1. To elect four directors. The Company's Board of Directors has nominated each of Robert J. Campbell, Ward I. Graffam, John W. Holmes and Winfield F. Robinson to serve as directors of the Company until the 2008 Annual Meeting and until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified;

3. To consider and act upon such other business, matters or proposals as may properly come before the Annual Meeting.

The Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on March 15, 2005 as the record date for determining the shareholders of the Company entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting (the Record Date). Only shareholders of record of the Company's common stock at the close of business on the Record Date are entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. PROXY STATEMENT

Annual Meeting of Shareholders

to be held April 26, 2005

GENERAL INFORMATION

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Camden National Corporation, a Maine corporation (the "Company"), for use at the 2005 Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Company to be held on Tuesday, April 26, 2005 at 3:00 p.m., local time, at the Camden National Corporation Hanley Center, Fox Ridge Office Park, Route One, Rockport, Maine 04856 and any adjournments or postponements thereof (the "Annual Meeting"). Only shareholders of record as of March 15, 2005 (the "Record Date") will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting. Each share is entitled to cast one vote for each of the four nominees to the Company's Board of Directors and to cast one vote on each of the other matters to be voted on at the Annual Meeting. Cumulative voting is not permitted. As of the Record Date, 7,643,117 shares of the Company's common stock, no par value ("Common Stock"), were outstanding and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

The Company will bear the cost of soliciting proxies. In addition to use of the mails, proxies may be solicited personally or by telephone or telegraph by the Company's directors and officers who will not be specially compensated for such solicitation. The Company has engaged American Stock Transfer and Trust Company ("AST&T"), its transfer agent, to solicit proxies held by brokers and nominees for a fee of $300 plus reimbursement for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in the solicitation of proxies. Brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries will be requested to forward these soliciting materials to their principals and the Company will, upon request, reimburse them for their reasonable expenses of doing so. AST&T's transfer books will remain open between the Record Date and the date of the Annual Meeting.

The Notice of Annual Meeting, Proxy Statement and Proxy Card were first mailed to the Company's shareholders on or about March 25, 2005 to solicit proxies for the Annual Meeting. Any shareholder giving a proxy has the right to revoke it at any time before it is exercised; therefore, the delivery of an executed Proxy Card will not in any way affect a shareholder's right to attend the Annual Meeting and vote in person. Revocation may be made prior to the Annual Meeting by written revocation or duly executed Proxy Card bearing a later date sent to the Company, Attention: Arthur E. Strout, Secretary, Two Elm Street, Camden, Maine 04843; or a proxy may be revoked personally at the Annual Meeting by written notice to the Secretary at the Annual Meeting prior to the voting of the proxy. In the absence of specific instructions to the contrary, shares represented by properly executed proxies received by the Company, including unmarked proxies, will be voted to (a) elect the nominees to the Company's Board of Directors described herein, (b) ratify the selection of Berry, Dunn, McNeil & Parker as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for 2005 and (c) consider and act upon such other business, matters or proposals as may properly come before the Annual Meeting.

The holders of one-third of the total number of outstanding shares of Common Stock, present in person or by proxy, are required for a quorum at the Annual Meeting. If a quorum is present at the Annual Meeting, a simple majority of shares voted is required to elect each of the four directors and to ratify the selection of Berry, Dunn, McNeil & Parker as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for 2005. The inspector of election will treat abstentions as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, but not for purposes of voting with respect to determining the approval of any matter submitted to the shareholders for a vote. If a broker indicates on the Proxy Card that it does not have discretionary authority as to certain shares to vote on a particular matter, those shares will be considered as present for purposes of determining a quorum but not for purposes of voting with respect to that matter.

PRINCIPAL SHAREHOLDERS

As of the Record Date, there were 7,643,117 shares of Common Stock outstanding, held of record by approximately 944 shareholders. Only shareholders of record as of the Record Date shall be entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting and each share is entitled to one vote.

Board of Directors and its Committees

Board of Directors. During the major portion of 2004, the Company was managed by a 10-member board, a majority of whom meet the independence standards established by the American Stock Exchange. The Board of Directors of the Company held 12 regular meetings, and one Annual Meeting during 2004. Each of the directors attended at least 75% of the total number of meetings of the Company's Board and meetings of the committees of the Company Board that he or she was eligible to attend. Although we do not have a formal policy regarding attendance by members of the Board of Directors at Annual Meetings of stockholders, we expect that our directors will attend, even though we recognize that directors occasionally may be unable to attend for personal or professional reasons. We generally hold a meeting of the Board on the same date as the annual stockholders meeting. In both 2004 and 2003, nine of our directors attended our annual stockholders meeting.

