Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Agreement and Plan of Merger

On May 27, 2016, Jazz Pharmaceuticals plc, an Irish public limited company (Parent), Plex Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (Purchaser), and Celator Pharmaceuticals, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Target), entered into a definitive Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement), pursuant to which Parent, through Purchaser, will commence a cash tender offer (the Offer) to acquire all of the outstanding shares of the Target's common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the Shares), for $30.25 per share net to the seller in cash, without interest, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement (the Offer Price).

Completion of the Offer is subject to several conditions, including (i) there shall have been validly tendered (and not validly withdrawn) prior to the expiration of the Offer that number of Shares that, when added to the Shares owned by Parent and Purchaser represent one more Share than 50% of the outstanding Shares, including any Shares issuable to holders of warrants to purchase Shares of the Target that are deemed exercised in accordance with their terms immediately prior to such time; (ii) the expiration or termination of any waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended; (iii) the absence of any legal restraint; (iv) subject to certain materiality exceptions, the truth and accuracy of certain representations and warranties of the Target contained in the Merger Agreement; and (v) certain other customary conditions.

Parent is obligated to commence the Offer within ten business days from the date of the Merger Agreement and to keep the Offer open for twenty business days, subject to possible extension under the terms of the Merger Agreement. Following the completion of the Offer and subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Purchaser will merge with and into the Target, with the Target surviving as an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent, pursuant to the procedure provided for under Section 251(h) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the DGCL) without further stockholder approval (the Merger).

At the effective time of the Merger (the Effective Time), by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holders of any Shares, each outstanding Share (other than (i) any Shares owned by the Target, Parent or Purchaser, or (ii) any Shares as to which the holder properly demands appraisal rights under the DGCL) will be converted into the right to receive the Offer Price (the Merger Consideration).

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, immediately prior to the Effective Time, each option to purchase Shares (a Target Option), whether or not exercisable or vested, shall be canceled and converted into the right to receive an amount in cash (subject to deduction for any required withholding tax), equal to the product of (A) the excess of the Merger Consideration over the exercise price per Share underlying such Target Option and (B) the number of Shares subject to such Target Option immediately prior to the Effective Time. Each warrant to purchase Shares that is not exercised prior to the Effective Time or deemed automatically exercised shall be assumed by Parent and shall become exercisable for cash in the amount the warrant holder would have been entitled to receive if the warrant had been exercised immediately prior to the Effective Time.

Parent, Purchaser and the Target have made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement, including using reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, and to assist and cooperate with the other parties in doing, all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate and make effective, as promptly as reasonably practicable, the Offer, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. The Target has agreed to (i) conduct its business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice and (ii) to the extent consistent therewith, use commercially reasonable efforts to (x) preserve intact its present business organization, (y) keep available the services of its present executive officers and employees and (z) preserve its present relationships with customers, suppliers, licensors, licensees, distributors and others having material business dealings with it.

The Target has also agreed not to (i) directly or indirectly solicit, initiate or knowingly encourage the submission of any takeover proposal of the Target, (ii) enter into any agreement or understanding with respect to any takeover proposal of the Target or (iii) directly or indirectly participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any person any information with respect to, or take any other action to facilitate the making of any proposal that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, any takeover proposal of the Target. Notwithstanding these restrictions, the Target may under certain circumstances provide non-public information to, and participate in discussions or negotiations with, third parties with respect to unsolicited acquisition proposals. Subject to the satisfaction of certain requirements, the Target may terminate the Merger Agreement, if the board of directors of the Target determines, in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel and a financial advisor, the terms of an unsolicited acquisition proposal are, if consummated, more favorable from a financial point of view to the stockholders of the Target than the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, taking into account all financial, legal, financing, regulatory and other aspects of such takeover proposal and of the Merger Agreement (including any changes to the terms of the Merger Agreement proposed by Parent and any fees to be paid by the Target for terminating the Merger Agreement) and determines, in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that the failure to take any such action would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law. In addition, the board of directors of the Target is permitted to change its recommendation, for reasons not related to the receipt of an unsolicited proposal, if the board of directors of the Target determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that there has been an intervening event (as defined in the Merger Agreement) and the failure to take any such action would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law.

The Merger Agreement also includes customary termination provisions for both the Target and Parent and provides that, in connection with the termination of the Merger Agreement with respect to an unsolicited superior proposal, the Target will be required to pay a termination fee of $45.8 million (the Termination Fee). Any such termination of the Merger Agreement by the Target in connection with a superior proposal is subject to certain requirements, including the Target's compliance with certain procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement and payment of the Termination Fee by the Target.

The Merger Agreement has been unanimously adopted by the board of directors of Parent, Purchaser and the Target and the board of directors of the Target unanimously recommends that stockholders of the Target tender their Shares in the Offer.

Moreover, certain representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement were made as of a specified date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from what might be viewed as material to stockholders, or may have been used for the purpose of allocating risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement. Accordingly, the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement should not be relied on by any persons as characterizations of the actual state of facts and circumstances of the Target at the time they were made and who should consider the information in the Merger Agreement in conjunction with the entirety of the factual disclosure about the Target in the Target's public reports filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Target's public disclosures.

These forward-looking statements are based on each of the companies' current expectations and inherently involve significant risks and uncertainties.
