Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Agreement.

On September 20, 2009, SCM Microsystems, Inc. (SCM or the Company) entered into a Business Combination Agreement (the Business Combination Agreement) with Bluehill ID AG (Bluehill ID), a stock corporation incorporated in Switzerland, to combine their respective companies. The Business Combination Agreement provides for, among other things, the Company to make an offer to the Bluehill ID shareholders to acquire all of the Bluehill ID bearer shares (the Offer), and the issuance of shares of SCM s common stock to Bluehill ID shareholders who accept the Offer. The foregoing description of the Business Combination Agreement does not purport to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Business Combination Agreement, a copy of which was filed previously as exhibit 2.1 to SCM s Current Report on Form 8-K dated September 21, 2009 (see SEC File No. 000-29440) and is incorporated herein by this reference.

On November 8, 2002, the SCM board of directors declared a dividend of one preferred share purchase right to purchase one one-thousandth of a share of SCM s series A participating preferred stock for each outstanding share of SCM common stock. The dividend was payable on the record date of November 25, 2002 to stockholders of record as of the close of business on that date. Certificates representing SCM common stock issued after the record date contain a notation incorporating the rights agreement by reference. The terms of the rights are governed by a preferred stock rights agreement, dated as of November 8, 2002, as amended December 10, 2008 (the Rights Agreement) between SCM and American Stock Transfer & Trust, LLC (the Rights Agent). The rights only become exercisable if a person or group of affiliated or associated persons has acquired, or obtained the right to acquire, beneficial ownership of 15% or more of the shares of SCM common stock then outstanding, or announces a tender or exchange offer, the consummation of which would result in ownership by a person or group of 15% or more of SCM common stock then outstanding.

On November 16, 2009, SCM and the Rights Agent entered into the second amendment to the Rights Agreement (the Amendment) to provide that neither the approval, execution nor delivery of the Business Combination Agreement, nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Offer, or the performance by SCM of its obligations thereunder will cause (a) the Rights (as such term is defined in the Rights Agreement) to become exercisable, (b) a Triggering Event (as such term is defined in the Rights Agreement) to occur, (c) a Shares Acquisition Date (as such term is defined in the Rights Agreement) to occur or (d) a Distribution Date (as such term is defined in the Rights Agreement) to occur. The Amendment also revises the definition of Acquiring Person to increase the triggering percentage of beneficial ownership for certain of Bluehill ID s shareholders so that they will not be deemed to be an Acquiring Person as a result of the Offer. The foregoing description of the terms and conditions of the Amendment does not describe all terms and conditions thereof, and is expressly qualified by reference to the specific text of the Amendment, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.1 and is incorporated herein by this reference.

Item 3.03. Material Modification to Rights of Security Holders.

The information contained in Item 1.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K with respect to the Amendment is incorporated by reference herein and made a part hereof.
