If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate).

- (a) The reason described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;

PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On May 4, 2012, Great Wolf Resorts, Inc. (the Company) merged with K-9 Acquisition, Inc., a Delaware corporation, with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation and becoming an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of K-9 Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Merger).

As a result of the Merger, the Company's financial results are subject to purchase accounting adjustments including, without limitation, the accounting treatment of the Company's deferred taxes. Although the Company has devoted substantial time and effort to incorporate the purchase accounting adjustments into the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended June 30, 2012 (the Form 10-Q), the Company has not completed its purchase accounting and has determined that it is unable to file the Form 10-Q by the prescribed due date without unreasonable effort or expense. In addition, as part of this process, the Company has identified an error in its previously issued predecessor financial statements related to valuation allowances on its deferred taxes. The Company is still in the process of assessing this error and its implications on previously filed financial statements. However, the Company does not expect the adjustments that correct such error to affect its revenues, net operating income, cash flows, cash balances, EBITDA or Adjusted EBITDA as previously disclosed in its periodic reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC). The Company intends to file the Form 10-Q with the SEC as promptly as practicable. The Company is not presently aware of any circumstances that would prevent it from filing the Form 10-Q on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date in compliance with Rule 12b-25.

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Subject to finalizing details associated with the delay described in Part III above, the Company anticipates that the Quarterly Report will reflect changes in results of operations for the three months ended June 30, 2012 as set forth in the table below. Note that the results of operations for the three months ended June 30, 2012 were significantly impacted by the effect of Merger-related and other non-recurring expenses.
