Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement and Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On January 5, 2005, Inter-Tel, Incorporated (the Company) received court approval of a civil settlement agreement (the Civil Settlement) and a criminal plea agreement (the Plea Agreement) with the United States of America, each dated as of December 8, 2004 and disclosed on that same date. The court approval of the Civil Settlement and Plea Agreement resolves the investigation of the Department of Justice into the participation of Inter-Tel Technologies, Inc., the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary (Inter-Tel) in a federally funded e-Rate program to connect schools and libraries to the Internet.

In connection with the Civil Settlement, Inter-Tel agreed to pay a penalty of approximately $6,740,450 and forego the collection of certain accounts receivable of approximately $259,540 related to Inter-Tel's participation in the e-Rate program.

In connection with the Plea Agreement, Inter-Tel entered guilty pleas to charges of mail fraud and an antitrust violation. Under the Plea Agreement, Inter-Tel agreed to pay a fine of $1,721,000 and observe a three year probationary period, which will, among other things, require Inter-Tel to implement a comprehensive corporate compliance program.

The resolution is currently expected to cost Inter-Tel approximately $9.5 million in total, including criminal fines, civil settlement and restitution, uncompensated e-rate work, accounts receivable forgiveness, and related remaining attorneys' fees and other expenses. The payments constituting the primary components of the settlement are not tax deductible. The effect of the resolution on fourth quarter results of operations is currently expected to be a reduction to net income by approximately $8.9 million, after considering accounts receivable reserves previously accrued and an income tax benefit of approximately $0.3 million.

The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the copies of the Civil Settlement and Plea Agreement, which are attached to this Current Report as Exhibits 99.1 and 99.2, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference.

This Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, including statements regarding anticipated settlement expenses and related fees, the expected costs of forgiveness of accounts receivable and legal fees, estimated reductions to net income in the fourth quarter of 2004, requirements to implement and maintain a more comprehensive corporate compliance program. Such statements are based on current assumptions that involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual outcomes and results to differ materially from our current expectations. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not necessarily limited to the risk that Inter-Tel's actual total expenses may be different from the anticipated costs outlined above; the potential impact of the settlement and plea agreements, including possible suspension or debarment from future contracts; the time, efforts and costs associated with the compliance program, including the timely and successful hiring and retention of the compliance officer and other requirements associated with the program; hiring and retention of qualified employees and maintenance of required employee education and training; the potential impact of market, industry, competitive and customer reaction to the settlement and plea agreements. For a further list and description of such risks and uncertainties, please see Inter-Tel's previously filed SEC reports, including Inter-Tel's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC on March 15, 2004 and Inter-
