Item 5. Other Events and Regulation FD Disclosure.

On July 21, 2003, (i) Centex Corporation (Centex) and Centex Construction Products, Inc. (the Company) entered into a Distribution Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.2 (the Distribution Agreement), and (ii) Centex, ARG Merger Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of Centex (Merger Sub), and the Company entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 (the Merger Agreement), in order to provide for the distribution (the Distribution) by Centex of its entire equity interest in the Company to the holders of Centex 's common stock, par value $.25 per share (Centex Common Stock), in a tax-free transaction. The Distribution and the other transactions contemplated by the Distribution Agreement and the Merger Agreement are expected to be completed on or about December 31, 2003, subject to certain conditions described in more detail below, including (i) receipt by Centex of a private letter ruling (the IRS Ruling) from the Internal Revenue Service (the IRS) providing that the Distribution and certain related transactions will qualify as tax-free transactions for federal income tax purposes and (ii) approval by the stockholders of the Company (including approval of a majority of the stockholders of the Company other than Centex) of the Reclassification (as defined below) of the common stock of the Company as described below, which is necessary to permit the Distribution to be accomplished on a tax-free basis. The transactions contemplated by the Distribution Agreement and the Merger Agreement were approved by the Board of Directors of Centex and the Board of Directors of the Company on July 21, 2003. The approval by the Board of Directors of the Company was based, in part, upon the recommendation of a Special Committee comprised solely of independent directors not affiliated with Centex. The Special Committee hired its own financial advisors and legal counsel to advise it.

As of the date of this filing, Centex beneficially owns 11,962,304 shares of the Company 's common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the Common Stock) representing approximately 65% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the Company. In order to effect the Distribution on a tax-free basis, Centex, Merger Sub and the Company have agreed, pursuant to the Merger Agreement, to seek to effect a reclassification of the Common Stock so that it will consist of two separate classes of common stock (the Reclassification). Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Centex will contribute 9,220,000 of the shares of Common Stock owned by it (the Contributed Shares) to Merger Sub and Centex will retain the remaining 2,742,304 shares of Common Stock owned by it (the Additional Shares). Merger Sub will then merge with and into the Company, with the Company as the surviving corporation. As a result of the merger, (i) all the outstanding shares of common stock of Merger Sub (all of which are owned by Centex) will be converted into 9,220,000 shares of a new class of common stock of the Company to be designated as Class B Common Stock, par value $.01 per share (the Class B Common Stock), (ii) all of the outstanding shares of Common Stock held by Merger Sub will be cancelled, with no consideration paid in exchange therefor and (iii) all other outstanding shares of Common Stock, including the Additional Shares, will remain outstanding. The Reclassification requires the approval of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock at a special meeting of the stockholders of the Company to be called by the Board of Directors of the Company (the Stockholders Meeting). In addition, the Merger Agreement provides that the Reclassification must be approved by the holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock (other than shares held directly or indirectly by Centex or Merger Sub) voted at the Stockholders Meeting.

If the Reclassification is consummated, the outstanding Common Stock of the Company will consist of two separate classes consisting of approximately equal numbers of shares. Holders of the outstanding shares of Class B Common Stock will be entitled to elect at least 85% of the directors of the Company, but their rights will otherwise be identical to those of the holders of the shares of Common Stock. Holders of the outstanding shares of Common Stock will be entitled to elect up to 15% of the directors of the Company. Not later than the completion of the Reclassification, the Board of Directors of the Company will consist of seven directors, six of which will be deemed directors elected by the holders of Class B Common Stock and one of which will be deemed a director elected by the holders of Common Stock. Holders of the outstanding shares of Class B Common Stock and Common Stock will, except as otherwise required by law, vote together on all matters other than the election of directors that are submitted to a vote of the stockholders of the Company.

After the Reclassification, Centex has agreed, pursuant to the Distribution Agreement, to distribute to the holders of record of Centex Common Stock on a pro rata basis all of the shares of Class B Common Stock that it receives in the Reclassification and all of the Additional Shares. The Distribution will be made to the holders of record of Centex Common Stock as of a record date to be fixed by the Board of Directors of Centex, which is not expected to be determined until after the Stockholders Meeting. The obligations of Centex to effect the Distribution are subject to various customary and other conditions, including (i) the receipt of the IRS Ruling, (ii) the declaration and payment of the Cash Dividend (as defined below), (iii) the consummation of the Reclassification, (iv) the registration of the Class B Common Stock pursuant to Form 8-A under Section 12(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended and (v) the approval of the listing of the Class B Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange, subject to official notice of issuance.

Pursuant to the Distribution Agreement, the Company has also agreed to declare and pay a dividend (the Cash Dividend) to the holders of Common Stock as of a record date prior to the Distribution in an amount equal to $6.00 per share. The obligations of the Company to pay the Cash Dividend are subject to various customary and other conditions, which are similar to the conditions to the Distribution described above. In addition, it is a condition to the declaration and payment of the Cash Dividend that the Company arrange financing sufficient to fund the Cash Dividend and the Company's ongoing capital requirements.

In connection with the Reclassification, the Company will propose to (A) amend its Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the Certificate of Incorporation) in order, among other things, to (i) eliminate the ability of the stockholders of the Company to act by written consent, (ii) create a classified board of directors consisting of three classes, (iii) eliminate the ability of the stockholders of the Company to call a special meeting of stockholders, (iv) require a supermajority vote by the Company's stockholders to amend certain provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, and (v) increase the authorized number of shares of capital stock of the Company and (B) consider the adoption of a stockholders rights plan, which must be ratified by the stockholders of the Company in order to become effective (collectively items (A) and (B) of this paragraph shall be referred to herein as the Governance Proposals). The Governance Proposals will be submitted as separate proposals to the stockholders of the Company at the Stockholders Meeting, and will not become effective unless the Reclassification is approved by the required vote at the Stockholders Meeting.

The Distribution Agreement and the Merger Agreement can be terminated under various circumstances, including, but not limited to, (i) mutual written consent of the parties, (ii) by Centex in its sole discretion at any time prior to the filing of the certificate of merger relating to the Reclassification, without the approval of the Company or its stockholders, (iii) by the Company in the event of a material breach by Centex of a representation, warranty or covenant contained in the Distribution Agreement that would result in a material adverse effect to the Company that has not been cured within 30 days, (iv) by Centex or the Company if the stockholders of the Company do not approve the Reclassification by the required vote at the Stockholders Meeting or (v) by Centex or the Company if the Reclassification has not been consummated by January 30, 2004 (subject to extension under certain circumstances). If the Distribution Agreement is terminated for any reason, Centex shall pay the out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Company in connection with the Distribution Agreement and the Merger Agreement.
