Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On September 14, 2016, the Company appointed Jen Wong as its Chief Operating Officer, with responsibility for (1) all digital operations and business development, (2) all product development and engineering, (3) the Foundry division, and (4) the Consumer Marketing and Revenue division, effective September 19, 2016. Ms. Wong has served as the Company's President of Digital since January 2016.

In connection with her appointment as Chief Operating Officer, the Company and Ms. Wong have entered into an amendment to her current employment agreement, extending the term to September 30, 2019 and pursuant to which (i) her annual base salary will increase to $750,000 per annum and (ii) her target award opportunity in respect of annual equity incentive awards will increase to $500,000. The change to be effected in Ms. Wong's base salary will be effective from and after September 19, 2016, while the increase in the opportunity related to her annual equity awards will be implemented in connection with the annual awards to be made in 2017. Consistent with generally applicable policies for officers at her level, under Ms. Wong's current employment agreement, if her employment is involuntarily terminated by the Company without cause, she will receive bi-weekly installments over a stated severance period based on an annualized amount equal to the sum of annual base salary, plus an annualized amount based generally on the average of certain bonuses received over a period up to the last three years. In connection with her promotion, the applicable severance period has been increased to 18 months.

A copy of the Company's press release related to the matters described in Item 5.02 above is attached as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.