The Company's Board of Directors has standing audit, retirement plan administration, compensation, capital planning, and governance committees.

Audit Committee. The members of the Company's Audit Committee consisted of Richard N. Simoneau, CPA, Chairman; Robert J. Campbell; John W. Holmes; and Robin A. Sawyer, CPA. This committee met nine times during 2004. The Company's Audit Committee receives and reviews reports on examinations and accounting audits of the Company, and works to ensure the adequacy of operating practices, procedures and controls. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter, a copy of which is available on the Company's websites at www.camdennational.com and www.unitedkingfield.com.

Retirement Plan Administration Committee. The members of the Company's Retirement Plan Administration Committee consisted of John W. Holmes, Chairman; Robert W. Daigle; Ward I. Graffam; Theodore C. Johanson and Winfield F. Robinson. This committee reviews all matters relating to the retirement plans offered to the employees of the Company and each of its subsidiaries.

Compensation Committee. The Company's Compensation Committee, which met nine times during 2004, consisted of Ward I. Graffam, Chairman; John W. Holmes; Rendle A. Jones; Winfield F. Robinson and Richard N. Simoneau, CPA. Mr. Graffam, in his roles as Chairman of MEMIC and executive committee member of Northeast Health, serves those organizations on compensation matters in a similar manner; none of the members of this committee served on a similar committee for any other company besides subsidiaries of the Company. The function of this committee is to oversee and review personnel relations, salary administration, training programs, officer selection, management succession and fringe benefits. The Compensation Committee operates under a written charter, a copy of which is available on the Company's websites at www.camdennational.com and www.unitedkingfield.com.

Capital Planning. The Company's Capital Planning Committee consisted of Robert J. Campbell, Chairman; Robert W. Daigle and Rendle A. Jones. This committee oversees capital adequacy for the Company and its affiliates and coordinates capital generation and deployment activities.

Governance Committee. The Governance Committee is responsible for making recommendations to the Board of Directors of persons to serve as directors of the Company and as chairmen and members of committees of the Board of Directors. The Governance Committee is also responsible for certain corporate governance practices, including the development of ethical conduct standards for our directors, officers and employees and an annual evaluation to determine whether the Board of Directors and its committees are functioning effectively. The Governance Committee operates under a written charter, a copy of which is available on the Company's websites at www.camdennational.com and www.unitedkingfield.com.

The members of the Governance Committee are Rendle A. Jones, Chairman; Ward I. Graffam; Theodore C. Johanson and Arthur E. Strout, each of whom the Board of Directors has determined to be independent under the new listing standards adopted by the American Stock Exchange. The Governance Committee held four meetings during 2004.

The Governance Committee expects to identify nominees to serve as directors of the Company primarily by accepting and considering the suggestions and nominee recommendations made by directors, management and stockholders. To date, our Governance Committee has not engaged any third parties to assist it in identifying candidates for the Board of Directors. The Governance Committee has established minimum qualifications for recommended nominees that include evaluating nominees for directors based on their integrity, judgment, independence, financial and business acumen, relevant experience and their ability to represent and act on behalf of all stockholders, as well as the needs of the Board of Directors. In general, the Governance Committee would expect to re-nominate incumbent directors who express an interest in continuing to serve on the Board.

Executive Compensation

Retirement Plans

The Company has a 401(k) Plan and the majority of employees participate in the Plan. Employees may contribute pre-tax savings contributions to the Plan up to the maximum amount allowed by federal tax laws. The Company makes matching contributions of up to 4% of their compensation and may make additional contributions subject to the discretion of the Board of Directors.

The Company also maintains a nonqualified, noncontributory, defined-benefit, supplemental executive retirement program (the SERP) for certain highly compensated employees. Current active participants in the SERP receive upon retirement a life annuity based on years of service times 65% of that participant's average salary and bonus for the 36 months of employment by the Company during which the participant's compensation was highest, reduced by the following amounts: (a) 50% of the participant's projected primary Social Security benefits; (b) the portion of the participant's benefits under the 401(k) plan arising from employer contributions; and (c) the participant's benefits under any other

The agreement also provides for a 15-year guaranteed benefit upon death. As of January 1, 2004, the years of service in the benefit calculation was changed from a 25-year maximum to unlimited and at the same time a total retirement benefit cap of 75% was instituted for participants when years of service exceed 25 years.

The SERP table on the following page illustrates annual retirement benefits payable from the SERP for life, assuming retirement in 2004 at age 65, for various levels of Final Average Compensation and Years of Service with the Company.

