Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 4, 2012, Hartford Life, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Seller") and an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of The Hartford Financial Services Group, Inc. (the "Company"), entered into a Purchase and Sale Agreement (the "Purchase Agreement") to sell to Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company, a Massachusetts domiciled life insurance company ("Buyer"): (i) the Company's assets relating to its retirement plans business (the "Business"), and (ii) all of the issued and outstanding equity of Hartford Retirement Services, LLC, the Business's recordkeeper, for a total purchase price of $400 million, to be paid to Seller, in cash, subject to a potential downward adjustment at the closing of the transaction of up to $51.25 million in the event retirement plan discontinuances and lapses in the Business from and including January 1, 2012 through the closing of the transaction exceed defined thresholds set forth in the Purchase Agreement.

In connection with the transaction, Buyer has agreed to reinsure the insurance policies related to the Business pursuant to a Reinsurance Agreement between Buyer and Hartford Life Insurance Company, a Connecticut-domiciled life insurance company, to be entered into on the closing date. The Company is also a party to the Purchase Agreement for certain limited purposes stated therein, including to guarantee the obligations of Seller under the Purchase Agreement for three years from the closing date (or such longer period to resolve any then pending claims).

The Purchase Agreement, the Reinsurance Agreement and other transaction documents contain customary representations and warranties made by Seller and certain affiliates and certain customary covenants regarding the Business, and the Purchase Agreement, the Reinsurance Agreement and other transaction documents provide for indemnification, among other things, for breaches of those representations, warranties and covenants.

Closing of the transactions is subject to satisfaction or waiver of customary conditions, including regulatory approvals from FINRA and applicable state departments of insurance.
