Item 4.01. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

On December 13, 2007, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Friedman Industries, Incorporated (the Company) engaged Hein & Associates LLP as the Company's independent certified public accountant and dismissed Malone & Bailey, P.C. as the auditors for the Company.

The report of Malone & Bailey, P.C. on the financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2007 (the only fiscal period for which Malone & Bailey rendered an opinion as its engagement commenced on March 7, 2007) did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

During the Company's fiscal year ended March 31, 2007 and the subsequent interim period through December 13, 2007, there were no disagreements with Malone & Bailey, P.C. on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Malone & Bailey, P.C., would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement(s) in connection with its reports on the financial statements for such years.

During the Company's fiscal year ended March 31, 2007 and the subsequent interim period through December 13, 2007, the Company did not consult with Hein & Associates LLP regarding the application of accounting principles to a specific transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements, and no written or oral advice was provided by Hein & Associates LLP that was a factor considered by the Audit Committee in reaching a decision as to the accounting, auditing or financial reporting issues.

The Company has provided Malone & Bailey, P.C. a copy of the above disclosures and has requested that Malone & Bailey, P.C. furnish the Company with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether or not Malone & Bailey, P.C. agrees with the above statements. Pursuant to our request, Malone & Bailey, P.C. has provided the letter attached hereto as Exhibit 16.1.
