The procedures followed by the Board in the nomination process are set forth in Procedures as Governing the Nominating Process which serves as the Board's charter concerning nominating matters. In order for any such candidate to be considered for nomination and, if nominated, to be included in the proxy statement, such recommendation must be received by the Secretary not less than 120 days prior to the anniversary date of the Company's mailing of its proxy statement for the most recent annual meeting of shareholders.

The Board of Directors believes that it is desirable that directors possess an understanding of the Company's business environment and have the requisite knowledge, skills, expertise and diversity of experience such that the Board's ability to manage and direct the affairs and business of the Company is enhanced. The Board may also, from time to time, engage firms that specialize in identifying director candidates. Once a person has been identified by the Board as a potential candidate, the Board may collect and review publicly available information regarding the person to assess whether the person should be considered further. If the Board determines that the candidate warrants further consideration, a member of the Board may contact the person. Generally, if the person expresses a willingness to be considered and to serve on the Board, the Board may request information from the candidate, review the person's accomplishments and qualifications and may conduct one or more interviews with the candidate. The Board may consider all such information in light of information regarding any other candidates that the Board might be evaluating for nomination to the Board of Directors. Board members may also contact one or more references provided by the candidate or may contact other members of the business community or other persons that may have greater first-hand knowledge of the candidate's accomplishments. With the nominee's consent, the Board may also engage an outside firm to conduct background checks on candidates as part of the nominee evaluation process. The Board's evaluation process does not vary based on the source of the recommendation.

As of June 30, 2008, four of the five members of the Board were independent directors (as defined in Rule 4200(a)(15) of the Nasdaq Marketplace Rules). The agreement also provides for a second bonus equal to the appreciation of an aggregate of 450,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock over the closing price of such number of shares on the day preceding the starting date of his employment with the Company. Entitlement to this second bonus was to vest at the rate of 33.333% per year commencing with the first anniversary of such starting date (subject to acceleration in certain events as described below), and all or any part of each incremental vested portion was to be exercisable within five years from the date such increment first vested and payable in cash in installments.

The second bonus may be replaced at the Company's sole option on or before February 28, 2007 with a grant of 340,000 restricted shares of the Company's Common Stock of the Company in accordance with an equity incentive compensation plan vesting at the rate of 85,000 shares per year commencing January 2, 2007 or the grant date, whichever is later. If the restricted stock grant is pursuant to the Company's general equity incentive plan for its key employees as approved by the Company's Board of Directors and shareholders, then the Company is obligated to register such shares with the SEC. The Company replaced the stock appreciation rights with the restricted stock grant in February, 2007 and registered the shares with the SEC.

In the event of a transaction in which the Company's shareholders receive cash or marketable securities for their shares of stock of the Company (a "Liquidity Event"), the vesting of the unvested restricted shares or portion of the second bonus will accelerate immediately prior to the Liquidity Event based on the amount received by the Company's shareholders for their shares: 100% of the unvested restricted shares if the consideration received by Pro-Dex shareholders is $5 per share or greater; 80% if between $4 and $5; and 60% if between $3 and $4.

In the event Mr. Murphy is terminated involuntarily by the Company without "Cause" or resigns with "Good Reason" as defined below, the Company shall pay him his (i) annual salary up through the date of termination plus (ii) accrued vacation plus (iii) severance equal to $280,000 and (iv) any annual bonus or second bonus earned but not yet paid as of the termination date. With the exception of the earned amount of his annual bonus (to be paid within thirty (30) days of his termination), the severance payment referred to above shall be made in equal incremental payments over a period of twelve (12) months from the termination date.

The Murphy Employment Agreement defines "Cause" as termination due to: (i) Mr. Murphy's failure or inability to perform his duties with the Company or a related entity; (ii) his failure to substantially follow and comply with the specific and lawful directives of the Board or any officer of the Company or a related entity to whom he reports directly; (iii) the Board's determination on advice of counsel of his commission of an act of fraud or dishonesty; his engagement in illegal conduct, gross misconduct or an act of moral turpitude; or his material violation of any material written policy, guideline, code, handbook or similar document governing the conduct of directors, officers or employees of the Company or its related entities; or (iv) a material breach by Mr. Murphy of the terms of the Murphy Employment Agreement. The Murphy Employment Agreement defines "Good Reason" as: (i) a reduction in Mr. Murphy's salary or failure of the Company to pay any amount owing to him under the Murphy Employment Agreement when due; or a material reduction in benefits provided to him under the Murphy Employment Agreement; (ii) the Company's requiring him to be based full time in any office or location outside of a sixty (60) mile radius from his current residence in Yorba Linda, California; (iii) his being requested by the Board to execute any documents or take any action in violation of any laws or regulations applicable to the Company, commit an act of fraud or dishonesty violation of any material written policy, guideline, code, handbook or similar document governing the conduct of directors, officers or employees of the Company or its related entities; (iv) a Liquidity Event, in which he is not offered an executive position with substantially comparable compensation, benefits and incentives with any successor to the Company based in any office or location inside a sixty (60) miles radius from his current residence in Yorba Linda; California; or (v) a material breach by the Company of the Murphy Employment Agreement. Both the Company and Mr. Murphy have a 30 day cure period following a notice of "Cause" or "Good Reason" as the case may be.
