Our Offer For Rio Tinto

History of the offer

BHP Billiton approached Rio Tinto on 1 November 2007 with a proposal to combine the two companies. We put before the Board of Rio Tinto a very substantial implied premium to the market value of Rio Tinto at that time.

Subsequently following significant market speculation, on 12 November 2007 we publicly announced our proposal to combine both Rio Tinto and BHP Billiton to create an unparalleled global resources company with the ability to create significant synergies and value for shareholders.

Extensive consultations with the shareholders and stakeholders of both Rio Tinto and BHP Billiton following this announcement indicated a clear understanding of the logic of the combination.

On 6 February 2008 BHP Billiton formalised its proposal by making a pre-conditional offer to Rio Tinto shareholders to combine Rio Tinto with BHP Billiton by offering 3.4 BHP Billiton shares for each Rio Tinto share.

Overview of the offer

BHP Billiton's offer provides Rio Tinto shareholders with:

A fixed exchange ratio of 3.4 BHP Billiton shares for each Rio Tinto share

A premium of 45 per cent based on the volume weighted average market values of Rio Tinto and BHP Billiton companies for the month up to the date of the original proposal; and

The opportunity for Rio Tinto shareholders to share in the merger benefits from continued ownership.
BHP Billiton also proposes a buyback of up to US$30bn within one year of completion of the transaction if BHP Billiton acquires 100% of the Rio Tinto plc and Rio Tinto Ltd shares on the current 3.4 for one offer terms.

Benefits of the offer for BHP Billiton shareholders

The Board of BHP Billiton believes that the combination of BHP Billiton and Rio Tinto is value enhancing for BHP Billiton shareholders.

In creating the world's premier diversified natural resources company BHP Billiton shareholders would benefit from:
