NOTES TO THE CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Unaudited)

Note 1 Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

The condensed consolidated financial statements are presented in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and do not include all of the disclosures normally required by U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) as contained in Lindsay Corporation s (the Company) Annual Report on Form 10-K. Accordingly, these condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company s most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2015.

In the opinion of management, the condensed consolidated financial statements of the Company reflect all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) necessary to present fairly the financial position and the results of operations and cash flows for the periods presented. The results for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of trends or results expected by the Company for a full year. The condensed consolidated financial statements were prepared using U.S. GAAP. These principles require us to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses. Actual results could differ from these estimates. Certain reclassifications have been made to prior financial statements and notes to conform to the current year presentation.

Note 2 New Accounting Pronouncements

In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (the FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. In August 2015, the FASB issued ASU No. 2015-14, Revenue from Contracts with Customers: Deferral of the Effective Date. The standard provides a single model for revenue arising from contracts with customers and supersedes current revenue recognition guidance. The ASU requires an entity to recognize the amount of revenue to which it expects to be entitled for the transfer of goods or services. The ASU will replace existing revenue recognition guidance in U.S. GAAP and becomes effective in the first quarter of fiscal year 2019. Early adoption is permitted only as of annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2016, including interim reporting periods within that reporting period. The guidance permits companies to either apply the requirements retrospectively to all prior periods presented, or apply the requirements in the year of adoption, through a cumulative adjustment. The Company is currently evaluating the impact the adoption will have on its condensed consolidated financial statements and related disclosures. The Company has not yet selected a transition method, nor has it determined the effect of the standard on its ongoing financial reporting.

In September 2015, the FASB issued ASU No. 2015-16, Business Combinations. The standard requires an entity to recognize adjustments to provisional amounts resulting from business combinations to be recognized in the period in which they are determined. The standard requires the acquirer to record, in the same period s financial statements, the effect on earnings of changes in depreciation, amortization, or other income effects, if any, result from the change to provisional amounts, calculated as if the accounting had been completed at the acquisition date. The Company elected to adopt the standard in September 2015. The adoption of ASU 2015-16 did not have a material impact on its condensed consolidated financial statements.

In November 2015, the FASB issued ASU No. 2015-17, Income Taxes: Balance Sheet Classification of Deferred Taxes. The standard requires an entity to classify all deferred tax assets and liabilities as noncurrent. In addition, companies will no longer allocate valuation allowances between current and noncurrent because all valuation allowances will also be classified as noncurrent. The effective date of ASU No. 2015-17 will be the first quarter of fiscal 2018 with early adoption permitted. The guidance allows companies to apply the update either on a retrospective or prospective basis. The Company does not expect this standard to have a material impact on its condensed consolidated financial statements.

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842). The standard replaces the current codification topic 840 with updated guidance on accounting for leases and requires a lessee to recognize assets and liabilities arising from an operating lease on the balance sheet. Previous U.S. GAAP did not require lease assets and liabilities to be recognized for most leases. Furthermore, companies are permitted to make an accounting policy election to not recognize lease assets and liabilities for leases with a term of 12 months or less. For both finance leases and operating leases, the lease liability should be initially measured at the present value of the lease payments. The recognition, measurement and presentation of expenses and cash flows arising from a lease by a lessee will not significantly change under this new guidance. The effective date of ASU No. 2016-02 will be the first quarter of fiscal 2020 with early adoption permitted.

Table of ContentsNote 3 Net Earnings per Share

Basic earnings per share is calculated on the basis of weighted average outstanding common shares. Diluted earnings per share is calculated on the basis of basic weighted average outstanding common shares adjusted for the dilutive effect of stock options, restricted stock unit awards and other dilutive securities. When a period results in a net loss, the impact of outstanding stock awards is excluded from the diluted loss per share calculation as the inclusion would have an anti-dilutive effect.

