NEWTON FINANCIAL CORPORATION

AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO UNAUDITED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Newton Financial Corporation (the Company) and its 99.96 percent owned subsidiary, The Newton Trust Company (the Bank), as well as its wholly owned subsidiary, Park Place Investment Co., Inc. All significant intercompany transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

The unaudited consolidated condensed financial statements included herein have been prepared without audit pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America have been condensed or omitted pursuant to such rules and regulations. The accompanying consolidated financial statements reflect all adjustments which are, in the opinion of management, necessary to a fair statement of the results for the interim periods presented. Such adjustments are of a normal recurring nature. These consolidated unaudited financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements and the notes thereto as of and for the year ended December 31, 2003. The results for the three months ended March 31, 2004 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending December 31, 2004.

Nature of Operations

The Company provides a variety of banking services to individuals and businesses through its ten offices in northwest New Jersey. Its primary source of revenue is interest on loans to customers who are individuals and small to mid-sized businesses, and interest on investments in debt securities of primarily federal and local governments and their related agencies as well as high rated corporate debt securities.

Basis of Financial Presentation

The unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. In preparing the unaudited consolidated financial statements, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities as of the date of the consolidated statement of financial condition and revenue and expenses for the quarter. Actual results could differ significantly from those estimates.

Material estimates that are particularly susceptible to significant change in the near term related to the determination of the allowance for loan losses. In connection with the determination of the allowance for loan losses, management generally obtains independent appraisals for significant properties.

Investment Securities

Trading Securities - Securities that are held for short-term resale are classified as trading account securities and recorded at their fair values. Realized and unrealized gains and losses on trading account securities, if any, are included in other income.

Securities Held-to-Maturity - Government and federal agency securities that management has the positive intent and ability to hold to maturity are reported at cost, adjusted for amortization of premiums and accretion of discounts that are recognized in interest income using methods approximating the interest method over the period to maturity.

Note 1 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (Cont d)

Securities Available-for-Sale - Available-for-sale securities consist of investment securities not classified as trading securities nor as held-to-maturity securities. Unrealized holding gains and losses on available-for-sale securities are reported net of tax as a separate component of stockholders' equity until realized. Gains and losses on the sale of available-for-sale securities are determined using the specific-identification method. The amortization of premiums and the accretion of discounts are recognized in interest income using methods approximating the interest method over the period to maturity.

Declines in the fair value of individual held-to-maturity and available-for-sale securities below their cost that are other than temporary result in write-downs of the individual securities to their fair value. The related write-downs are included in earnings as realized losses.

Note 2 - Subsequent Event

After receiving regulatory approval and following the approval of the majority of shareholders of Newton Financial Corporation and Lakeland Bancorp, Inc., Lakeland Bancorp, Inc., completed the acquisition of Newton Financial Corporation on July 1, 2004.

Note 4 - Stock-Based Compensation

The Company follows the disclosure requirements of SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, and SFAS No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation Transition and Disclosure, but elected to continue to measure compensation expense in accordance with Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees. Entities that continue to account for stock options using APB Opinion No. 25 are required to make pro forma disclosures of net income and earnings per share, as if the fair value-based method of accounting defined in SFAS No. 123 and 148 had been applied. Had the Company followed the methodology in SFAS No. 123 net income would have been adjusted to the pro forma amounts indicated below:

Note 5 - Pension Plan

On March 31, 2004, the Company elected to freeze the benefits of the Company's defined benefit pension plan. There was no effect to the Company's financial position or results of operations as a result of freezing the plan.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Introduction

The following unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information gives effect to the Merger under the purchase method of accounting. These pro forma statements are presented for illustrative purposes only. The pro forma adjustments are based upon available information and assumptions that we believe are reasonable. The pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements do not purport to represent what the consolidated results of operations or financial position of Lakeland would actually have been if the Merger had in fact occurred on the dates that we refer to below, nor do they purport to project the results of operations or financial position of Lakeland for any future period or as of any date.

Under the purchase method of accounting, tangible and identifiable intangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed are recorded at their estimated fair market values. The excess of the purchase price, including estimated fees and expenses related to the Merger, over the net assets acquired is classified as goodwill on the accompanying unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet.

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2004, was prepared by combining the consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2004 for Lakeland with the consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2004 for Newton, giving effect to the Merger as though it had been completed on March 31, 2004.

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statements of operations for the periods presented were prepared by combining Lakeland's consolidated statements of operations for the three months ended March 31, 2004 and the year ended December 31, 2003 with Newton's consolidated statements of operations for the same periods, giving effect to the Merger as though it had occurred on January 1 of each period. These unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements do not give effect to any restructuring costs or to any potential cost savings or other operating efficiencies that could result from the Merger.

The historical financial information regarding Lakeland for the year ended December 31, 2003 has been derived from the audited consolidated financial statements of Lakeland filed previously by Lakeland with the SEC as part of Lakeland's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003. The historical financial information regarding Lakeland for the three months ended March 31, 2004 has been derived from the unaudited consolidated financial statements of Lakeland filed previously by Lakeland with the SEC as part of Lakeland's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2004. The historical financial information regarding Newton for the year ended December 31, 2003 has been derived from the audited consolidated financial statements of Newton included in the Initial Report. The historical financial information regarding Newton for the three months ended March 31, 2004 has been derived from unaudited consolidated financial statements of Newton set forth in this amendment to the Initial Report.

