Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On February 23, 2015, Kimberly-Clark Corporation (“Kimberly-Clark” or the “Corporation”) entered into two separate definitive purchase agreements (“Agreements”), one by and among the Corporation, The Prudential Insurance Company of America (“Prudential”), Prudential Financial, Inc., and State Street Bank & Trust Company (“State Street”), as independent fiduciary to the Kimberly-Clark Corporation Pension Plan (the “Plan”), and one by and among the Corporation, Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company (“MassMutual”), and State Street, pursuant to which the Plan will purchase group annuity contracts that will transfer to the two insurance companies the future pension benefit obligations for approximately 21,000 Kimberly-Clark retirees in the United States.

Upon issuance of the group annuity contracts, the value of each affected retiree’s benefit obligation will be irrevocably guaranteed by, and split equally between, Prudential and MassMutual. Pursuant to these Agreements, Prudential will serve as the lead administrator and, beginning June 1, 2015, it will make each retiree’s full annuity payment on behalf of itself and MassMutual. The amount of each affected retiree’s annuity payment will be equal to the amount of such individual’s pension benefit. By irrevocably transferring the obligations to Prudential and MassMutual, Kimberly-Clark will reduce its overall pension projected benefit obligation by approximately $2.5 billion. The purchase of group annuity contracts will be funded directly by the assets of the Plan.

The Agreements each contain closing conditions customary for a transaction of this nature, including certain termination clauses. Assuming all closing conditions are satisfied, the Corporation expects the purchase of the irrevocable group annuity contracts would occur in the second quarter of 2015.

Kimberly-Clark expects to make a $400 to $475 million contribution to the Plan in order to maintain the Plan’s funded status. This contribution will be funded by debt financing, and it will be incremental to the Corporation’s previous assumption for 2015 global defined benefit pension plan contributions of up to $100 million. Kimberly-Clark expects to recognize a non-cash pension settlement charge of $0.8 billion after tax ($1.3 billion before-tax) in the second quarter of 2015 as a result of the purchase of the group annuity contracts. This charge will be excluded from the Corporation’s 2015 adjusted results and was not incorporated in the business outlook included in previously filed or furnished documents with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Attached and incorporated herein by reference as Exhibit 99.1 is a copy of the press release of Kimberly-Clark Corporation, dated February 23, 2015, related to this transaction.