The following table shows the computation of basic and diluted net earnings per share for the three and six months ended February 29, 2016 and February 28, 2015:

($ and shares in thousands, except per share amounts)	Three months ended		Six months ended
	February 29, 2016	February 28, 2015	February 29, 2016	February 28, 2015
Numerator:
Net earnings (loss)	$ (4,129)	$ 8,995	$ 2,815	$ 16,563
Denominator:
Weighted average shares outstanding	11,024	11,982	11,142	12,103
Diluted effect of stock awards		26	21	38
Weighted average shares outstanding assuming	11,024	12,008	11,163	12,141
Basic net earnings (loss) per share	$ (0.37)	$ 0.75	$ 0.25	$ 1.37
Diluted net earnings (loss) per share	$ (0.37)	$ 0.75	$ 0.25	$ 1.36

Certain stock options and restricted stock units were excluded from the computation of diluted net earnings per share because their effect would have been anti-dilutive. Performance stock units are excluded from the calculation of dilutive potential common shares until the threshold performance conditions have been satisfied. The following table shows the securities excluded from the computation of earnings per share because their effect would have been anti-dilutive:

Units and options in thousands	Three months ended		Six months ended
	February 29, 2016	February 28, 2015	February 29, 2016	February 28, 2015
Restricted stock units	3	2	9	6
Stock options	86	50	75	54

Note 4 Income Taxes

It is the Company's policy to report income tax expense for interim periods using an estimated annual effective income tax rate. However, the tax effects of significant or unusual items are not considered in the estimated annual effective income tax rate. The tax effects of such discrete events are recognized in the interim period in which the events occur. The Company recorded no material discrete items for the three and six months ended February 29, 2016 and

February 28, 2015.

The Company recorded income tax (benefit) expense of $(2.1) million and $5.1 million for the three months ended February 29, 2016 and February 28, 2015, respectively. The Company recorded income tax expense of $1.4 million and $9.2 million for the six months ended February 29, 2016 and February 28, 2015, respectively. The estimated annual effective income tax rate was 33.0 percent and 35.8 percent for the fiscal year-to-date periods ended February 29, 2016 and February 28, 2015, respectively. The decrease in the estimated annual effective income tax rate from February 2015 to February 2016 primarily relates to the earnings mix among jurisdictions.

Note 5 Inventories

Inventories consisted of the following as of February 29, 2016, February 28, 2015 and August 31, 2015:

($ in thousands)	February 29, 2016	February 28, 2015	August 31, 2015

Table of ContentsNote 6 Credit ArrangementsSenior Notes*

On February 19, 2015, the Company issued $115.0 million in aggregate principal amount of its Senior Notes, Series A, entirely due and payable on February 19, 2030 (the Senior Notes). Borrowings under the Senior Notes are unsecured and have equal priority with borrowings under the Company's other senior unsecured indebtedness. Interest is payable semi-annually at an annual rate of 3.82 percent.

Amended Credit Agreement

On February 18, 2015, the Company entered into a $50 million unsecured Amended and Restated Revolving Credit Agreement (the Amended Credit Agreement) with Wells Fargo Bank, National Association. The Amended Credit Agreement amends and restates the Revolving Credit Agreement, dated January 24, 2008, and last amended on January 22, 2014. The Company intends to use borrowings under the Amended Credit Agreement for working capital purposes and to fund acquisitions. At February 29, 2016 and February 28, 2015, the Company had no outstanding borrowings under the Amended Credit Agreement. The amount of borrowings available at any time under the Amended Credit Agreement is reduced by the amount of standby letters of credit then outstanding. At February 29, 2016, the Company had the ability to borrow up to $43.9 million under this facility, after consideration of outstanding standby letters of credit of $6.1 million. Borrowings under the Amended Credit Agreement bear interest at a variable rate equal to LIBOR plus 90 basis points (1.34 percent at February 29, 2016), subject to adjustment as set forth in the Amended Credit Agreement. Interest is paid on a monthly to quarterly basis depending on loan type. The Company also pays an annual commitment fee of 0.25 percent on the unused portion of the Amended Credit Agreement. Borrowings under the Amended Credit Agreement will be unsecured and have equal priority with borrowings under the Company's other senior unsecured indebtedness. Unpaid principal and interest is due by February 18, 2018.

Each of the credit arrangements described above includes certain covenants relating primarily to the Company's financial condition. These financial covenants include a funded debt to EBITDA leverage ratio and an interest coverage ratio. Upon the occurrence of any event of default of these covenants, including a change in control of the Company, all amounts outstanding thereunder may be declared to be immediately due and payable. At February 29, 2016, February 28, 2015 and August 31, 2015, the Company was in compliance with all financial loan covenants contained in its credit arrangements in place as of each of those dates.

Elecsys Series 2006A Bonds

Elecsys Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, has outstanding $2.3 million in principal amount of industrial revenue bonds that were issued in 2006 (the Series 2006A Bonds). Principal and interest on the Series 2006A Bonds are payable monthly through maturity on September 1, 2026. The interest rate is adjustable based on the yield of the 5-year United States Treasury Notes, plus 0.45 percent (1.67 percent as of February 29, 2016). The obligations under the Series 2006A Bonds are secured by a first priority security interest in certain real estate.

Table of ContentsNote 7 Financial Derivatives

The Company uses certain financial derivatives to mitigate its exposure to volatility in foreign currency exchange rates. The Company uses these derivative instruments to hedge exposures in the ordinary course of business and does not invest in derivative instruments for speculative purposes. The Company manages market and credit risks associated with its derivative instruments by establishing and monitoring limits as to the types and degree of risk that may be undertaken, and by entering into transactions with high-quality counterparties. As of February 29, 2016, the Company's derivative counterparty had an investment grade credit rating. Financial derivatives consist of the following:

Accumulated other comprehensive income (AOCI) included realized and unrealized after-tax gains of $6.2 million, $5.2 million and $5.4 million at February 29, 2016, February 28, 2015 and August 31, 2015, respectively, related to derivative contracts designated as hedging instruments.

Cash Flow Hedging Relationships

In order to reduce exposure related to changes in foreign currency exchange rates, the Company, at times, may enter into forward exchange contracts for transactions denominated in a currency other than the functional currency for certain operations. This activity primarily relates to economically hedging against foreign currency risk in purchasing inventory, sales of finished goods, and future settlement of foreign denominated assets and liabilities. Changes in the fair value of the forward exchange contracts designated as hedging instruments that effectively offset the hedged risks are reported in AOCI, net of related income tax effects. At February 29, 2016, the Company had an outstanding Canadian Dollar foreign currency forward contract to sell 2.6 million Canadian Dollars at a fixed price to settle during fiscal 2018.

For the three months ended February 29, 2016 and February 28, 2015, the Company settled foreign currency forward contracts resulting in an after-tax net gain of $1.4 million and $0.9 million, respectively, which were included in other comprehensive income as part of a currency translation adjustment. For the six months ended February 29, 2016 and February 28, 2015, the Company settled foreign currency forward contracts resulting in an after-tax net gain of $1.2 million and $1.8 million, respectively, which were included in other comprehensive income as part of a currency translation adjustment. There were no amounts recorded in the condensed consolidated statement of operations related to ineffectiveness of foreign currency forward contracts related to net investment hedges for the three and six months ended February 29, 2016 and February 28, 2015.

Table of Contents

At February 29, 2016, February 28, 2015 and August 31, 2015, the Company had outstanding Euro foreign currency forward contracts to sell 28.3 million Euro, 29.0 million Euro and 29.1 million Euro, respectively, at fixed prices to settle during the next fiscal quarter. At February 29, 2016, February 28, 2015 and August 31, 2015, the Company had an outstanding South African Rand foreign currency forward contract to sell 43.0 million South African Rand at fixed prices to settle during the next fiscal quarter. The Company's foreign currency forward contracts qualify as hedges of a net investment in foreign operations.

Derivatives Not Designated as Hedging Instruments

For derivative contracts in which the Company does not elect hedge accounting treatment, the Company carries the derivative at its fair value in the condensed consolidated balance sheet and recognizes any subsequent changes in its fair value through earnings in the condensed consolidated statement of operations. The Company generally does not elect hedge accounting treatment for derivative contracts related to future settlements of foreign denominated intercompany receivables and payables. At February 29, 2016, February 28, 2015 and August 31, 2015, the Company had $10.3 million, $5.8 million and $9.5 million of U.S. dollar equivalent of foreign currency forward contracts outstanding that are not designated as hedging instruments.

Note 9 Commitments and Contingencies

In the ordinary course of its business operations, the Company enters into arrangements that obligate it to make future payments under contracts such as lease agreements. Additionally, the Company is involved, from time to time, in commercial litigation, employment disputes, administrative proceedings, business disputes and other legal proceedings. The Company has established accruals for certain proceedings based on an assessment of probability of loss. The Company believes that any potential loss in excess of the amounts accrued, other than the environmental remediation matters discussed separately below, would not have a material effect on the business or its consolidated financial statements.

Environmental Remediation

In 1992, the Company entered into a consent decree with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (the EPA) in which the Company committed to remediate environmental contamination of the groundwater that was discovered from 1982 through 1990 at and adjacent to its Lindsay, Nebraska facility (the site). The site was added to the EPA's list of priority superfund sites in 1989. Between 1993 and 1995, remediation plans for the site were approved by the EPA and fully implemented by the Company. Since 1998, the primary remaining contamination at the site has been the presence of volatile organic compounds in the soil and groundwater. To date, the remediation process has consisted primarily of drilling wells into the aquifer and pumping water to the surface to allow these contaminants to be removed by aeration.

Table of Contents

In fiscal 2012, the Company undertook an investigation to assess further potential site remediation and containment actions. In connection with the receipt of preliminary results of this investigation and other evaluations, the Company estimated that it would incur $7.2 million in remediation of source area contamination and operating costs and accrued that undiscounted amount. In addition to this source area, the Company determined that volatile organic compounds also existed under one of the manufacturing buildings on the site. Due to the location, the Company had not yet determined the extent of these compounds or the extent to which they were contributing to groundwater contamination. Based on the uncertainty of the remediation actions that might be required with respect to this affected area, the Company believed that meaningful estimates of costs or range of costs could not be made and accordingly were not accrued.

In December 2014, the EPA requested that the Company prepare a feasibility study related to the site, including the area covered by the building, which resulted in a revision to the Company's remediation timeline. In the first quarter of fiscal 2015, the Company accrued $1.5 million of incremental operating costs to reflect its updated timeline.

The Company began soil and groundwater testing in preparation for developing this feasibility study during the first quarter of fiscal 2016. During the second quarter of fiscal 2016, the Company completed its testing which clarified the extent of contamination, including the identification of a source of contamination near the manufacturing building that was not part of the area for which reserves were previously established. The Company, with the assistance of third-party environmental experts, is developing and evaluating remediation alternatives, a proposed remediation plan and estimated costs. Based on preliminary estimates of future remediation and operating costs, the Company accrued an additional $13.0 million in the second quarter of fiscal 2016 and included the related expenses in general and administrative expenses in the condensed consolidated statement of operations.

The estimated aggregate accrued cost of $19.9 million is based on consideration of several remediation options that would use different technologies, each which the Company believes could be successful in meeting the long-term regulatory requirements of the site. However, the remediation options are still being evaluated, cost estimates are preliminary, and no plan has been reviewed with or approved by the EPA or the Nebraska Department of Environmental Quality (the NDEQ). The Company is scheduled to meet with the EPA and the NDEQ during the third quarter of fiscal 2016, although it anticipates that a definitive plan may not be agreed to until fiscal 2017 or later.

The Company accrues the anticipated cost of investigation and remediation when the obligation is probable and can be reasonably estimated. While the Company believes the current accrual is a good faith estimate of the long-term cost of remediation at this site based on preliminary analysis available at this time, the estimate of costs and their timing could change as a result of a number of factors, including (1) EPA and NDEQ input on the proposed remediation plan and any changes which they may subsequently require, (2) refinement of cost estimates and length of time required to complete remediation and post-remediation operations and maintenance, (3) effectiveness of the technology chosen in remediation of the site as well as changes in technology that may be available in the future, and (4) unforeseen circumstances existing at the site. As a result of these factors, it is not possible to provide a reasonable estimate of the amount of costs that may exceed amounts accrued at this time. While any revisions could be material to the operating results of any fiscal quarter or fiscal year, the Company does not expect such additional expenses would have a material adverse effect on its liquidity or financial condition.

The following table summarizes the undiscounted environmental remediation liability classifications included in the balance sheet as of February 29, 2016, February 28, 2015 and August 31, 2015:

Note 14 Industry Segment Information

The Company manages its business activities in two reportable segments: irrigation and infrastructure. The Company evaluates the performance of its reportable segments based on segment sales, gross profit and operating income, with operating income for segment purposes excluding unallocated corporate general and administrative expenses, interest income, interest expense, other income and expenses and income taxes. Operating income for segment purposes includes general and administrative expenses, selling expenses, engineering and research expenses and other overhead charges directly attributable to the segment. There are no inter-segment sales. The Company had no single customer who represented 10 percent or more of its total revenues during the three and six months ended February 29, 2016 and February 28, 2015.

