PROXY STATEMENT FOR 2006 ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

To be held on May 16, 2006

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying proxy card are being furnished to the shareholders of Global Industries, Ltd., a Louisiana corporation (the "Company" or "Global"), in connection with the solicitation by and on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Company of proxies for use at the 2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Company ("Annual Meeting") to be held on Tuesday, May 16, 2006, at 10:00 a.m., local time, at The Houstonian Hotel & Conference Center, 111 North Post Oak Lane, Houston, Texas, and any adjournment thereof. This Proxy Statement and the accompanying proxy card are being first mailed to shareholders on or about April 10, 2006.

The execution and return of the enclosed proxy card will not affect a shareholder's right to attend the Annual Meeting. Furthermore, a shareholder may revoke his or her proxy at any time before it is exercised (a) by filing with the Secretary of the Company a written revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date or (b) by appearing and voting in person at the Annual Meeting. Unless otherwise marked, properly executed proxies in the form of the accompanying proxy card will be voted (i) FOR the election of the nine nominees to the Board of Directors of the Company listed below, and (ii) FOR ratification of the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as independent auditors of the Company, and (iii) in the discretion of the proxies on any other matter that properly comes before the shareholders at the Annual Meeting.

On March 31, 2006, the record date for determination of shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting, the Company had outstanding 114,927,277 shares of common stock. The holders of common stock are entitled to one vote per share. The Company's common stock is the only class of voting securities outstanding. Pursuant to the Company's bylaws, the presence at the meeting in person or by proxy of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock is necessary to constitute a quorum.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

(Item 1)

The Board of Directors currently consists of ten positions, but the Board of Directors, pursuant to the Company's bylaws, has reduced the number to nine effective at the time the Annual Meeting is called to order. Nine directors will be elected at the Annual Meeting to serve until the next annual meeting until their successors are elected and qualified. A plurality of the votes cast in person or by proxy by the holders of common stock is required to elect each director. Accordingly, under Louisiana law, the Company's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation and bylaws, abstentions and broker non-votes (which occur if a broker or other nominee does not have discretionary authority and has not received instructions with respect to the particular item) are not counted and have no effect on the election of directors. Unless otherwise indicated on the proxy, the persons named as proxies in the enclosed proxy will vote FOR each of the nominees listed below. Each of the nominees is currently a director of the Company and was recommended by the Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board of Directors and nominated by the Board of Directors. There were no third party fees paid by the Company to assist in the process of identifying or evaluating candidates. Although the Company has no reason to believe that any of the nominees will be unable to serve if elected, should any of the nominees become unable to serve prior to the Annual Meeting, the proxies will be voted for the election of such other persons as may be nominated by the Board of Directors.

Mr. James C. Day is retiring as a member of our Board of Directors following the expiration of his current term and will not stand for re-election at the Annual Meeting.

DIRECTORS AND COMMITTEES

Attendance and Fees

All of the directors of the Company other than Mr. Dore', who is an executive officer of the Company, have been determined by the Board of Directors of the Company to be "independent" pursuant to the NASDAQ listing standards. The Company's Board of Directors held twelve meetings during 2005. Each director attended more than 75% of the combined number of meetings of the Board of Directors and of the committees on which he served that were held during the period in which he was a director, except Mr. Te'llez. It is the Company's policy for directors to attend the annual meeting of shareholders, and at our 2005 annual meeting, seven members of the Company's Board of Directors were in attendance. The Company anticipates that all director nominees will attend the Annual Meeting.

Prior to 2006, all non-employee directors of the Company were entitled to receive a retainer of $70,000 for each election cycle, of which $35,000 was required to be received in the form of restricted stock. Forfeiture restrictions on this restricted stock lapse on the earlier of the date of the next annual shareholder meeting or June 1 of the year following the year of the grant. Each non-employee director also received a $1,500 meeting fee for each Board or committee meeting attended in person ($2,500 in the case of Audit Committee meetings) and a $750 fee for each telephonic meeting attended ($1,250 in the case of Audit Committee meetings). In addition, the chairman of each Board committee and the lead director were entitled to receive a $7,500 stipend ($15,000 in the case of the Audit Committee Chairman). Non-employee directors are reimbursed for (1) ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in attending Board or committee meetings and (2) the cost of an annual medical examination for the director and his spouse.