Director Compensation

Edgar Filing: CAMDEN NATIONAL CORP - Form DEF 14A

Directors who are also employees of the Company do not receive any compensation for serving as directors or as members of committees. Directors who are not employees of the Company received a $625 monthly retainer (audit committee chairman $775), $600 for attendance at each regular meeting of the Board of Directors and $325 for attendance at each meeting of a committee (audit committee $500) of the Board of Directors. In addition, the Chairman of the Company's Board of Directors received an annual retainer of $7,500. No additional fees were paid for membership on, or attendance at, meetings of the Board of Directors or any committees of the Board of Directors.

Director compensation is paid monthly to those directors who do not defer their compensation. Any director of the Company may defer up to 100% of his or her fees and retainer in any calendar year. If a director elects to defer his or her compensation, the Company automatically credits the deferred amounts to an account designated for such purposes for that director. Quarterly, the values of the deferred accounts are adjusted based on the current market value of the Company's stock for those directors electing this option. Deferred director's fees are paid to participants in a deferral plan, or their designated beneficiaries, upon their termination as a director.

Most directors of the Company are also directors of one or more of the Company's subsidiary companies and, as such, receive compensation for their respective responsibilities from those entities as well.

Employment and Change of Control Agreements

Mr. Daigle. The Company has entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Daigle (the executive) that covers a term commencing on May 4, 2004 and expiring on the close of business on May 5, 2006 (the Initial Employment Term); provided, however, the term of the executive's employment by the Company shall continue for an indefinite period thereafter unless and until either party shall give to the other party 90 days advance written notice of expiration of the term.

The employment agreement provides, among other things, for (i) an annual base salary of $310,000; (ii) insurance and other benefits, and (iii) in the event of (A) a termination by the Company without cause, or (B) by expiration of the employment term pursuant to a notice of termination during the employment term, or (C) a termination by the executive for good reason (limited to a breach by the Company of a material provision of this agreement, or a change in control) during the employment term, aggregate payments (made according to the Company's regular payroll schedule) equal to twice the executive's annual salary then in effect, as well as continued insurance and benefits (except profit sharing) during such two-year period.

The employment agreement includes a provision for termination of the executive for cause, whereupon payments and benefits cease. The employment agreement also includes certain non-solicitation and non-competition provisions, which cover the initial employment term and the two-year period thereafter.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Compensation Committee consisted of Ward I. Graffam, Chairman; John W. Holmes; Rendle A. Jones; Winfield F. Robinson and Richard N. Simoneau, CPA. There were no compensation committee interlocks and no insider participation in compensation decisions during the year-ended December 31, 2004 that are required to be reported under the rules and regulations of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Members of the Company's Compensation Committee and their affiliates and families are borrowers from the Company's subsidiaries. All loans and credit commitments to such persons were made in the ordinary course of business and were on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with unaffiliated persons, and did not involve more than the normal risk of collectibility or present other unfavorable features to the Company's subsidiaries.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

Edgar Filing: CAMDEN NATIONAL CORP - Form DEF 14A

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Camden National Corporation discharges the Board's responsibilities relating to compensation of the Company's directors and executives, and oversees the Company's overall compensation programs.

Compensation Philosophy and Objectives. The primary objective of the Compensation Committee is to develop and implement compensation policies and plans that are:

designed to provide competitive total compensation that aligns executives' interests with the Company's short and long term plans, performance based and designed to motivate the Company's executives toward the goal of enhancing enduring shareholder value, and appropriate for the Company in light of all relevant circumstances.

Executive Compensation. The executive compensation program is an integral part of an overall management strategy that enables the Company to attract, retain and motivate executives who have the backgrounds and capabilities to reach the short- and long-term fiscal targets in the operating and strategic plans. Specifically:

Overall executive compensation will be targeted in the top 50% of peer group financial institutions (selected based on asset size and similar financial performance).

The composition of the package is continually reviewed and appropriate adjustments are made as recommended by the Compensation Committee and ultimately approved by the full Board of Directors.

Elements of the package may include:

Base salaries, benefits and periodic adjustments, contingent on movements in the marketplace and the contribution made by participating executives, as assessed by the Compensation Committee.

Annual cash incentive awards, made for attaining specific fiscal targets, as determined by the Compensation Committee, and accomplishing predetermined personal objectives by participants. Starting in 2002, executive officers participated in a non-qualified incentive program where they are eligible to receive 4% to 80% of annual salary provided targets are achieved.

Longer-term cash awards, performance-justified by the provision of incremental earnings and shareholder value.

