Securities Buyback Tender Offer

(Rio de Janeiro, July 18, 2006). PETRÓLEO BRASILEIRO S/A - PETROBRAS, [Bovespa: PETR3/PETR4, NYSE: PBR/PBRA, Latibex: XPBR/XPBRA, BCBA: APBR/APBRA], a Brazilian international energy company, announces that its wholly owned subsidiary Petrobras International Finance Corporation (PIFCo) today formally announced a tender offer for the buyback of its issued securities pertaining to five series of notes as listed in the following table. The purpose of this initiative is to reduce total debt outstanding and simplify the debt profile, thus benefiting from the Company's current strong cash generation.

Some of these securities carry enhancement features which currently do not contribute to accessing capital markets, since October 2005 when Moody's Investor Services increased the rating of PETROBRAS and PIFCo to investment grade.

PIFCo has the option to limit the total volume of this buyback to US$ 1 billion, in addition to the securities which have already been repurchased in the past by PIFCo or its affiliated companies, which may be eligible for inclusion in this Tender Offer.

Should the securities tendered exceed US$ 1 billion, PIFCo may exclude one or more of the series from the buyback operation, starting with those series with longer maturities, in order to bring the total volume in line with the US$ 1 billion limit.

The tender offer buyback price will be the present value of the cash flow generated by the security (face value and interest), with the necessary adjustments to accord for the date of effective payment of interest and final redemption, brought to present value based on the yield of US Treasuries Benchmark at 4:00 p.m. in New York on July 20 2006, as announced in principle by Bloomberg, plus a fixed spread, both in accordance with the above table. Additionally, interest will also be paid for the period between the last interest payment date of each security and the settlement date of this tender offer.

Unless stated to the contrary, the tender offer is set to close at 5:00 p.m., New York City time on July 24 2006, and financial settlement is to take place on the third business day there after. Details of conditions and limitations of the tender offer are to be found in the Offer to Purchase document, dated July 18 2006, which can be obtained by accessing the Investor Relations website Financial Information Prospectus, or as shown below.

The operation is being arranged by Morgan Stanley Co., Incorporated, and UBS Securities LLC, which in their capacity as Dealer Managers, are responsible for the calculation of the price of the buyback offering of each security. The remaining institutions involved in the operation are: The Bank of New York, depository for the tender offer, The Bank of New York (Luxemburg) S.A., the Luxemburg agent bank, and D.F. King & Co., Inc., the information agent for the tender offer.

Requests for the Offer to Purchase and related documents should be made to D.F. King & Co., Inc. by calling (212) 269-5550 for the banks and brokers or (800) 859-8508, for other parties, or in writing to 48 Wall Street, New York, New York 10005. Questions on the tender offer can be made to Morgan Stanley & Co., Incorporated at (800) 624-1800 (in the United States) or (212) 761-1457 (outside the United States) and to UBS Securities LLC on (888) 722-9555, extension 4210 (in the United States) or (203) 719-4210 (outside the United States).

This announcement does not constitute an offer to buy or the solicitation of an offer to sell securities. The tender offer is being made exclusively through the Offer to Purchase document and related notification letters. The latter are invalid in any jurisdiction which does not permit them to be acted upon pursuant to the prevailing legislation.