Each director had the option to receive the cash portion of his retainer and any meeting fees or other compensation in the form of a restricted stock award. The number of shares awarded was based upon the closing price of the Company's common stock on the date immediately preceding the date the compensation was payable.

During the year ended December 31, 2005, an aggregate of 51,690 restricted shares were issued to directors under the compensation policy as follows: Mr. Day - 5,640 shares, Mr. Djerejian - 8,898 shares, Mr. Hotard - 4,018 shares, Mr. Pattarozzi - 4,018 shares, Mr. Payne - 8,037 shares, Mr. Pollock - 13,042 shares, and Mr. Te'llez - 8,037 shares.

In February 2006, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors amended the Non-employee Directors' Compensation Policy. Beginning upon their election at the Annual Meeting, all non-employee directors will be entitled to receive a cash retainer of $50,000 for each election cycle and 10,000 shares of restricted stock granted on the date of their election. The forfeiture restrictions on the non-employee director restricted stock awards will lapse on the earlier of the date of the 2007 annual shareholders' meeting or June 1, 2007. Under the revised policy, the chairman of each Board committee and the lead director, who holds the position for a full election cycle, will be entitled to receive a $7,500 stipend ($15,000 in the case of the Audit Committee Chairman). No meeting fees will be paid under the revised policy, but non-employee directors will still be entitled to reimbursement for ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in attending Board or committee meetings. In connection with adoption of the revised Non-Employee Director Compensation Policy, the Board adopted a director stock ownership policy that requires each director to own shares of common stock of the Company (including shares of restricted stock) valued at five times the annual cash retainer paid to non-employee directors. Under this new policy, directors will be permitted to dispose of any shares they own (other than restricted stock on which the forfeiture restrictions have not lapsed) that exceed the ownership requirement. Existing directors will have three years from the date of adoption (new directors three years from date of first election) to attain the required level of stock ownership.

Shareholder Communication with the Company's Board of Directors

Shareholders may contact the Board of Directors or individual directors by mail addressed to the Secretary of the Company at the Company's principal executive offices at 8000 Global Drive, Carlyss, Louisiana 70665. Shareholders should clearly indicate on the envelope the intended recipient and that the communication is a "Shareholder Communication." All such communications will be forwarded unreviewed and unfiltered to the appropriate directors by the Secretary of the Company.

Committees

The Board of Directors has the following standing committees:

Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee's responsibility is to approve the compensation arrangements for senior management of the Company, including establishment of salaries and bonuses and other compensation for executive officers of the Company, to approve any compensation plans in which officers and directors of the Company are eligible to participate and to administer such plans, including the granting of stock options or other benefits under any such plans, to review the Company's succession plan and to review significant issues that relate to changes in benefit plans. The committee held six meetings during 2005 and is currently comprised of three non-employee directors: Mr. Payne (Chairman), Mr. Pattarozzi, and Mr. Te'llez. All of the members of the Compensation Committee are "independent" as defined by the NASDAQ listing standards.

Nominating and Governance Committee. The Nominating and Governance Committee's primary responsibilities are to recruit and recommend candidates for election to the Board of Directors, to develop and recommend corporate governance guidelines to the Board of Directors, to assist the Board in implementing such guidelines, to review the Company's succession plan, and to lead the Board in its annual review of the performance of the Board and its committees. Although the Nominating and Governance Committee has no set of specific minimum qualifications for director nominees, each nominee is expected to have the following personal characteristics described in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines: creativity, financial literacy, high performance standards, informed judgment, integrity and accountability, mature confidence and a passion about the performance of the Company. Moreover, in making its evaluation the Nominating and Governance Committee may consider, among other factors, whether prospective nominees have relevant business and financial experience or have industry or specialized expertise.

