On July 23, 2007, Commercial Metals Company (the Company) issued a press release announcing that its Swiss subsidiary, Commercial Metals International AG, has signed a definitive purchase agreement with the Croatian government to acquire Valjaonica Cijevi Sisak (Sisak). Sisak is an electric arc furnace-based steel pipe company with a pipe making capacity of about 305,000 metric tons annually.

The Company will pay HRK 37 million for the shares (about U.S. $7 million), assume debt of over HRK 200 million (about U.S. $41 million), invest about U.S. $40 million in capital expenditures and increase working capital by approximately U.S. $39 million. The Company also has committed to retaining the employees of Sisak for a period of three years. The purchase agreement is subject to closing conditions which are expected to be met within the next sixty days.

On July 25, 2007, the Company issued a press release announcing that CMC Zawiercie S.A. (CMCZ), the Company's steel minimill located in Zawiercie, Poland, will install a new rolling mill at an estimated cost of $170 million. The new mill, designed to allow efficient and flexible production of an increased medium section product range, will complement the facility's existing rolling mill dedicated primarily to rebar production.
