Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On May 21, 2014, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the Board) of Yelp Inc. (the Company) unanimously approved the terms of a letter agreement (the Letter Agreement) with Joseph Nachman, the Company's Senior Vice President of Revenue, regarding the conclusion of his secondment to Yelp UK Ltd., his return to the United States and his continued employment with the Company upon his return. Pursuant to the Letter Agreement, Mr. Nachman's secondment will terminate, and he will resume working directly for the Company in the United States, on June 16, 2014 (the Return Date).

Upon Mr. Nachman's return to the United States, the terms of his employment will revert to those set forth in the Amended and Restated Offer Letter, dated February 3, 2012, by and between Mr. Nachman and the Company, and the terms of the Secondment Agreement, dated April 25, 2012, by and between Mr. Nachman and the Company (the Secondment Agreement), will cease to apply. Accordingly, as of the Return Date, Mr. Nachman will no longer be entitled to the benefits provided for under the Secondment Agreement, including his cost of living adjustment, monthly stipend and travel benefits. He will instead be entitled to receive an annual base salary of $325,000 and the Company's standard U.S. benefits package.

Mr. Nachman will be entitled to certain relocation benefits under the Letter Agreement: (i) one consultation with a tax preparer prior to the Return date, paid for by the Company; (ii) certain moving expenses as set forth in the Letter Agreement; (iii) $2,000 for miscellaneous moving expenses; (iv) travel expenses for him and his family from London to the United States; and (v) 30 days of corporate housing upon his return. These relocation benefits replace the $9,000 one-time moving cost reimbursement provided for in the Secondment Agreement. In addition, the Company will continue to pay for the preparation of Mr. Nachman's tax returns and tax equalization settlement calculations for tax years affected by his secondment in accordance with the Company's tax equalization policy.

The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Letter Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1