Equity participation, made available through competitive practice and the demonstrated proficiency on the part of the executive. The value ultimately received by participants will be contingent on the market value created for other shareholders.

Deferred compensation opportunities, to provide a means for creating future values to augment retirement benefits. In 2004 Mr. Daigle, Ms. Campbell, Mr. McAvoy and Ms. Westfall participated in the Deferred Compensation Program, which allows for the deferral of up to 100% of the executive's base salary and incentive compensation.

Income replacement at retirement, largely dependent on participation in the 401(k) plan and the performance of that program. The following executive officers participate in the 401(k) plan: Ms. Bouchard, Ms. Campbell, Mr. Daigle, Mr. Dufour, Mr. McAvoy and Ms. Westfall. As a basic guideline, executives who have been with the Company for a reasonable period should be able to replace 65% of final compensation at retirement when considering the Company-sponsored part of Social Security, 401(k) match and Profit Sharing contributions. To the extent that there is a shortfall in targeted income replacement levels, executives may be eligible for a non-qualified supplemental executive retirement plan to bring actual awards up to desired levels (see Retirement Plan section).

Other perquisites, may be provided to executives as a result of their roles and to round out the compensation package.

In structuring specific plans under each of these important elements, emphasis is heavily weighted on performance. By design, executives should be able to increase the overall levels of their compensation by producing fiscal results that ultimately enhance shareholder value.

Performance Measures

There are several performance measures used in evaluating the compensation of the Company's executive officers. In addition to using state and national banking surveys, the Company considers specific performance of the executive officer. Each executive officer has an annual performance evaluation conducted by an individual in the next level of management, and the Company's Compensation Committee reviews the performance of the Company's Chief Executive Officer. In addition, in 2004 a number of executive officers participated in a 360 Degree Review of their performance and leadership qualities by his/her manager, peers, and subordinates, and prepared a development plan based on the feedback received. The performance of the Company as a whole and the financial plan for the ensuing year in particular are guiding factors in establishing appropriate levels of executive officer compensation; however, other general factors such as the business climate and the evaluation of the executive officer, are also taken into consideration in determining appropriate levels of executive officer compensation. It is a central aim of the Company's Compensation Committee to ensure that each of the Company's executive officers is appropriately compensated for his or her contribution to the Company, knowing that the contribution directly affects the Company and its shareholders.

Stock Option Plan

An additional component of compensation for key Company employees is the award of options to purchase shares of Common Stock at fixed prices. The Company's 2003 Stock Option and Incentive Plan, which expires in 2013, is based on performance in that the options only have value if the market value of Common Stock increases. The Company awarded 10,000 options under this plan during 2004 that have a five-year vesting schedule.

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer

The Company's Compensation Committee annually reviews the Chief Executive Officer's existing compensation arrangements, in light of the performance of the Company and the Chief Executive Officer, and in comparison to the compensation of chief executive officers in other similar companies of comparable size and performance characteristics.

The compensation for the Company's Chief Executive Officer is divided into two basic categories: (a) salary and benefits, and (b) executive incentive compensation.

In past years the salary of the Company's Chief Executive Officer has been increased based upon performance of the Company in those previous years. The salary level selected must be within the salary range for chief executive officers in other similar companies of comparable size and performance characteristics. The Company's human resources department conducts a study of the salary ranges of chief executive officers in other similar companies of comparable size (from published compensation surveys and information provided by selected compensation consultants), and provides its results to the Company's Compensation Committee along with supporting data and a suggested salary range for the year. The base salary for the Company's Chief Executive Officer for 2004 was increased by 3.3% from $300,000 in 2003 to $310,000 in 2004, as a result of this analysis.

The second part of the annual compensation program for the Company's Chief Executive Officer is based upon the executive incentive compensation program, which applies to all executive officers. The 2004 executive incentive compensation program resulted in a 32% bonus, as a percentage of base salary, for the Company's Chief Executive Officer based on the achievement of financial objectives, as determined by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors at the beginning of 2004.

During 2003 and 2002 the compensation program for the Company's Chief Executive Officer also included director's fees, based on the fee schedule for all directors, excluding the Chairman. Starting in 2004, inside directors no longer receive compensation for their role as a director.

Edgar Filing: CAMDEN NATIONAL CORP - Form DEF 14A

The total compensation package for the Company's Chief Executive Officer is competitive with the compensation programs provided by other similar companies of comparable size and performance characteristics. Moreover, the Company's Compensation Committee believes that it has set compensation at levels that reflect the contributions the Company's Chief Executive Officer has made toward the Company's success and achievement of objectives.
