Notice to Shareholders

Banco Bradesco S.A. informs the market and its shareholders that, at an auction held at BM&FBOVESPA S.A. - Bolsa de Valores, Mercadorias e Futuros (Securities, Commodities and Future Exchanges), on June 24th, 2009, it successfully concluded the sale of all shares resulting from fractions of shares from the reverse split operation, approved at the Special Shareholders Meeting held on March 10, 2009.

At that occasion, a total of 3,730,979 common shares and 25,294,621 preferred shares have been sold, all of which non-par registered book-entry shares.

The amounts payable to the fractions holders shall be R$22.499992165 per common share and R$27.499999709 per preferred share, in a total amount of R$779,549,068.42.

Such amounts shall be available to the shareholders entitled to them, as of July 20th, 2009, restated by the SELIC rate or another index that might replace it, as of June 29th, 2009, date of the Auction's financial settlement.

To the entitled shareholders, the Company shall:

- a) credit the amounts to those registered in its records as holders of checking account in a Financial Institution;
- b) pay BM&FBOVESPA, which shall transfer the amounts to those registered in its records, through its Custodian Agents.

Those who do not hold a checking account in a Financial Institution but whose record is updated at Bradesco's records, shall be notified and should go to a Bradesco Branch of their choice, with their ID cards, to receive the amounts they are entitled to.

For those not identified or not located, the amounts will be available at the Company and, upon request, will be paid, restated by the SELIC rate or another index that might replace it, as of June 29th, 2009, date of the Auction's financial settlement.

With regards to the Notice to the Market disclosed on June 22, 2009, Bradesco did not take part in the auction and, consequently, did not use its Share Repurchase Program to be held in Treasury.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain forward-looking statements. These statements are statements that are not historical facts, and are based on management's current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "plans" and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.