Irrigation - This reporting segment includes the manufacture and marketing of center pivot, lateral move, and hose reel irrigation systems as well as various water pumping stations, controls, filtration solutions and machine-to-machine (M2M) technology. The irrigation reporting segment consists of five operating segments that have similar economic characteristics and meet the aggregation criteria, including similar products, production processes, type or class of customer and methods for distribution.

Infrastructure - This reporting segment includes the manufacture and marketing of moveable barriers, specialty barriers, crash cushions and end terminals, and road marking and road safety equipment; the manufacture and sale of large diameter steel tubing and railroad signals and structures; and the provision of outsourced manufacturing and production services. The infrastructure reporting segment consists of one operating segment.

Accounting Policies

In preparing the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP, management must make a variety of decisions which impact the reported amounts and the related disclosures. These decisions include the selection of the appropriate accounting principles to be applied and the assumptions on which to base accounting estimates. In making these decisions, management applies its judgment based on its understanding and analysis of the relevant circumstances and the Company's historical experience.

The Company's accounting policies that are most important to the presentation of its results of operations and financial condition, and which require the greatest use of judgments and estimates by management, are designated as its critical accounting policies. See discussion of the Company's critical accounting policies under Item 7 in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the Company's fiscal year ended August 31, 2015. Management periodically re-evaluates and adjusts its critical accounting policies as circumstances change. There were no changes in the Company's critical accounting policies during the three and six months ended February 29, 2016.

New Accounting Pronouncements

See Note 2 New Accounting Pronouncements to the condensed consolidated financial statements set forth in Part I, Item 1 of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q.

Executive Overview and Outlook

Net loss for the three months ended February 29, 2016 was $4.1 million or a loss of $0.37 per diluted share compared with net earnings of $9.0 million or $0.75 per diluted share for the three months ended February 28, 2015. Operating margin for the three months ended February 29, 2016 was negative 3.9 percent as compared to positive 10.3 percent for the three months ended February 28, 2015. The decrease in earnings and operating margin was primarily attributable to a $13.0 million increase in estimated environmental remediation expenses, as well as lower revenues, which declined 15 percent to $120.6 million from $141.1 million. The environmental expense reduced operating margin by 10.8 percentage points and net earnings by $0.79 per diluted share on an after-tax basis.

The primary driver of lower revenue was the infrastructure segment, in which sales decreased 47 percent or $15.3 million, due to the completion of the $12.7 million Road Zipper System project for the Golden Gate Bridge in the prior year, as well as reduced sales in the contract and tubing markets. Irrigation segment sales decreased 5 percent to $103.1 million. Lower commodity prices and reduced farm income have caused a dampening of farmer sentiment regarding capital investments, which has driven a reduction in the global irrigation market. The strengthening of the U.S. dollar against the value of other currencies, including the Brazilian real, South African rand, the euro and the Australian dollar, negatively affected revenues by $4.1 million and operating income by $0.1 million for the three months ended February 29, 2016 as compared to the three months ended February 28, 2015.

The Company's irrigation revenues are highly dependent upon the need for irrigated agricultural crop production, which, in turn, depends upon many factors, including the following primary drivers:

Agricultural commodity prices - As of February 2016, corn prices have remained relatively flat and soybean prices have decreased approximately 5 percent compared to the same period in the prior year. Additionally, corn prices have decreased approximately 50 percent and soybeans prices have decreased approximately 35 percent compared to the peak prices observed during the same period of 2013.

Net farm income - As of February 2016, the U.S. Department of Agriculture (the USDA) estimated U.S. 2016 net farm income to be $54.8 billion, down 3 percent from the USDA's estimate of U.S. 2015 net farm income of $56.4 billion. The 2016 estimate represents the third consecutive year of an estimate decrease in net farm income and is down 56 percent from the peak USDA estimate of net farm income in 2013 of $123.3 billion.

Weather conditions - Favorable growing conditions in the United States during 2015 led to record harvests, which combined with the high stock of commodities have contributed to lower crop prices. The variability in global precipitation levels could positively or negatively impact net sales.