NOTES TO PRO FORMA UNAUDITED COMBINED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Basis of Presentation

The unaudited pro forma combined balance sheet as of March 31, 2004 and the pro forma combined consolidated statements of income for the year ended December 31, 2003 and the three months ended March 31, 2004, combine the historical financial statements of Lakeland Bancorp with Newton Financial Corporation after giving effect to the merger using the purchase method of accounting. Pro forma adjustments to the balance sheet are computed as if the transaction occurred at March 31, 2004, while the pro forma adjustments to the statements of operations are computed as if the transaction occurred on January 1 of each period presented. The merger is accounted for as a purchase. Under this method of accounting, assets and liabilities of Newton are adjusted to their estimated fair value and combined with the recorded book values of the assets and liabilities of Lakeland. Applicable income tax effects of such adjustments are included as a component of Lakeland's net deferred tax asset with a corresponding offset to goodwill.

For purposes of the unaudited pro forma combined consolidated financial statements, estimates of the fair value of Newton's assets and liabilities as of June 30, 2004 have been combined with the recorded values of the assets and liabilities of Lakeland. Fair value adjustments are subject to update as Lakeland is currently in the process of obtaining appraisals and fair value evaluations for Newton's assets and liabilities.

Note 2. Purchase Price

The purchase price is based on Newton's shareholders having had the right to elect to receive Lakeland common shares at the rate of 4.5 shares of Lakeland stock for each share of Newton stock or $72.08 in cash for each of their shares. The agreement provides that up to 25% of the transaction may be paid in cash. Based on the final allocation, the total consideration to Newton shareholders in connection with the merger is calculated as follows (in thousands except share data):

Lakeland stock to be issued	4,825,000
Market price per share of Lakeland common stock	$ 15.75
	<hr/>
Total market value of Lakeland common stock to be issued	75,994
Exchange of stock options (13,591 of Newton converted to 61,160 of Lakeland)	519
Total cash to be distributed to shareholders electing cash	20,560
	<hr/>
Total purchase price of Newton	$ 97,073
	<hr/>

The purchase price of the merger was funded in part by the issuance of $25 million in trust preferred debt at a rate of 7.61% per annum on December 15, 2003. The trust preferred issuance is included in Lakeland's Balance Sheet in Subordinated Debentures.

Note 2a. Elimination of Newton equity as a result of combination

Note 3. Transaction costs and integration expenses

The Company's management anticipates, based upon preliminary plans and estimates, that approximately $2.3 million of costs related to severance, professional fees, printing and other restructuring charges will be incurred in connection with the merger and will be included as part of the allocation of the purchase price of Newton.

The estimated transaction costs expected to be incurred are as follows (in thousands):

Estimated expenses related to the merger
Consulting Fees	$ 697
Legal Fees	342
Severance	365
Printing	60
Accounting	151
Other	670
	$ 2,285

Note 4. Total goodwill due to the merger (in thousands)

Total purchase price	$ 97,073
Total estimated transaction costs to be incurred	2,285
Total common stockholders' equity of Newton	(34,459)
Core deposit intangible, net of taxes $1,980	(3,678)
Securities Held-to-Maturity, net of taxes of $359	(667)
Fair value of loans, net of taxes of $318	(590)
Fair value of FHLB borrowings net of taxes of $23	(43)
	$ 59,921

The premium on held-to-maturity securities, loans, time deposits and the Federal Home Loan Bank debt will be amortized over the average lives of the corresponding assets as a yield adjustment. The core deposit intangible of $5.7 million will be amortized over the estimated period of benefit on a straight line basis.

Note 5. Purchase accounting adjustments

Adjustments are made to reflect the recording of intangibles in accordance with the purchase method of accounting. Purchase accounting adjustments will be recorded on a gross basis with related adjustments to Lakeland's net deferred tax asset as follows (in thousands):

	Gross impact	Net of Income Tax effect	Quarterly (Income) Expense Effect	Annual (Income) Expense Effect
Investment securities held to maturity*	$ 1,026	$ 667	$ 56	$ 225
Investment securities available for sale*			85	341

Tax effect	(2,680)		(150)	(599)
Totals	$ 4,978	$ 4,978	$ 277	$ 1,111

* Net unrealized gains on securities held to maturity of $1,026,000 and net unrealized gains on securities available for sale of $521,000 are amortized over the remaining life of the securities. There is no balance sheet impact of the net unrealized losses on investment securities available for sale, since the the unrealized loss is already included in Newton's balance sheet.

Note 6. Other assets

Adjustments to other assets are as follows (in thousands):

Deferred tax asset resulting from:
Core deposit intangible	$ 1,980
Loan premium	318
Held-to-Maturity securities	359
Premium on FHLB debt	23
	$ 2,680
