Safe Harbor Statement under Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995

This Current Report on Form 8-K includes forward-looking statements that reflect the current views of Warner Music Group Corp. about future events and financial performance. Words such as estimates, expects, anticipates, projects, plans, intends, believes, forecasts and various such words or similar expressions that predict or indicate future events or trends, or that do not relate to historical matters, identify forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements are made as of today, and we disclaim any duty to update such statements. Our expectations, beliefs and projections are expressed in good faith and we believe there is a reasonable basis for them. However, there can be no assurance that management's expectations, beliefs and projections will result or be achieved. Investors should not rely on forward-looking statements, because they are subject to a variety of risks, uncertainties, and other factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from our expectations. Please refer to our Form 10-Q and our other filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission concerning factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in our forward-looking statements.
