EXPLANATORY NOTE

This registration statement on Form S-8 is being filed for the purpose of registering an additional 7,000,000 shares of common stock, $0.01 par value per share, of Quest Diagnostics Incorporated (the “Corporation”) issuable pursuant to the Plan. In accordance with Instruction E to the General Instructions to Form S-8, the contents of the Registration Statement on Form S-8 (File No. 333-162711) that the Registrant filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on October 28, 2009, are hereby incorporated by reference and made part of this Registration Statement, except that Item 6 thereof is hereby restated as follows.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Limitation on Liability of Directors

Pursuant to authority conferred by Section 102 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL"), Paragraph 11 of the Corporation's certificate of incorporation (the "Certificate") eliminates the personal liability of the Corporation's directors to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty, including, without limitation, directors serving on committees of the Corporation's board of directors (the "Board"). Directors remain liable for (1) any breach of the duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (2) any act or omission not in good faith or which involves intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (3) any violation of Section 174 of the DGCL, which proscribes the payment of dividends and stock purchases or redemptions under certain circumstances, and (4) any transaction from which directors derive an improper personal benefit.

Indemnification and Insurance

In accordance with Section 145 of the DGCL, which provides for the indemnification of directors, officers, and employees under certain circumstances, Section 7.01 of the Corporation's By-Laws and Section 11 of the Certificate each grant the Corporation's officers and directors a right to indemnification, to the fullest extent authorized by the DGCL, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than said law permitted the Corporation to provide prior to such amendment) for all expenses, liabilities and losses reasonably incurred by each director or officer who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, and such indemnification shall continue as to former directors and officers and shall inure to the benefit of such directors' and officers' heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that the Corporation shall indemnify any such person seeking indemnification in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by the person seeking indemnification only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board. The Corporation's By-laws and Certificate also each provide that officers and directors of the Corporation covered by this indemnification provision shall be entitled to receive advancement of such expenses prior to the final disposition of the proceeding; provided, however, that such advances will only be made upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking, by or on behalf of such director or officer, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined that such director or officer is not entitled to be indemnified under such provisions of the Corporation's By-Laws, Certificate or otherwise.

The Corporation's By-Laws and Certificate further provide that the indemnification set forth in each document shall not limit or exclude any rights, indemnities or limitations of liability to which any such officer or director may otherwise be entitled, whether as a matter of law, by agreement, vote of the stockholders or disinterested directors of the Corporation, under either of the Corporation's By-Laws, Certificate, or otherwise.

Each of the Corporation's By-Laws and Certificate further provides that the Corporation may maintain insurance to protect itself and its officers and directors against such loss, expense and liability, and such insurance shall be effective whether or not the Corporation would have the power to provide to such person the indemnification set forth under the DGCL. The Corporation intends to maintain insurance coverage for its officers and directors as well as insurance coverage to reimburse the Corporation for potential costs of its corporate indemnification of its directors and officers.

The Corporation's By-Laws further provide that should any repeal or modification of any of the provisions of Section 7.01 occur, such changes would not adversely affect any right or protection of any director, officer or other person in respect of any proceeding arising out of, or related to, any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

Additional Rights

Pursuant to an Employment Agreement dated as of April 9, 2012, the Corporation is required to indemnify (including advancement of expenses) Stephen H. Rusckowski to the full extent permitted by law and the Corporation's By-Laws and Certificate, and to include him as an insured person under the Corporation's directors' and officers' liability insurance policy.

General

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted for directors and officers and controlling persons pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the Corporation has been advised that, in the opinion of the Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.