It is the policy of the Nominating and Governance Committee to consider director candidate suggestions made by shareholders in the same manner as other candidates. For the procedures that must be followed in order for the committee to consider recommendations from shareholders, please read "Shareholder Proposals and Director Nominations." This committee held seven meetings during 2005 and is currently comprised of three directors: Mr. Hotard (Chairman), Mr. James C. Day (a current director who is not standing for re-election), and Mr. Djerejian. Each member of this committee is "independent" as defined by the NASDAQ listing standards.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee annually reviews and recommends to the full Board of Directors the firm to be engaged to audit the accounts of the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries. Additionally, the Audit Committee reviews with such independent auditor the plan and results of the auditing engagement and the scope and results of the Company's procedures for internal auditing, makes inquiries as to the adequacy of internal accounting controls, and considers the independence of the auditors. This committee held eleven meetings in 2005 and is currently comprised of three directors: Mr. Pollock (Chairman), Mr. Day, and Mr. Pattarozzi. Each member of the Audit Committee is "independent" as defined by the NASDAQ listing standards and the requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Mr. Pollock has been designated the "audit committee financial expert" as prescribed by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Technical, Health, Safety, and Environment Committee. The Technical, Health, Safety, and Environment Committee's responsibility is to oversee the Company's technical, health, safety, and environmental practices. It reviews the status of the corporate safety program to ensure that the program provides for a safe and healthful work environment. The committee also reviews the status of systems and programs that assure the Company's compliance with environmental laws and regulations. This committee held four meetings during 2005 and is currently comprised of five directors: Mr. Pattarozzi (Chairman), Mr. Day, Mr. Djerejian, Mr. Pollock, and Mr. Te'liez.

The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for each of the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee, and the Nominating and Governance Committee, which sets forth each committee's purposes, responsibilities, and authority. The Board of Directors has also adopted Corporate Governance Guidelines, a Code of Business Ethics, a Code of Ethics for Senior Financial Officers, and Complaint Procedures for Financial, Accounting, and Audit Matters. These committee charters, guidelines, codes, and procedures are available on the Company's website at www.globalind.com. You may also contact the Company's Investor Relations Department at (281) 529-7979 for paper copies free of charge. Changes to or material waivers of the Company's Code of Ethics for Senior Financial Officers will be immediately disclosed via the Company's website at www.globalind.com.

Report of the Audit Committee

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed with the Company's management and representatives of Deloitte & Touche LLP, the Company's independent auditors for 2005, the audited financial statements of the Company contained in the Company's Annual Report for the year ended December 31, 2005. The Audit Committee has also discussed with representatives of the Company's independent auditors the matters required to be discussed pursuant to Statement of Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees) as amended by Statement of Auditing Standards No. 90 (Audit Committee Communications).

At meetings of the Audit Committee held prior to the filing of the Company's quarterly financial statements with the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the Company's quarterly statements with the Company's management and representatives of Deloitte & Touche LLP. At each of such meetings, the Audit Committee held private sessions with representatives of Deloitte & Touche LLP to discuss any and all matters relevant to such financial statements without any restrictions.

The Audit Committee has received and reviewed the written disclosures and the letter from Deloitte & Touche LLP required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees) and has discussed with management and representatives of Deloitte & Touche LLP such auditors' independence. The Audit Committee has also considered whether the provision of non-audit services to the Company by Deloitte & Touche LLP in 2005 was compatible with maintaining their independence and determined that rendering such services had not impaired the auditors' independence.

Based on the review and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, which was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in any of the Company's previous or future filings under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that might incorporate this Proxy Statement or future filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, in whole or in part, the preceding report shall not be deemed to be "soliciting material" or to be "filed" with the Securities and Exchange Commission or incorporated by reference into any filing except to the extent this report is specifically incorporated by reference therein.