Governmental policies - A number of governmental laws and regulations can affect the Company's business, including:

The Agricultural Act of 2014 provides a degree of certainty to growers by adopting a five-year farm bill. This law continued many of the existing programs, including funding for the Environmental Quality Incentives Program, which provides financial assistance to farmers to implement conservation practices, and is frequently used to assist in the purchase of center pivot irrigation systems.

In December 2015, certain tax incentives such as the Section 179 income tax deductions and bonus depreciation that are intended to encourage equipment purchases were granted long-term extensions. These incentives could benefit equipment sales in the future.

Various U.S. and global trade sanctions could negatively affect irrigation equipment sales to certain geographic markets around the world.

On November 30, 2015, the Environmental Protection Agency finalized requirements for the amount of ethanol and other renewable fuels blended into the overall U.S. fuel supply in 2016. The Company believes the requirement, while less than the original mandate, still provides for continued growth in demand for the current calendar year as the goal is to achieve 18 billion gallons of renewable fuels for 2016.

Many international markets are affected by government policies such as subsidies and other agriculturally related incentives. While these policies can have a significant effect on an individual market, they typically do not have a material effect on the consolidated results of the Company.

Currency The U.S. dollar has strengthened against most currencies from the same period in the prior year, including the Brazilian real, South African rand, the euro and the Australian dollar. This strengthening increases the cost of parts and products exported from the U.S. in comparison to supply denominated in local currency and therefore could negatively impact the Company's international sales and margins.

Although it is early in calendar 2016, numerous factors appear to be creating headwinds against a potential revenue increase over the prior fiscal year. While commodity prices have leveled off in the U.S., net farm income is projected at the lowest level since 2002, leading to downward pressure on irrigation equipment demand and pricing. In the international markets, currency conditions remain challenging and performance is likely to be dependent upon project sales in 2016, which are difficult to forecast. While the Company is confident in the future of these markets, there have been no significant indicators of improvements in demand in the near-term.

The Company remains confident in the long-term drivers for efficient agricultural irrigation and water use efficiency globally. The Company has expanded global capacity with the opening of a factory in Turkey that began manufacturing operations in March 2015. While the additional capacity from the plant in Turkey may create some short-term fixed expense absorption pressure, the Company is confident in the incremental profit potential of global expansion plans and the long-term growth opportunities throughout the region, including in the European, Middle Eastern and African markets.

The infrastructure business has continued to improve its profit profile and maintained consistency in an environment of constrained government spending. In December 2015, the U.S. government enacted a $305.0 billion highway-funding bill to fund highway, bridge and transit projects over the next five years. In addition, the Federal Highway Administration has mandated a change to certification standards for road safety products which is scheduled to be phased in beginning in 2018. Individual states may mandate the adoption of these standards earlier. The requirement to comply with these standards could impact the level of the Company's R&D spend and sales in the future. In light of this longer-term government funding, opportunities exist for market growth in each of the infrastructure product lines. Demand for the Company's transportation safety products continues to be driven by population growth and the need for improved road safety. The Company's outlook for infrastructure continues to be positive, although somewhat mitigated by the possibility that a global economic slowdown could impact government spending on international projects.

As of February 29, 2016, the Company had an order backlog of $52.6 million compared with $74.3 million at February 28, 2015 and $48.0 million at August 31, 2015. The Company's backlog can fluctuate from period to period due to the seasonality, cyclicality, timing and execution of contracts. Backlog typically represents long-term projects as well as short lead-time orders, and therefore is generally not a good indication of the next fiscal quarter's revenues.

The global drivers for the Company's markets of population growth, expanded food production, efficient water use and infrastructure expansion support the Company's long-term growth goals. The most significant opportunities for growth over the next several years are in international markets, where irrigation use is less developed and demand is driven primarily by food security, water scarcity and population growth. In the United States, the focus on converting dryland acres to irrigated cropland while increasing the efficiency of water utilization will have an impact on future irrigation equipment demand.

Results of OperationsFor the Three Months ended February 29, 2016 compared to the Three Months ended February 28, 2015

Revenues

Operating revenues for the three months ended February 29, 2016 declined 15 percent to $120.6 million from $141.1 million for the three months ended February 28, 2015, as infrastructure revenues decreased $15.3 million and irrigation revenues decreased $5.2 million. The irrigation segment provided 85 percent of the Company's revenue for the three months ended February 29, 2016 as compared to 77 percent of the three months ended February 28, 2015.

