Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 1, 2013, Bank of Marin Bancorp ("BMRC") (NASDAQ: BMRC), the parent company of Bank of Marin, and NorCal Community Bancorp ("NorCal"), the parent company of Bank of Alameda, entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, pursuant to which NorCal will be acquired by BMRC through the merger of NorCal with and into BMRC. As a result of the merger, the separate corporate existence of NorCal will cease and BMRC will continue as the surviving corporation. The merger is expected to be completed in the fourth quarter of 2013, subject to approval of the merger by NorCal shareholders, receipt of required regulatory and other approvals and satisfaction of customary closing conditions. Immediately after the merger is completed, Bank of Alameda, a California banking corporation, is to merge with and into Bank of Marin, a California banking corporation, with Bank of Marin being the surviving entity.

In the merger of NorCal into BMRC, all of the outstanding shares of NorCal common stock will be cancelled, and shareholders of NorCal will elect to receive either 0.07716 shares of BMRC common stock (subject to adjustment as stated below), $3.01 in cash, or a combination for each share of NorCal common stock they own, subject to the limitation that the overall mix of consideration paid by BMRC is approximately 50% BMRC common stock and 50% cash. The number of shares of BMRC common stock to be issued to NorCal shareholders is based on the fixed exchange ratio of 0.07716, provided that BMRC's common stock price remains between $35.11 and $42.91 as measured by the 15-day volume-weighted average price prior to closing of the transaction. To the extent the volume-weighted average closing price of BMRC common stock is outside this price range, then the exchange ratio will adjust as set forth in the merger agreement. The transaction is expected to qualify as a tax-free exchange for shareholders of NorCal who receive BMRC common stock.

The merger agreement contains various customary representations, warranties and covenants by BMRC and NorCal. NorCal agreed to conduct its business in the ordinary course and forbear from taking certain actions while the acquisition is pending. In addition, NorCal agreed that it will not initiate, solicit or encourage proposals for an alternative business combination transaction or, subject to certain exceptions, enter into discussions or furnish information in connection with any proposals for alternative business combination transactions.

At the effective time of the merger, outstanding NorCal stock options will be cashed out at the difference between the respective award's exercise price and $3.01 per share.

The merger will not be completed unless a number of customary closing conditions are met, including, among others, approval of the merger by NorCal shareholders, the registration of the offering of the BMRC common stock to the NorCal shareholders under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the approval for quotation of such stock on the Nasdaq Global Market, receipt of required regulatory and other approvals and the expiration of applicable statutory waiting periods, the accuracy of specified representations and warranties of each party, receipt by BMRC of a tax opinion confirming certain tax aspects of the acquisition, NorCal meeting certain financial measures shortly prior to closing, and the absence of any injunctions or other legal restraints.

The merger agreement contains termination rights which may be exercised by BMRC or NorCal in specific circumstances, such as the following: a required regulatory approval has been denied by final, non-appealable action of a governmental entity; the parties are unable to complete the merger by March 31, 2014; the other party has committed a breach of a representation, warranty or covenant and the breach is not or cannot be cured within 30 days; or NorCal's shareholders fail to approve the merger. In addition, NorCal may terminate the merger agreement to enter into an alternative business combination transaction pursuant to a "superior proposal," as defined by the merger agreement. Further, if during a specified period prior to the closing of the merger, the volume-weighted average closing price of BMRC common stock has declined to less than $33.16 and BMRC common stock underperforms a specified peer group index by more than 15%, then NorCal can terminate the merger agreement. To avoid a termination of the Agreement under these circumstances, BMRC can elect to adjust the exchange ratio such that is calculated by dividing $2.71 by the volume-weighted average closing price of BMRC common stock. If, during a specified period prior to the closing of the merger, the volume-weighted average closing price of BMRC common stock has increased to more than $46.81 and BMRC common stock outperforms a specified peer group index by more than 15%, then BMRC can elect to terminate the merger agreement. To avoid a termination of the merger agreement under these circumstances, NorCal can elect to adjust the exchange ratio such that it is calculated by dividing $3.45 by the volume weighted average price of BMRC common stock. If the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, NorCal has agreed to pay BMRC a termination fee of $970,000.

In connection with the merger agreement, each of the persons currently serving as a director of NorCal entered into a voting agreement with BMRC in which he agreed, among other things, to vote his shares of NorCal common stock in favor of the merger. Additionally, certain officers of NorCal entered into a non-solicitation agreement or letter agreement benefitting BMRC as a condition to BMRC entering into the merger agreement.

The foregoing summary of the merger agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1, and is incorporated herein by reference.

The representations, warranties and covenants of each party set forth in the merger agreement have been made only for purposes of, were and are solely for the benefit of the parties to, the merger agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the merger agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. In addition, the representations and warranties in the merger agreement (i) will not survive consummation of the merger, unless otherwise specified therein, and cannot be the basis for any claims under the merger agreement by the other party after termination of the merger agreement, except as the result of a willful breach, and (ii) were made only as of the date of the merger agreement or such other date as is specified in the merger agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the merger agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the parties' public disclosures. Accordingly, the merger agreement is included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the merger agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding BMRC, NorCal, or their respective affiliates or their respective businesses. The merger agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding BMRC or NorCal, their respective affiliates or their respective businesses, the merger agreement and the merger that will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the registration statement on Form S-4 of BMRC that will include a proxy statement of NorCal and a prospectus of BMRC, as well as in the Forms 10-K, Forms 10-Q and other filings that BMRC makes with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC").

The registration statement will include a proxy statement/prospectus which will be sent to the shareholders of NorCal seeking their approval of the acquisition and related matters.