(2) In connection with Mr. Pearson's resignation which was effective November 30, 2005, Mr. Pearson and the Company entered into a Resignation and Release Agreement which provided for, among other things, the acceleration of (i) the vesting of 12,000 of Mr. Pearson's unvested stock options and (ii) the release of the forfeiture restrictions of 16,666 of Mr. Pearson's restricted stock.

During 2004, the Company granted named executives 584,000 restricted shares upon which vesting is contingent upon certain Company performance-based measurement criteria. The performance period ends on December 31, 2007. At that time, the number of shares on which the forfeiture restrictions will lapse will be determined based upon the Company's return on capital and the total shareholder return for the performance period compared to a peer group. Each performance test is calculated separately. The executives will vest between 0% and 50% of the total shares granted based on each of the two performance criteria. The table below sets forth information regarding the performance-based long-term incentive grants of restricted shares to the Named Executives during 2004. In the event of a change of control (as defined in the plan), the forfeiture restrictions on 50% of the total shares granted will lapse.

Russell J. Robicheaux	42,000	3 years	-0-	21,000	42,000
J. Michael Pearson (1)	0	3 years	-0-	0	0

(1) In connection with Mr. Pearson's resignation, Mr. Pearson and the Company entered into a Resignation and Release Agreement pursuant to which he forfeited the 100,000 restricted shares associated with his 2004 performance award.

In 2005, there were no grants of restricted shares or performance units to the Named Executives.

The Company's 1992 Stock Option Plan, 1998 Equity Incentive Plan, and 2005 Stock Incentive Plan (the "Plans") provide that, upon a change of control, the Compensation Committee may accelerate the vesting of options, cancel options, and make payments in respect thereof in cash in accordance with the Plans, adjust the outstanding options as appropriate to reflect such change of control, or provide that each option shall thereafter be exercisable for the number and class of securities or property that the optionee would have been entitled to had the option already been exercised.

The Plans provide that a change of control occurs if any person, entity or group (other than William J. Dore' and his affiliates) acquires or gains ownership or control of more than 50% of the Company's outstanding common stock or, if after certain enumerated transactions, the persons who were directors before such transaction cease to constitute a majority of the Board of Directors.

The Company has entered into agreements with certain of the officers of the Company, including all of the Named Executives, that provide certain severance benefits in the event their employment is terminated under certain circumstances within two years following a change in control of the Company. The agreements are for a term of one year and automatically renew each January 1 absent notice to the contrary from the Company; however, if a change of control occurs during the term of the agreement, the agreement cannot be terminated until two years after the change in control has occurred.

The agreements provide that if the Company terminates the Named Executive's employment other than due to death, disability, retirement or cause, or if the Named Executive terminates his employment with the Company for "good reason," in each case within two years following a change in control, then he shall be entitled to the following benefits and payments: (1) a payment equal to the Named Executive's full base salary through the date of termination plus a pro rata payment based on the highest bonus or incentive compensation received in any one of the three fiscal years immediately preceding the fiscal year in which the termination occurred, or the number of days elapsed in the fiscal year in which the termination occurs; (2) a payment in the case of the Named Executives equal to 2.99 times the higher of (i) the highest base salary plus any bonus paid to such executive in any one of the five fiscal years preceding the fiscal year in which the termination occurred or (ii) such executive's annualized includable compensation for the base period (as defined in Section 280G(d)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code); (3) all stock options held by such executive (whether or not then exercisable) shall be surrendered to the Company in exchange for a cash payment equal to the difference between the exercise price and the closing price of the Company's common stock on the date of notice of termination, and all restrictions on any restricted stock granted to such executive shall lapse; (4) a payment of the difference between what such executive is entitled to receive under the Company's retirement plans upon his termination and the amount he would have been entitled to had he been fully vested under such plans upon his termination; (5) continued welfare benefit coverage for two years following his termination, or retiree medical benefits for life, if such executive would have been entitled to such benefits had he voluntarily retired on such date; and (6) payment of certain other expenses or losses related to such executive's termination. In the case of the Named Executives, if any payments would be subject to any excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code then the aggregate compensation payable under the agreement will be increased in an amount necessary to pay such excise taxes and all taxes owed on such additional payments. In the case of other officers, the aggregate compensation payable under the change of control agreement and any other payments that constitute "parachute payments" (as defined in Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code), will be reduced to an amount that is one dollar less than three times his or her annualized includable compensation. If the officer's employment is terminated for cause, then he will be entitled only to receive his current salary plus any incentive compensation through the date notice of termination is given. If the officer is unable to perform his duties due to incapacity after a change in control, he will continue to receive his full base salary and incentive compensation at the rate then in effect until the agreement is terminated.

