INTER-TEL ANNOUNCES EXPIRATION OF HART-SCOTT-RODINO WAITING PERIOD

TEMPE, Arizona June 12, 2007: Inter-Tel (Delaware), Incorporated (NASDAQ: INTL) today announced the expiration of the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act statutory antitrust waiting period for the pending merger of Inter-Tel and a wholly owned acquisition subsidiary of Mitel Networks Corporation. The expiration satisfies a condition to the closing of the merger, and no further antitrust approvals are required to complete the merger. The companies continue to expect the transaction will close in early July 2007, subject to other customary conditions, including approval by Inter-Tel stockholders at a special meeting of stockholders scheduled for June 29, 2007. As previously announced, the Mitel merger agreement provides for Mitel to acquire all outstanding shares of Inter-Tel for $25.60 per share in cash.

Inter-Tel CEO Norman Stout said, "Expiration of the waiting period without a second request for information represents a significant milestone towards the completion of our combination with Mitel. We remain on schedule to close the transaction in early July, and deliver the considerable benefits of this transaction to our stockholders, employees and customers."

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as amended, concerning the pending acquisition of Inter-Tel by Mitel. Forward-looking statements are statements in the future tense or that include words such as intends, believe, expect, proposed, anticipates and words of similar import.

Forward-looking statements are based on assumptions, suppositions and uncertainties, as well as on management's best possible evaluation of future events. However, actual results may differ materially from those reflected in forward-looking statements based on a number of factors, many of which are beyond the control of Inter-Tel. Such factors may include, without excluding other considerations, fluctuations in quarterly results, evolution in customer demand for Inter-Tel's products and services, risks associated with the proposed acquisition by Mitel, including that the proposed Mitel acquisition does not close, the impact of price pressures exerted by competitors, and general market trends or economic changes.
