Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers. On January 10, 2012, Mark T. Troughton, President, Cards and Network of Green Dot Corporation (“Green Dot”), submitted his resignation as an executive officer of Green Dot in order to pursue new opportunities. While Mr. Troughton ceased serving in his former capacity effective immediately upon his resignation, he is expected to continue to serve Green Dot through at least the end of January 2012.

Mr. Troughton's former role has been divided into two positions with Green Dot promoting two former direct reports of Mr. Troughton, Kostas Sgoutas and Eric Duehring, to fill them. Both report directly to Green Dot's Chief Executive Officer, Steve Streit.

Mr. Sgoutas holds the position of Chief Product Officer, Executive Vice President for Non-Retail Customer Acquisition. In this capacity, he will be responsible for all non-retail customer acquisition channels, including all products sold through Green Dot's online properties, its Government channel and future new channels. Mr. Sgoutas will also be responsible for the Green Dot Network and Green Dot's product development and product management functions.

Mr. Duehring holds the position of Chief Marketing Officer, Executive Vice President of Retail Customer Acquisition. In this capacity, he will be responsible for Green Dot's retail customer acquisition channel, including all products sold through Green Dot's retail distribution, including Walmart. Mr. Duehring will also manage Green Dot's marketing and advertising functions.