Generally, a change in control occurs if a person or group acquires 50% or more of the voting stock of the Company, or a merger or sale or transfer of substantially all of the Company's assets occurs or after a contested election, persons who were directors before such election cease to constitute a majority of the Board of Directors.

On November 21, 2005, the Company announced that effective December 1, 2005, Peter S. Atkinson, the Company's President would take on the additional role and title of Chief Financial Officer and that the Company's current Chief Financial Officer, Timothy W. Miciotto, who had previously announced his intention to retire at the end of the year, has agreed to remain with the Company during 2006 as Senior Vice President and Financial Advisor to the President.

In connection with Mr. Atkinson's assumption of additional responsibilities, the Company agreed to increase Mr. Atkinson's base salary to $375,000 per year, and Mr. Atkinson and the Company entered into a letter agreement dated November 16, 2005, pursuant to which the Company agreed to provide Mr. Atkinson with certain benefits, including payment of severance equal to one year's base salary, automobile allowance, and incentive compensation as well as payment of 50% of COBRA health insurance premiums for 18 months, in the event his employment with the Company is terminated by the Company without "cause" or by Mr. Atkinson for "good reason."

In connection with Timothy Miciotto's plan to retire at the end of 2005, the Company and Mr. Miciotto entered into an agreement whereby the Company agreed to pay Mr. Miciotto his current base salary through the end of 2005. Subject to his continued employment through the end of 2005, the Company also agreed to: (i) make a one-time severance payment of $101,610 to Mr. Miciotto following his separation from the Company; (ii) accelerate the vesting of 6,000 stock options held by Mr. Miciotto; (iii) release the forfeiture restrictions with respect to 7,666 shares; (iv) pay or reimburse Mr. Miciotto for 50% of the cost of Executive COBRA health insurance premiums for up to 18 months; (v) reimburse Mr. Miciotto for realtor's commissions and closing costs related to any sale of Mr. Miciotto's primary residence that occurs within one year from his last day of employment; and (vi) reimburse Mr. Miciotto for the cost of moving his household effects in connection with any such sale of his primary residence. The agreement also contains customary waivers and releases of claims.

In connection with Mr. Miciotto's decision to remain with the Company during 2006, the Company agreed to increase his base salary to $210,000 per year and amended Mr. Miciotto's retirement agreement with the Company to provide that (i) the Company would pay Mr. Miciotto his base salary through the end of 2006 if he is terminated without cause and (ii) the Company would make the previously agreed upon severance payment of $101,610 to Mr. Miciotto in the first quarter after his retirement. The other provisions of Mr. Miciotto's retirement agreement with the Company remain in effect.

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors administers the Company's executive compensation. The Compensation Committee's responsibility is to set the compensation philosophy for the Company's executive officers, to approve and administer the Company's incentive and benefit plans, to monitor the performance and compensation of executive officers and other key employees and to set compensation and make awards under the Company's incentive plans that are consistent with the Company's compensation philosophy and the performance of the Company and its executive officers. The Compensation Committee believes that shareholders are best served when the compensation structure for executive officers focuses them on building long-term shareholder value while not neglecting current earnings. Total compensation for the Company's Chief Executive Officer is based upon the same factors and determined in the same way, as the Company's other executive officers.

