Class B-3 common stock of Chicago Mercantile Exchange Holdings Inc. on or about March 12, 2003:

GARY KATLER

Dear Fellow Class B-3 Shareholders:

I am writing to ask for your vote in the upcoming Board of Directors elections. I am a candidate for re-election in the former IOM Division, Class B-3 Shares.

I have served you on the CME board for the past 10 years. It has been a distinct privilege to represent the diverse interest of the IOM members/Class B-3 shareholders and to work on such a distinguished board. I would be honored to continue my service.

Our preeminent position amongst world exchanges is the result of our capacity to work together as liquidity providers, brokers, salespersons, and clearers. Our board has tirelessly set and guided the implementation of far-sighted strategic goals. Our board has endeavored to align all interest while building on our success and creating enduring value for all shareholders.

Together we accomplished great things last year. CME traded a record of 558.4 million contracts, and in December we became the number one exchange in the world measured by an open interest of 24.6 million contracts. Globex volume exceeded one million contracts on 55 trading days. As a de-mutualized exchange we had net income of $94.1 million in 2002. I am sure you will agree that our IPO of Chicago Mercantile Exchange Holdings Inc. in December has been a resounding achievement. At the same time, we face competitor products and markets. In this competitive environment I will continue to advance the introduction of innovative products and the formation of tactical alliances. I ask to remain your representative as we face new challenges and attain new successes.

As many of you know, I am a Vice President of O'Connor & Company LLC. O'Connor is a CME Clearing Member and provides execution and clearing services to liquidity providers and institutional market users in futures, options and equities.

In previous campaigns I concluded my letter with personal handwritten notes. SEC regulations now make this most impractical. Nevertheless, allow me to extend my best wishes to each of you, and to your families.

Warmest regards,

/s/ Gary M. Katler
