Item 5. Other Events.

On January 30, 2003, Cerus Corporation (the Company ) announced its financial results for the fourth quarter and year ended December 31, 2002. The press release announcing the results is filed as Exhibit 99.1 hereto.

On January 30, 2003, during its fourth quarter and year-end 2002 conference call, the Company announced that discussions with the FDA are ongoing on several PMA modules, including the clinical module, that are under review concerning the Intercept Blood System, and that the timing of completion of the PMA submission is dependent upon the outcome of such discussions. In addition, efforts to modify the design for manufacturing the INTERCEPT Blood System for plasma continue, and the timing of its regulatory submission is uncertain. Finally, slower than expected patient enrollment has made the timing of its submission for its INTERCEPT Blood System for red blood cells difficult to accurately predict at this time.