The Company's executive compensation program consists of three principal elements: (1) base salary, (2) potential for annual incentive compensation awards, which provide for cash bonuses based on overall Company performance as well as individual performance, and (3) opportunities to earn long-term stock-based awards which provide long-term incentives that are intended to encourage the achievement of superior results over time and to align the interests of executive officers with those of shareholders. The annual incentive compensation awards and long-term stock-based awards constitute the performance-based portion of total compensation.

The compensation program is structured to provide senior management with a total compensation package that, at expected levels of performance, is competitive with those provided to executives who hold comparable positions or have similar qualifications in other similarly situated organizations. Peer companies are specifically utilized by the Compensation Committee in evaluating compensation levels of all executives; however, the Compensation Committee also receives advice from time to time regarding compensation levels from Towers Perrin, an independent compensation consulting firm, which utilizes a number of other sources, including information from other companies.

In 2001, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors implemented share ownership guidelines for all executives. These ownership guidelines require that all executives hold a minimum number of shares of the Company's common stock with a market value (i.e., number of shares multiplied by share price) equal to a multiple of their base salary. The multiples are as follows: Chief Executive Officer, five; President, Chief Financial Officer, and Chief Administrative Officer, three; and all other executives, one. Each executive officer was in compliance with the ownership guidelines at the end of 2005.

Base Salary Program. The Compensation Committee establishes base salary levels of the Chief Executive Officer and other executive officers after review of salary survey data of other companies in the oil field service industry having annual sales or revenues generally similar in size to the Company, with particular emphasis given to those other companies in the same geographic area as the Company. By reviewing the salary data of such other companies from time to time, the Compensation Committee intends to try to ensure that the base salaries established by the Compensation Committee are generally within the range of base salaries paid by the other companies. The base salary established for each executive officer also takes into account the executive's particular experience and level of responsibility.

Base salaries of the executive officers are reviewed annually, with adjustments made based on any updated salary data, increases in the cost of living, job performance of the executive officer over time, the expansion of duties and responsibilities, if any, of the executive officer and general market salary levels. No specific weight or emphasis is placed on any one of these factors. In 2005, the Compensation Committee increased the base salary of the Chief Executive Officer, Mr. William Dore' by 5% and increased the other Named Executives base salaries by 5% to 50%. The base salaries were increased after the Compensation Committee completed its annual salary review in 2005 and determined that base salaries of the Company's executive officers continued to be below the targeted ranges of base salaries paid by comparative companies.

Short-Term Incentive Compensation. Annual incentive compensation awards enable the executives and other key employees of the Company to earn annual cash bonuses, based upon the Company's financial results meeting or exceeding goals as well as individual performance. The Company's short-term incentive plan is designed to provide a total cash compensation package that, at expected levels of performance, targets a specified percentile for peer group companies. Considering the Company's performance relative to goals, the Compensation Committee recommends (1) discretionary contributions to the Company's defined contribution profit sharing and retirement plan and (2) incentive compensation awards. There were no discretionary contributions made to the Company's profit sharing and retirement plan in 2005, 2004, or 2003. During 2005, the Chief Executive Officer and the other Named Executives received profit sharing and retirement plan contributions of $312 and $5,475, respectively, representing routine matching contributions and allocation of forfeitures under the plan. Based on the Company's performance during 2004 and 2003, the Chief Executive Officer and other Named Executives did not receive an incentive compensation award. In 2005, the Company instituted the Management Incentive Plan to provide awards to key employees, including executive officers, that are paid out as cash bonuses for the year of the award based primarily on the Company's performance for the year. Under the Management Incentive Plan, the Chief Executive Officer may receive a cash bonus of up to 120% of his salary, and the other Named Executives may earn cash bonuses of up to 80% to 100% of their salaries, depending upon the title of the executive. The amount of the cash bonus for any year is determined based on the performance criteria (one of which may be Compensation Committee discretion) established for each year. The performance criteria for the 2005 awards, as well as the 2006 awards, are earnings per share (50% of potential award) total shareholder return (25%) and discretionary (25%). The Management Incentive Plan awards are paid in cash based upon performance targets being met. Based upon the Company's performance in 2005, cash awards were paid in 2006 for 2005 performance. The amounts paid are included in the summary compensation table for Named Executives.

