a shareholder should send the candidate's name, credentials, contact information, and his or her consent to be considered as a candidate to the Secretary of the Company. The Nominating Committee will evaluate candidates based on financial literacy, knowledge of the Company's industry or other background relevant to the Company's needs, status as a stakeholder in the Company, independence for purposes of compliance with the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and NASD, and willingness, ability, and availability for service. Messrs. Blair, Bluestein, and Hopkins, all of whom are considered independent, are the current members of the Nominating Committee. The Nominating Committee held no meetings in 2003 and did not recommend any new candidates for the Board.

The Building and Nominating Committee of Southeastern Bank, which was formed in October 2003, is responsible for overseeing the director nomination process for the bank subsidiary board. The procedures governing the nomination process mirror those of the Company. During 2003, the Building and Nominating Committee recommended, and the Board approved, the election of Jerry W. Harper, a local certified public accountant, to the Southeastern Bank Board. Mr. Harper was identified as a director candidate by the Chief Executive Officer of the Company based on criteria specified in the preceding paragraph. Messrs. Bluestein and Hopkins as well as various other bank-only directors serve on the Building and Nominating Committee. This committee held one meeting during 2003.

The Company expects, but does not require, directors to attend the Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Seven directors attended the Annual Meeting held in 2003.

PROPOSAL THREE APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS

Edgar Filing: SOUTHEASTERN BANKING CORP - Form DEF 14A

Subject to approval by a majority of the shares represented at the Meeting, the Audit Committee shall be given authority to appoint the auditors of the Company for 2004. The Audit Committee considers a number of factors in making its appointment, including audit continuity, proposed audit scope, and estimated fees. The Board expects that the Audit Committee will appoint Mauldin & Jenkins, LLC (M&J) as the Company's independent auditors for 2004. Services provided to the Company and its subsidiaries by Mauldin & Jenkins for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003 included the examination of the Company's consolidated financial statements, review of quarterly reports, and limited scope audit of the Company's profit-sharing plan. M&J has audited the Company's financial statements for the two most recent fiscal years. The Board unanimously recommends a vote FOR this proposal.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee of the Board has oversight responsibility for the Company's financial reporting process and the quality of its financial reporting. In connection with the December 31, 2003

financial statements, the Audit Committee:

- 1) Reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements with management, who represented to the Committee that the Company's consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles;
- 2) Discussed with M&J the matters required by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communications with Audit Committees);
- 3) Received the written independence disclosures from M&J required by Independence Standards Board No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and discussed with M&J their independence; and
- 4) Discussed with M&J the quality of the Company's financial reporting.

Based upon these reviews and discussions, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003 for filing with the SEC.

Submitted by the Audit Committee:

Alva J. Hopkins, III, Chairman

Gene F. Brannen

G. Norris Johnson

OTHER DIRECTOR AND EXECUTIVE OFFICER INFORMATION

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

Mr. Holland, who is currently President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and its two subsidiaries, served as a non-voting member of the Compensation Committee during 2003. Mr. Downey, who served as Treasurer of the Company in 2003 but received no salary or other remuneration besides director's fees for serving in that capacity, also served on the Compensation Committee during 2003.

During 2003, the Company's bank subsidiary engaged in customary banking transactions and had outstanding loans to certain directors, executive officers, principal shareholders, and their affiliates, including members of immediate families, of the Company and its subsidiaries. These loans were made in the ordinary course of business on substantially the same terms and conditions, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the same time for comparable transactions with other customers and did not, in the opinion of management, involve more than normal credit risk or present other unfavorable features. Such persons are expected to continue these transactions in the future. Additionally, in the ordinary course of business, the Company buys goods and services from directors who are not employees. During 2003, the Company paid Golden Isles Realty Company, a real estate company affiliated with Mr. Downey, a $60,000 brokerage commission in conjunction with a real estate purchase in Brunswick, Georgia. Other purchases of goods and services from directors were not material during 2003.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

To the Company's knowledge, based solely on a review of the copies of 16(a) reports furnished to the Company during fiscal year 2003, all directors, executive officers, and 10% shareholders complied with all Section 16(a) filing requirements except Mr. Holland was three days late in reporting a purchase of 4,819 shares and Mr. Downey did not timely disclose a gift of 800 shares.