U.S. irrigation revenues for the three months ended February 29, 2016 of $72.3 million increased $4.3 million or 6 percent from $68.0 million for the three months ended February 28, 2015, primarily due to revenues from acquired companies, including Elecsys Corporation, which was acquired in January 2015.

International irrigation revenues for the three months ended February 29, 2016 of $30.8 million decreased $9.5 million or 24 percent from $40.3 million for the three months ended February 28, 2015. Foreign currency translation as compared to the prior year reduced international irrigation revenues by $3.5 million. Revenue excluding the effect of foreign currency translation decreased most notably in Brazil and several export markets.

Infrastructure segment revenues for the three months ended February 29, 2016 of $17.5 million decreased $15.3 million or 47 percent from $32.8 million for the three months ended February 28, 2015. The decrease is due to the completion of the $12.7 million Road Zipper System project for the Golden Gate Bridge in the prior year, as well as reduced sales in the contract and tubing markets.

Gross Margin

Gross profit for the three months ended February 29, 2016 of $32.4 million decreased 18 percent from $39.6 million for the three months ended February 28, 2015. The decrease in gross profit was primarily due to the decline in sales as well as a decrease in gross margin to 26.9 percent for the three months ended February 29, 2016 from 28.0 percent for the three months ended February 28, 2015. Gross margin in irrigation increased by approximately 1 percentage point and infrastructure gross margin decreased by approximately 8 percentage points. The increase in irrigation gross margins is primarily a result of improved margins from value-added product lines including pump stations, filtration and M2M controls, while the competitive pricing pressures on center pivot sales were largely offset by lower input costs. The decrease in infrastructure gross margin was primarily due to sales mix from the decrease in Road Zipper sales.

Operating Expenses

The Company's operating expenses of $37.1 million for the three months ended February 29, 2016 increased by $12.1 million over operating expenses in the three months ended February 28, 2015. The change in operating expenses includes $13.0 million of environmental expenses and $1.7 million of incremental expenses related to Elecsys Corporation and SPF Water Engineering, partially offset by reductions in personnel related expenses of $1.2 million and acquisition and integration related expenses of $0.9 million. Operating expenses were 30.8 percent of sales for the three months ended February 29, 2016 compared to 17.7 percent of sales for the three months ended February 28, 2015.

Income Taxes

The Company recorded income tax (benefit) expense of $(2.1) million and $5.1 million for the three months ended February 29, 2016 and February 28, 2015, respectively. The effective income tax rate was 33.3 percent and 36.4 percent for the three months ended February 29, 2016 and February 28, 2015, respectively. The decrease in the effective income tax rate from February 2015 to February 2016 primarily relates to the earnings mix among jurisdictions.

Revenues

Operating revenues for the six months ended February 29, 2016 declined 12 percent to $242.2 million from $275.9 million for the six months ended February 28, 2015, as irrigation revenues decreased $18.6 million and infrastructure revenues decreased by $15.1 million. The irrigation segment provided 84 percent of the Company's revenue for the six months ended February 29, 2016 as compared to 81 percent of the Company's revenue for the six months ended February 28, 2015.

U.S. irrigation revenues for the six months ended February 29, 2016 of $131.5 million increased $0.8 million or 1 percent from $130.7 million for the six months ended February 28, 2015. The increase in U.S. irrigation revenues is primarily due to incremental revenue from acquired companies, partially offset by the overall product mix and a decline in volume compared to the prior year period. Lower commodity prices and lower farm income affected farmers' sentiment regarding equipment purchases and contributed to lower demand for U.S. irrigation equipment.

International irrigation revenues for the six months ended February 29, 2016 of $72.8 million decreased $19.5 million or 21 percent from $92.3 million for the six months ended February 28, 2015. Foreign currency translation as compared to the prior year reduced international irrigation revenues by $9.4 million. Revenue excluding the effect of foreign currency translation decreased most notably in Brazil and several export markets.

Infrastructure segment revenues for the six months ended February 29, 2016 of $37.8 million decreased $15.1 million or 29 percent from $52.9 million for the six months ended February 28, 2015. The decrease is due to the completion of the $12.7 million Road Zipper System project for the Golden Gate Bridge in the prior year, as well as reduced sales in the contract and tubing markets.