Long-Term Incentive Compensation. The long-term incentive portion of the Company's executive compensation plan is administered through the Company's Plans, each established by the Board of Directors of the Company to provide a means by which certain employees of the Company, including executive officers, could not only be paid competitively, but also develop an economic interest, through ownership in the Company's common stock, in the financial success of the Company. After reviewing the stock option and restricted stock award position of each executive officer and reviewing competitive compensation data, the Compensation Committee makes awards to executive officers and other key employees, in order to enhance the recipients' desire to remain with the Company and devote their best efforts to its business by more closely aligning executives' and shareholders' long-term interests. There were no grants of restricted shares, options, or performance units in 2005. During the fourth quarter of 2005, the Compensation Committee authorized awards of restricted stock and options to be granted in 2006 to the Chief Executive Officer and other Named Executives. The Committee authorized restricted shares to be granted to the Chief Executive Officer and other Named Executives in the amounts of 64,400 and 53,700 shares, respectively, and options in the amounts of 105,000 and 102,700, respectively. In February 2006, the Committee granted under one of the Plans 35,000 performance units to the Chief Executive Officer and 27,100 performance units to the other Named Executives. At the end of the performance measurement period (the three years ending December 31, 2008), each performance unit will be converted into between 0 and 2 shares of common stock based on the Company's return on capital and total shareholder return. Each performance test is calculated separately and represents 50% of the total available shares.

Section 162(m). Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code ("Section 162(m)"), enacted in 1993, imposes a limit of $1 million, with certain exceptions, on the amount that a publicly held corporation may deduct in any year for the compensation paid or accrued with respect to each of its chief executive officer and four other most highly compensated executive officers. None of the Company's executive officers currently receives compensation exceeding the limits imposed by Section 162(m). While the Compensation Committee cannot predict with certainty how the Company's executive compensation might be affected in the future by the Section 162(m) or applicable tax regulations issued thereunder, the Compensation Committee intends to try to preserve the tax deductibility of all executive compensation while maintaining the Company's executive compensation program as described in this report.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in any of the Company's previous or future filings under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that might incorporate this Proxy Statement or future filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, in whole or in part, the preceding performance information shall not be deemed to be "soliciting material" or to be "filed" with the Securities and Exchange Commission or incorporated by reference into any filing except to the extent this report is specifically incorporated by reference therein.

RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

(Item 2)

The Audit Committee has appointed Deloitte & Touche LLP to serve as independent auditors for the year ending December 31, 2006, subject to ratification of the appointment by the shareowners. Deloitte & Touche LLP has served as the Company's independent auditors since October 1991 and is considered by management to be well qualified. The Company has been advised by Deloitte & Touche LLP that neither the firm, nor any member of the firm, has any financial interest, direct or indirect, in any capacity in the Company or its subsidiaries.

One or more representatives of Deloitte & Touche LLP will be present at this year's Annual Meeting. The representatives will have an opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Ratification of the appointment of the independent auditors requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of common stock represented in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. Accordingly under Louisiana law, the Company's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, and its bylaws, abstentions have the same legal effect as a vote against this proposal, but a broker non-vote is not counted for purposes of determining the number of shares represented in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

In the event of a negative vote on such ratification, the Board of Directors will reconsider its selection. Even if the selection is ratified, the Audit Committee in its discretion may direct the appointment of a different independent auditing firm at any time during the year if the Audit Committee believes that such a change would be in the best interest of our company and our stockholders.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF DELOITTE & TOUCHE LLP AS INDEPENDENT AUDITORS
