Price-Sensitive Information

Estimated Increase in Results

Sinopec Shanghai Petrochemical Company Limited (the Company) and all members of the board of directors warrant that the information contained in this announcement is truthful, accurate and complete, and that there are no false statements or misleading representations contained in, or material omissions from, this announcement.

1. Estimates on the results

(I) Reporting period for the estimates on the results: 1 January 2007 to 31 December 2007

(II) Estimates on the results: According to the estimates of the Accounting Department of the Company, the Company is expected to record an increase of more than 50% in the net profit for the year 2007 over the corresponding period of the previous year. Specific details will be disclosed in the 2007 annual report of the Company.

(III) The estimates on the results mentioned herein have not been reviewed or audited by certified accountants.

2. Results for the corresponding period of the previous year (not adjusted according to the new accounting rules)

| | Under the People's Republic of China Accounting Rules and Regulations | Under the International Financial Reporting Standards |
|--------------------------|--|--|
| Net profit (RMB '000) | 736,851 | 844,407 |
| Earnings per share (RMB) | 0.102 | 0.117 |

3. Explanation for the change in results

Owing to a year-on-year decrease in crude oil processing costs of the Company and an increase in investment gains in the first half of 2007, the 2007 interim results reported a substantial increase over the corresponding period of the previous year. Accordingly, the Company is expected to record an increase of more than 50% year-on-year for its 2007 annual results.

4. Explanation for other conditions

In the second half of 2007, particularly the fourth quarter, the crude oil processing costs of the Company increased substantially due to a persistent surge in international crude oil prices. Meanwhile, adjustments in domestic petroleum product prices were not sufficient because of the State's price control measures. Accordingly, the oil processing operation of the Company recorded a substantial loss and led to a loss in the Company's results for the second half.

Investors are advised to pay attention to the investment risks involved.