Table of ContentsGross Margin

Gross profit for the six months ended February 29, 2016 of $66.9 million decreased 13 percent from $76.5 million for the six months ended February 28, 2015. The decrease in gross profit was primarily due to the decline in sales from the prior period. Gross margin remained relatively flat at 27.6 percent for the six months ended February 29, 2016 compared to 27.7 percent for the six months ended February 28, 2015. Gross margin in irrigation increased by approximately 1 percentage point and infrastructure gross margin decreased by approximately 4 percentage points. Irrigation gross margin increased primarily as a result of a change in sales mix with the addition of Elecsys Corporation in the current year, while competitive pricing pressures were largely offset by lower input costs. The decrease in infrastructure gross margin was primarily due to the completion of the Road Zipper Systems project in the prior period as compared to the current period.

Operating Expenses

The Company's operating expenses of $59.8 million for the six months ended February 29, 2016 increased by $9.8 million over operating expenses for the six months ended February 28, 2015. The change in operating expenses includes $11.5 million of incremental environmental remediation expenses and $4.7 million of incremental expenses related to Elecsys Corporation and SPF Water Engineering, offset by reductions in personnel related expenses of $2.8 million, acquisition and integration related expenses of $1.5 million and collections on accounts receivable that were reserved for in the prior periods of $1.4 million. Operating expenses were 24.7 percent of sales for the six months ended February 29, 2016 compared to 18.1 percent of sales for the six months ended February 28, 2015.

Income Taxes

The Company recorded income tax expense of $1.4 million and $9.2 million for the six months ended February 29, 2016 and February 28, 2015, respectively. The effective income tax rate was 33.0 percent and 35.8 percent for the six months ended February 29, 2016 and February 28, 2015, respectively. The decrease in the effective income tax rate from February 2015 to February 2016 primarily relates to the earnings mix among jurisdictions.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's cash and cash equivalents totaled $89.5 million at February 29, 2016 compared with $167.2 million at February 28, 2015 and $139.1 million at August 31, 2015. The Company requires cash for financing its receivables and inventories, paying operating expenses and capital expenditures, and for dividends and share repurchases. The Company meets its liquidity needs and finances its capital expenditures from its available cash and funds provided by operations along with borrowings under its credit arrangements described below. The Company believes its current cash resources, projected operating cash flow, and remaining capacity under its continuing bank lines of credit are sufficient to cover all of its expected working capital needs, planned capital expenditures and dividends. The Company may require additional borrowings to fund potential acquisitions in the future.

The Company's total cash and cash equivalents held by foreign subsidiaries was approximately $24.0 million, $27.3 million and $23.5 million as of February 29, 2016, February 28, 2015 and August 31, 2015, respectively. The Company does not intend to repatriate the funds, and does not expect these funds to have a significant impact on the Company's overall liquidity. The Company considers its earnings in foreign subsidiaries to be permanently reinvested and would need to accrue and pay taxes if these earnings were repatriated.

Net working capital was $199.5 million at February 29, 2016, as compared with $271.6 million at February 28, 2015 and $227.1 million at August 31, 2015. Cash used in operations totaled $5.0 million during the six months ended

February 29, 2016, a decrease of $20.6 million compared to cash provided by operations of $15.6 million during the six months ended February 28, 2015. This decrease was primarily due to the decrease in net earnings as well as negative changes of $12.0 million in accounts payable and $4.5 million in inventories, partially offset by a $10.4 million change in other noncurrent assets and liabilities.

Cash flows used in investing activities totaled $4.5 million during the six months ended February 29, 2016 compared to $73.3 million used in investing activities during the six months ended February 28, 2015. The large decrease is primarily attributable to $67.2 million of acquisition spending, net of cash acquired, in the prior period. Capital spending of $7.4 million in the first six months of fiscal 2016 increased compared to capital spending of $6.6 million in the same period of the prior fiscal year.

Cash flows used in financing activities totaled $39.0 million during the six months ended February 29, 2016 compared to cash flows provided by financing activities of $57.3 million during the same prior year period. The increase in cash used in financing activities was primarily due to the prior period including $115.0 of private placement debt funding, offset by a $17.1 million reduction in the repurchasing of common shares.
