Item 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Article XII of the Company's Articles of Incorporation, as amended, provides as follows:

The personal liability of a director to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director is limited to the full extent provided by Colorado law.

Pursuant to Section 7-108-402 of the Colorado Business Corporation Act, the Company is prohibited from eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the Company or to its shareholders for monetary damages for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Company or to its shareholders, acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law, distributions made in violation of the Company's Articles of Incorporation or Colorado law, any transaction from which the director directly or indirectly received an improper personal benefit or any act occurring before this Article of the Company's Articles of Incorporation became effective (August 9, 1989).

Table of Contents

Article IX of the Company’s Bylaws provides that the Company shall indemnify directors, officers, employees and agents in accordance with Colorado law. The Bylaws also authorize the Company to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of such persons regardless of whether the Company would have the power to indemnify for the liability insured against.

Article 109 of the Colorado Business Corporation Act allows a corporation to indemnify its officers, directors, employees and agents against liability incurred because such person is or was an officer, director, employee or agent if such person, (i) conducted himself or herself in good faith; (ii) reasonably believed, (x) in the case of conduct in an official capacity with the corporation, that his or her conduct was in the best interests of the corporation (or employee benefit plan, if applicable), or (y) in all other cases, that his or her conduct was at least not opposed to the corporation’s best interests; and (iii) in the case of any criminal proceeding, such person had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful.

A corporation is prohibited from indemnifying an officer, director, employee or agent if such person was adjudged liable to the corporation or was adjudged liable on the basis that he or she derived an improper personal benefit.

A corporation is required to indemnify an officer, director, employee or agent if such person was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in defense of any proceeding to which such person was a party, against reasonable expenses incurred by him or her in connection with the proceeding.

Article 109 also contains provisions relating to the advancement of expenses, petitioning the court for indemnification, authorization of indemnification by disinterested parties and notice to shareholders of indemnification.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 (the “Act”) may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling the Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the Company has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable

Item 9. UNDERTAKINGS

A. The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this Registration Statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this Registration Statement or any material change to such information in this Registration Statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i) and (1)(ii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

B. The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

C. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that, in the opinion of the Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
