ICICI Bank Limited (the 'Bank') Report on Form 6-K

The Bank has made the below disclosure to the Indian stock exchanges in response to a clarification sought by the exchanges with reference to a news item.

We refer to your email dated March 6, 2018 seeking the company's clarification on the news item appearing in <https://www.indiatoday.in>, titled "ICICI's Chanda Kochhar, Axis Bank's Shikha Sharma summoned by SFIO in PNB scam case".

In this connection, we draw reference to our earlier letter dated February 28, 2018 vide which we had informed you that the Bank routinely and regularly cooperates with regulatory authorities who require information in the course of their investigation. To provide assistance to the investigating authorities, representatives of ICICI Bank continue to engage actively and provide requisite inputs as routinely done in the case of all investigating authorities who approach the Bank.

We wish to clarify that in our view, the above news item will not have any material impact on the Bank or trigger any reporting under Regulation 30 of the SEBI Listing Regulations owing to the fact which we mentioned in our earlier letter as well that the Bank has no exposure to the Nirav Modi group of companies, nor has the Bank issued any Letter of Undertaking; nor has any buyer's credit exposure against LOUs with respect to the Nirav Modi group of companies as well as the Gitanjali group of companies. The Bank is a part of the working capital lender consortium in the Gitanjali group of companies along with several other banks wherein its exposure is not the largest.

This is for your information and records.
