Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On November 16, 2007, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the Committee) of Lindsay Corporation (the Company) adopted the Management Incentive Plan for the Company's fiscal year ending August 31, 2008 (2008 MIP) under which the Company's senior officers can earn annual cash incentive awards. Each person who will be a named executive officer in the Company's proxy statement for its 2008 annual meeting is a participant in the 2008 MIP.

The 2008 MIP establishes target bonus amounts for each participating officer ranging from 35% to 60% of such officer's base salary. Participants are eligible for awards of between 0% and 200% of their target bonus depending on the achievement of certain Company financial performance criteria and individual performance criteria. Depending on an officer's role in the Company, the Company financial performance component ranged from 65% to 80% of the overall performance criteria for such officer. The Company financial performance component generally was based on achieving stated goals for fiscal 2008 operating income and average working capital to sales, with target bonuses for these subcomponents keyed to the Company's fiscal 2008 operating budget. For certain officers, the Company financial performance component also includes additional subcomponents relating to a specific market segment or operational area over which those officers had direct responsibility or control. The amount of bonus awarded under the individual performance component is dependent upon an officer's personal performance as evaluated using individual performance objectives established by the Committee for each participating officer.
